A FRUIT DISTRICT THAT NEVER HAS A FAILURE

About Wilderville Peaches, Pears, Apples and Grapes Bear Every Year.

James Hocking of Wilderville was a caller at the Courier office Monday. While he has given his attention to hay and stock Mr. Hocking is convinced that the Wilderville district will become one of the best fruit sections of Rogue River Valley. When he went on his place eight years ago he planted a small orchard to raise fruit for home use. These trees as well as some grape vines have made a strong growth and since old enough bear profusely and of the best quality. As a peach district Mr. Hocking thinks his section perfect for the soil is a deep red clay and frosts have never injured a crop. In his orchard he planted 10 peach trees eight years ago. The third year they bore a few peaches and for the five years since they have not missed a crop and this year are loaded with the finest peaches that were ever grown in Rogue River Valley, a land famous for its luscious peaches. Land is yet cheap and the roads to Grants Pass are being made better each year and the time not distant when the Wilderville district will be coming money from land now considered of little value.

WILDERVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. James Hocking visited at the parsonage Wednesday of this week.

May Verdin of Grants Pass made a flying trip in this neighborhood Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. H. D. Jones and granddaughter, Hanna Lovelace are visiting for a few days in the Althouse country.

Mrs. J. C. K. McCann visited with Mr. and Mrs. Will Anderson Sunday, the 5th. Her daughter, Tina, accompanying her.

Dick Lindsay had a hog killed by a bear recently; they then set a trap and caught Mr. Bruin, but he managed to free himself from the trap and made his escape.

Mrs. Yancy McCollum and daughter Ethel, have moved to Newberg, Oregon, where Yancy McCollum found work and also found better health.

Mrs. George Creed's brother, a Mr. London, of Klamath County is visiting in these parts at present, it having been 20 years since the sisters and brother had met.

There is talk of a telephone line through the neighborhood which would be quite handy. When we get a telephone line and rural mail route we will be strictly in it.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark and babe made a trip to Grants Pass Saturday of last week, returning Sunday evening. Mr. Clark filling Rev. Beckman's appointment in the pulpit Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Free Methodists Campmeeting.

The Free Methodists closed Sunday night a very successful camp meeting at Murphy and Monday their large tent tabernacle was moved to this city and set up in Calvert's grove on East M street. This grove is cool and shady and a most delightful place for camping. A well supplies water that is cool and pure.

The tabernacle is comfortably seated and well lighted and holds a large congregation. Services are held daily at 6 a. m. 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. and the general public is given a most cordial invitation to attend by Presiding Elder W. E. Goode, who has charge of the campmeeting.

Elder Goode is a talented and able speaker and his discourses to the point and logical. He is assisted in the services by Rev. E. I. Harrington of this city and Rev. W. W. Gatts of Murphy. These meetings will continue for all next week and a special service for this Sunday will be had and a cordial invitation extended to the people of Grants Pass to come and worship in the cool grove in God's first temple.

He's going back, back, back to his sins no more, but he's coming to Grants Pass Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, August 20, 21, and 22. Ensign Storey, P. Y. P. S., in the interest of the young peoples' work. The Ensign anticipates a successful visit. He is pleased with his former visits to the Pass and the officers in charge of the local Salvation Army work are anxious that he shall be no less so with the coming one. We want all our friends to hear him. He is a live wire—hear him and live longer. Meetings at 8 p. m. on each of the above dates to be held in the building formerly occupied by the Hubb Clothing people, Sixth street near I.

GOLDEN

Mrs. Brown of Golden, we are sorry to say, is on the sick list.

Mrs. Mary E. Hoxie is working for Mrs. Dunaway at Wolf Creek.

We are having hot and dry weather. One feels like hunting the shade.

Miss Vesta Hoxie has gone to Glendale to work. Her friends will miss her in Golden.

Oh, say who was that pretty girl who was kissing you, Mr.—of Golden? Come now, and tell us.

There will be a dance at the Mathews hall next Saturday night. Come boys, bring your girls and have a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Pope have returned to Golden. They have been traveling along the coast and through the Willamette valley for a year and a half visiting friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Pope left with only three children but now they have a sweet little baby girl of eight months, added to their family.

IT IS JUST AS EASY FOR ONE FIRM IN BUSINESS AS FOR ANOTHER TO "TALK." BUT WHEN IT COMES TO "MAKING GOOD" THAT'S DIFFERENT. IT TAKES KNOWING-HOW, MONEY AND A GOOD NAME TO GET THE BEST LINES OF GOODS INTO A STORE. IT IS A MISTAKE TO THINK THAT ANY MERCHANT CAN BUY ANY LINE OF GOODS HE WANTS TO BUY. THE MAKERS OF THE BEST GOODS HUNT FOR THE BEST STORE IN A TOWN TO HANDLE THEIR LINES. THAT'S THE WAY WE COME TO GET HOLD OF THE HART, SCHAFFNER AND MARX CLOTHING AND THE NUGGET $3.00 HAT. IF YOU HAVE TRIED THEM YOU KNOW THAT THESE ARE TWO OF THE BEST LINES OF GOODS SOLD IN OREGON, OR ANY OTHER STATE. WHEN A MANUFACTURER ONCE PLACES HIS LINE IN A STORE OF THIS KIND, THERE IT GOES. THIS IS WHERE THE KNOWING HOW COMES IN. THEN BILLS MUST BE PAID. THAT TAKES MONEY. THEN THE STORE MUST GIVE ITS PATRONS A SQUARE DEAL—GOOD STUFF for their money. That begets a good name. The store that has these three things—knowing how, money and a good name, becomes the whirlpool into which the best lines of goods made drop. Nugget Hats, every style that's made, stiff or soft, $3.00 or your money back, if it isn't the best Hat you ever bought and paid 50¢ or $1.00 more than this price for. While the hot weather lasts (and the goods) you can buy any of our Outing Suits and Hart, Schaffner & Marx Summer Clothing at the wholesale figure. It isn't our aim to carry over into next season any of these goods. The price is going to take them quick.
