Mrs. Bannard went to Eugene some time ago and remained with her daughter until she was able to travel.

The second game of baseball between the Medford locals and the A. A. C. was played at the latter's ground in West Grants Pass on Sunday afternoon and resulted in the score of 1 to 2 in favor of A. A. C. The game was called for 2:30 and in spite of the disagreeable weather, a fair-sized crowd was present. No scores were made by either side until the seventh inning, when Grants Pass scored twice, and Medford made one score in the last inning.

Both teams were in prime condition and played fast ball from start to finish and the interest of the audience was keenly manifest throughout the game. The A. A. C. boys are covering themselves with glory, they also winning in a score of 2 to 3 in a game with Roseburg, the Sunday before. The next game will be with Jacksonville, Sunday, June 3d, to be played in this city.

The Fraternal Brotherhood.

The Fraternal Brotherhood is a fraternal insurance society with Supreme offices at Los Angeles, Cal. The purpose of the order are to unite all white persons who are of proper age, in sound health, of good moral character and socially acceptable, for mutual improvement, benefit and protection. A young man or woman, 20 years of age can take out a policy in the Fraternal Brotherhood in the amount of $3000 at a cost of $1.80 per month. In case of death after two years' membership his beneficiary will receive $3000 in cash. In case of total and permanent disability, the insured stops paying his assessments and receives $300 per annum for ten years. The assured ceases to pay assessments after he is 70 years of age and between the age of 70 and 80 years he receives from the society the sum of $300 per annum. An accident benefit is also paid in the sum of $15 per week. An effort will be made to institute a lodge at Grants Pass. The order has a fine, large lodge at Ashland and one also at Medford.

Get acquainted with SMITH'S

IF SMITH'S MAGAZINE and you are strangers we will send you the magazine three months free that you may get acquainted.

SMITH'S is the biggest illustrated magazine in the world—170 pages of reading matter and pictures, the same size page as the big standard magazines like Harper's and Century.

SMITH'S is made up of the best of everything—best stories that can be obtained, best illustrations that clever artists can draw, and the best special articles, written by writers who know their subject thoroughly and write as entertainingly as they are instructive.

SMITH'S also prints every month a score of more pretty portraits, in colors, of beautiful women. Taken all in all, there is no better magazine than SMITH'S—in fact, none nearly as good, no matter what the cost.

Write to-day. A postal will do. Address Dept. F, Smith's Magazine, 85 Seventh Avenue, New York City

A Brief Record of Local Events.

Geo. H. Himes of the Oregon Historical Society spent two days in the city this week in the interest of the society.

Mrs. A. U. Bannard had the misfortune to break both bones in the right arm near the wrist Sunday morning, caused from a fall. She was just descending the stairs and her toe caught at the top step and she fell headlong to the bottom of the stairs. It is exceedingly fortunate that there were no more serious results.

John L. Childs, accompanied by Mrs. Childs and their daughter, arrived in Grants Pass Monday to spend some time with friends. Mr. Childs is editor and owner of the Crescent City News and he is taking a rest for a few weeks. He is also district deputy supreme president of the Fraternal Brotherhood and he will endeavor to organize a lodge of the order in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Childs were former residents of this city and he was the founder of the Mining Journal.

Grants Pass has four meat markets, each a credit to a large city for the proprietors are up-to-date in their business and keep their places of business in the best of shape. As is his custom W. I. Sweetland owner and manager of the Temple market on North Sixth street gives his shop a thorough renovating each Spring. He is now having that done for this year. In the salesroom the meat hooks have all been re-enameled to enable them to be kept scrupulously clean. All the woodwork has been repainted and the large refrigerator, and the counters revarnished, and the walls have been covered with an enameled paper.

The work room to the rear has also been given an overhauling and the equipment-enlarged to meet the growing trade that Mr. Sweetland is having. Electric power is used for operating the sausage machine and the greatest care is taken that the sausage and other meats shall be clean and wholesome.

Presbyterian Church.

Evan P. Hughes will discuss the following themes at the Presbyterian church next Sunday: 11 a. m.—"Four Victims of the Foul and Loathsome Disease of Leprosy: One a Pretty Good Fellow." 8 p. m.—"An Unique Mode of Attack: Illustrated from the Fall of a Famous Fortress." The special musical program, in addition to the usual hymns, is as follows: Anthem—"Christian, the morn breaks sweetly o'er thee." Choir Solo—"I'm Praying for You." H. C. Kinney Anthem—"Guide me, O thou great Jehovah." Choir Everyone is most cordially and heartily welcome to the services of the church, especially strangers who may be in our city.
