Christian Church Annual Basket Meeting Next Sunday

Next Sunday there will be an all-day service at the Christian church. Mr. Bower will speak in the morning on "The Elements Which Make the Church," after which a dinner will be enjoyed together in the lecture room. At 2:30 p. m. the church will meet in business session to hear reports of all departments of the work for the past year, to choose elders and deacons for future work and to make some definite plans as a guiding star for the coming year. The evening services and the Sunday school at 10 a. m. will be as usual. Members from all over the county are urged to be present and friends will be welcome at all services.

Readers can draw their own conclusion from the following item in the recent proceedings of the Medford council as published in the Daily Tribune of that place:

An ordinance to regulate the salaries of police officers was read three times, and passed. Salaries were placed at $56 per month. Equal to $45 real money, and officers were forbidden to graft.

HUTCHINS—McAHORN—In Grants Pass, Ore., on Wednesday evening, June 6, 1906, at the parsonage of the Newman M. E. church, Edward W. Hutchins and Miss Lura McAhorn, both of Medford, Rev. C. O. Beckman officiating.

VEATCH—PARKER—In Bethany Presbyterian church in Grants Pass on Wednesday, June 6, 1906, at 8:30 p. m., Mr. Elbert Veatch to Miss Laura Parker, Rev. Robert McLean officiating.

Promptly at the time fixed to the music of Mendelssohn's Wedding March rendered on the piano by Mrs. H. C. Kinney and Miss Ethel Palmer the bridal procession passed from the church parlors to a place before the altar where stood Rev. Robert McLean and in the simple, yet beautiful service of the Presbyterian church made the young couple husband and wife. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gussie Parker and the groom by Roy Hackett. The church was tastefully decorated with roses pink and white being the color effect. There were many friends present and the presents were numerous and both artistic and useful. Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Veatch left for Portland and the Sound on a short wedding tour and on their return they will occupy a neat cottage on North Third street that Mr. Veatch has had built. Mr. Veatch is a bookkeeper in the Grants Pass Banking & Trust Company's bank and is a young man of fine character and manly habits and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Parker. She is a young lady trained in all the attainments that go to make a perfect woman and she is popular in the full circle of her acquaintance and both have a host of friends who feel certain that marriage will not be a failure in their home.

Friends in this city have received word from Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scott that the stork has made its first visit at their home and left in their keeping a fine girl baby. Mr. Scott is an electrician in the employ of the Conductor Water Light & Power Company and he and his wife resided in Grants Pass until this Spring when he was transferred to Central Point to take charge of his company's work in that town.

The following definition in an exchange comes pretty near telling what constitutes a true gentleman: "A man that's clean inside and outside; who neither looks up to the rich nor down on the poor; who can lose without squealing and can win without bragging; who is considerate to women, children and old people; who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat, and who takes his share of the world and lets other people have theirs."

The Young People's Christian Temperance Union gave a Silver Medal Contest at the Woodman Hall last Friday evening. It was one of the most interesting programs in that line, that has ever been given here for a long time. There were five contestants and each one was determined that the medal should be awarded to them. This made the contest very close indeed. The contestants were, Misses Wilma Gilkey, Ethel Riggs and Ella Savage and Messrs. George Birdseye and Harry Gordon. The Medal was awarded to Miss Wilma Gilkey. In addition to the recitations there were six or seven musical numbers, both instrumental and vocal, making an exceedingly interesting program.
