Expensive Family Row.
Justice of the Peace James Holman assumed the duties of his office last Wednesday and Saturday he held court for the first time, for this term of office, though he formerly held the position of Justice for six years in Grants Pass. The business that engrossed the courts attention was a family row that was brought to a climax at the celebration at Placer on the Fourth.
It appears that J. W. Thompson and his wife had separated and at the celebration Mr. Thompson met his children and offered to treat them to ice cream. W. H. Church a half-brother of Mrs. Thompson ordered him to keep away from the children when Thompson took exception to the command and knocked Church down and generally disfigured him. Mr. Church came to Grants Pass and had Mr. Thompson arrested for assault and after a trial that lasted three days and a large number of witnesses had been summoned from Placer and the county put to an expense of nearly $150 the jury acquitted Thompson.
Edward Van Dyke represented the state as deputy district attorney and it being his maiden case since he was admitted to the bar by the supreme court. C. H. Clements, Grants Pass' other young disciple of Blackstone, was attorney for the defendant.

Rev. McLean Returns To Porto Rico.
Rev. Robert McLean went to Portland last Friday. Sunday morning he preached in the First Presbyterian church and in the evening in the Westminster the two largest Presbyterian churches in that city.
Saturday Mrs. McLean arrived in Portland from New York, where she has been since she and Rev. McLean came from Porto Rico. Monday evening Rev. and Mrs. McLean arrived in Grants Pass accompanied by their daughter, Miss Christie, and by Mrs. Hutchinson, mother of Mrs. Roy McLean, and by Miss Jennie Dunkle. Mrs. Hutchinson comes to this city to make her home here and Miss Dunkle who is head clerk in one of the big East Side stores, comes to spend her vacation with her parents.
Mrs. McLean and her daughter, Miss Christie, will remain in Grants Pass for some months or until Rev. McLean decides as to where he will locate. The tropical climate of Porto Rico was very trying on Mrs. McLean's health and on her account he may give up his missionary work in that island.
Rev. McLean will leave in a short time for New York, where he will be joined by his son, Berto, and they go to San Juan, in the capital of Porto Rico. Berto graduated last month from Hamilton College second in class of 45, and he goes to teach in the mission school in San Juan for a few months after which he will return to the United States and take a course in a theological seminary to prepare himself for the ministry. Edward, Rev. McLean's other son, is a student at Princeton College where he is studying preparatory to entering a medical college.

Big Excursion Next Tuesday.
The excursion to Ashland next Tuesday promises to be the largest and most representative ever sent from Grants Pass. Most of the business men have announced that they will go and attend the session of the Development League in the afternoon and they will take their wives so they too may enjoy an outing and attend the forenoon and evening sessions of the Chautauqua assembly for which an interesting program is to be had. The intervening time will be spent as inclination prompts, some calling on the Ashland business men, others to visit friends or to see the sights of the city.
A number of the fruit growers of this section will go on the excursion so as to visit the orchards that are in and about Ashland, and for which that city is famous. The officers of the Grants Pass Fruit Growers Union will utilize the opportunity to call on the officers of the Ashland Fruit Growers Union and confer on matters of mutual interest to the two organizations.
Ashland came to Grants Pass 300 strong at the time the Rogue River Development League met in this city. Now it is up to Grants Pass to make as good a showing of neighborly spirit and send as big a delegation to Ashland next Tuesday to the Development League and the Chautauqua.
A special train will take the excursionists and will make the trip up in the cool of the morning in quick time and return in the cool of the evening. The Chautauqua Park on the banks of Ashland creek is one of the coolest and most delightful places in Rogue River Valley. Take a day of needed rest and with your wife, or sweetheart go to Ashland Tuesday. Only one fare for the round trip.
Train leaves Grants Pass at 8:30 a. m. sharp and Ashland for return at 10 p. m.
Rev. Rev. Clark Bower returned Friday from attending the Christian church camp meeting at Turner. He states that it was the largest yet held in Oregon by the Christian people. The denomination is making a splendid growth in the state and will this year settle pastors in a number of towns not heretofore in their circuit. Mrs. Bower will remain two weeks in the Willamette Valley with relatives and friends. During her absence Rev. Bower is having their dwelling he purchased last Winter on I near 5th street, repainted, papered and put in the best of repair.

JOSE X. NELSON.

Paris Gibson, ex-senator for Montana, is a park enthusiast. His work at Great Falls, Montana, a city of about 15,000 people, has been crowned with success. "I never saw the entire city look nicer in the way of beautiful parks, fine trees, elegant lawns with flowers and other objects pleasant to the eye of the visitor," said a recent visitor. "The wisdom of Paris Gibson, the father of the city, in advocating beautiful parks is very evident now. It would do your heart good to stroll through the elegant park along the river bank. An artificial lake has been built in the park and adds to its beauty. The place is crowded every evening with people and they certainly enjoy the experience. I also enjoyed a trip through the park section of the north side where wonders have been wrought in the way of beautifying the streets. Great Falls takes the palm for being the park city of Montana. Oregon cities should not be outdone in the park enterprise."
