A DELIGHTFUL OUTING AT CHAUTAUQUA PARK

Special Train to Ashland July 17—Low Fare and a Fine Day's Trip.

The Chautauqua Assembly at Ashland is the chief recreation and educational gathering of Southern Oregon. It is delightful as an outing place either for a day or for the week of the assembly. Those desiring to camp will find in the handsome grove along Ashland creek, which flows through the grounds, an ideal place to pitch their tents. The water is cold and pure and direct from the snows of Ashland Butte, and fuel will be supplied. But those desiring to board can secure the best of accommodations in the hotels, boarding houses and private families in the city by addressing the secretary of the Chautauqua Association. The Chautauqua is the common people's college for at its assemblies they can hear the best of oratory, literature, music, art and social and political economy. At these assemblies can be heard speakers of national and frequently of world reputation, to hear whom on the regular lecture platform would cost from $1 to $2.50 for admission, the price of a season ticket to a Chautauqua assembly. In the classes that hold sessions each forenoon one can get practical ideas on matters that go to make for success in our life's endeavor.

It is the plan of President Billings to arrange for special train service from Grants Pass to Ashland during the Chautauqua, for those who can attend but one day. A rate of one and a third fare will be given on Southern Pacific trains. It is expected that there will be a large attendance from Grants Pass and other places in Josephine county for the Chautauqua promises to be the best this year of any year in its history.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to know that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Farm Lands in Forest Reserves

To Forest Officers in charge: The act above mentioned, which provides for the classification and listing of lands chiefly valuable for agriculture in forest reserves expressly provides that no future settlement on any lands within forest reserves is authorized until they have been publicly declared open to settlement by the Secretary of the Interior. Any settlement on such lands prior to the opening by the Secretary of the Interior will not only confer no rights on the settler but will constitute trespass. You will please be diligent in discovering and preventing any such trespasses and report them promptly to the Forester.

Please give the widest possible publicity to this order to discourage such settlement and to prevent loss and trouble to intending settlers. (Signed) OVERTON W. PRICE, Associate Forester.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth Melver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure at all drug stores. 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elnora, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from 12 to 20 times a night, and I was all bloated up with dropsy and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

All matter for this column is supplied by the Grants Pass Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Resolutions on the death of Mrs. Mary H. Hont were passed by the American Society for the Study of Alcoholic and other narcotics at its recent annual meeting in Boston. They commended her supreme courage and unflinching faith and her devotion to the great thought of teaching the children the evils of alcohol and narcotics. Dr. T. D. Crothers, secretary of the American Medical Society says: "I am sure that the W. C. T. U. has won the great battle, practically, by the tremendous flank movement of teaching the children in the public schools the danger of alcohol." At this meeting Mrs. Martha M. Allen, Superintendent of Medical Temperance for the National W. C. T. U., made an address which was well received.

In a late issue of the Courier mention was made in this column of the destruction of liquor from the cellar of Ex-Senator Henderson. The Litchfield, Ill., Searchlight gives such an interesting account of the procedure. It should be passed on for the good of others interested in the temperance cause. It is a great blessing that many in high places see the evils of intemperance and are using their influence for good. MRS. L. W. HOOD, Press Supt.

Washington, May 17.—The gutters literally ran red with wine and other intoxicating liquors last evening, in the immediate vicinity of Henderson castle, the picturesque home of former United States Senator John B. Henderson of Iowa, on the heights overlooking this city. Hundreds of cobwebby bottles, containing wines of rare old vintage, imported whiskies and brandies, cordials and other beverages galore, the entire contents of the Henderson wine cellar, valued at more than $1000, were smashed and the contents allowed to flow through the nearby gutters to the sewer. The destruction of the wine was accompanied by ceremonies and several interesting incidents. Those who wrought the destruction, by permission of Mrs. Henderson, who stood smilingly by while it was accomplished were men and women, members of the Independent Order of Rechabites, headed by High Chief Ruler Wayne W. Cordell.

A few minutes after 8 o'clock a long line of Rechabites, members of John B. Henderson Tent and Onward Ladies' Tent, carrying at the head of the column an American flag, invaded the castle on the hill, like knights of old, and were soon in full possession of the premises. The castle was brilliantly illuminated and Mrs. Henderson graciously received the followers of Rechab in the art gallery. The Rechabites wore the full red, white and blue regalia of the order, and the scene presented was a striking one. After the guests had assembled, Mrs. Henderson, wearing the white and gold regalia of Onward Tent, of which she is a member, was presented to the assemblage by High Chief Ruler Cordell. Advancing to the center of the room, she said: "There has been a bit of a burden on my mind these last three years about what to do with a dramshop down in our cellar. Previous to that time we had been accustomed to serving wines and liquors, supposing that people in general were not physically strong enough to fully enjoy themselves at dinner without something in the way of a poison stimulant. And so our wine cellar was always abundantly stocked with the so-called best brands of wines and liquors. Now, the trouble is that I took to studying hygiene, and that subject kept getting mixed with many other subjects. The more I studied physical culture the more it seemed primarily connected with every kind of success on earth. It even got mixed with religion.

"What are the chief causes of evil tendencies? Now, the very first rule of physical culture is this: Don't poison yourself. To poison oneself is to poison every source of worthy thought and action. I began to think it a pity that our young men and women should be treated to the temptations of a dramshop every time they accept an invitation to a social function, and so it happened that three years ago we concluded to shut up that dramshop in our cellar." The men and women of the committee brought the bottles and jugs from the dim and cobweb-covered recesses of the wine cellar into the pretty courtyard, and there they were dashed against a large boulder at the entrance of a picturesque bower in which was a profusion of palms and other tropical growths.

Soon after the beginning of the bombardment the cobble-stoned gutter ran red with wine, the stream at times being several inches deep, while the surrounding atmosphere was redolent with the perfume of the rare old liquors. The stream flowed down the slope to Sixteenth street and there ran the entire length of the castle inclosure, entering the sewer at the corner of Sixteenth street and Florida avenue. After the destruction of wine and liquors, which included several jugs of imported Irish and Scotch whiskies, the Rechabites returned to the castle, where they were entertained by Mrs. Henderson.
