SIMPLE CATARRH REMEDY

Take a Hyomei Treatment Four Times a Day and be Cured.

Hyomei has performed almost miraculous cures and is today recognized by leading members of the medical profession as the only advertised remedy for this disease that can be relied upon to do just what it claims.

Until recently your physician would have said the only way to cure catarrh would be to have a change of climate, but now with Hyomei you can carry a health-giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day, cure yourself.

The Hyomei treatment is simple and easy to use. It destroys all catarrh germs in the air passages and enriches and purifies the blood with ozone. When using Hyomei the air you breathe will seem like that on the mountains, high above the sea level.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles, 50c. If it does not give you satisfaction, Rotermund will refund your money. You run no risk whatever in taking this reliable treatment.

BANK FORGER ADMITS GUILT

WRECKER STENSLAND MAKES FULL CONFESSION OF HIS STEALINGS FROM BANK.

Declares That Cashier Hering Was a Forger, and That He Got Most of the Money.

Washington, Sept. 5.—The State Department is more greatly concerned over the steps taken to tie up a deposit of money which has been made in a bank at Tangier, Morocco, by Paul O. Stensland, president of the Milwaukee-avenue State Bank of Chicago, than with the extradition of the fugitive banker himself. Acting Secretary of State Adee is giving the question his personal attention.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 5.—Assistant State's Attorney Barbour today made a demand on the United States Government for a warship to bring Paul O. Stensland, the banker now under arrest at Tangier, back to this country. Mr. Barbour points out the advisability of having Stensland brought back to this country as a Federal prisoner on board a warship.

Tangier, Morocco, Sept. 5.—Paul Stensland, the Chicago banker who was arrested here yesterday, has made a complete confession of his stealings from the Milwaukee-avenue State Bank of Chicago.

It was made to Assistant States Attorney Olson yesterday, and clears up much of the mystery surrounding the events leading up to the crash which involved the ruin of the bank. He took much of the blame upon himself, but declared Cashier Hering was a forger, and that Hering got most of the money. He exonerated his son, Theodore, and the bank directors. He declared it a lie that he spent any money on Leonie Langdon or any other woman. He declared that he never spent more than $5,000 a year himself and all the money he stole he put into real estate or investments in the hope of "making good."

Stensland did not delude himself, either with the idea of escaping punishment.

"You have not been found guilty yet; you have a chance to make a fight in court," was suggested. Stensland laughed and said:

"I know what a Chicago jury will do to me. I know Chicago juries."

He said he had made up his mind to flee on the Thursday preceding the Sunday in which he left Chicago. All Wednesday night he wrestled with the problem whether to blow his brains out or run. In the hours of darkness he decided to kill himself, but postponed the act till dawn, and with the sunlight came the primal instinct to hold onto life, and flight won over death.

His preparations were hurried. He had surrendered his life insurance policy for $5,000 and had received $8,000 as commission on the sale of property of the co-operative store to the Northwestern Life Insurance Company, which had held a mortgage.

"I cannot understand how the shortage can be $2,000,000. To my certain knowledge my liability to the bank does not exceed $500,000. Anything over that has been stolen by Hering."

"My indebtedness began a long while ago, in 1895. It was a small affair, a small amount, and God knows I never intended to steal. I was in a tight hole and needed money. I put my own note, genuine, not a forgery, in the bank. Then it was suggested to me that the bank examiner would stand for it, and he did."

"Who suggested it?"
"Hering. It was the beginning. He pointed out that it was easy to obtain money that way. Then when my own notes became too numerous, he suggested the forgeries."

"And you acquiesced?"
"Yes. First he tempted, then he urged, and I fell. Ever after that I was absolutely in his power. He owned me, body and soul."

"How many of the forgeries did you do yourself?"
"Not one. Hering, I think, did all."

OPEN PUBLICITY THE BEST GUARANTEE OF MERIT.

When the maker of a medicine, sold through druggists for family use, takes his patients fully into his confidence by frankly and fearlessly publishing broadcast as well as on the bottle wrappers, a full list of all its ingredients in plain English, this action on his part is the best possible evidence that he is not afraid to have the search light of investigation turned full upon his formula and that it will bear the fullest scrutiny and the most thorough investigation. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of the weaknesses, periodical pains and functional derangements of the organs distinctly feminine, is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for woman's special use, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence by such open and honest publicity.

A glance at the published ingredients on each bottle wrapper, will show that it is made wholly from native, American, medicinal roots, that it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs, no narcotics and no alcohol—pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol, both for extracting and preserving the active medicinal properties found in the roots of the American forest plants employed. It is the only medicine for women's peculiar diseases, sold by druggists, that does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, which is in the long run so harmful to woman's delicate, nervous system. Now, glycerine is perfectly harmless, and serves a valuable purpose by possessing intrinsic value all its own, and besides it enhances the curative effect of the other ingredients entering into the "Favorite Prescription."

Some of the ablest medical writers and teachers endorse these views and praise all the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is composed—recommending them for the cure of the very same diseases for which this world-famous medicine is advised. No other medicine for women has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. If interested, send name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his little book of extracts from the work of eminent medical writers and teachers, endorsing the several ingredients and telling just what Dr. Pierce's medicine is made of. It's free for the asking.

Strike-Breakers Arrive.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—A thousand strong, the second contingent of Farley strike-breakers were landed in this city yesterday to break the strike inaugurated by the Street Carriers' Union against the United Railway Company of this city. For ten days San Francisco has had no street car service and the public has been much inconvenienced by the inability of the company to run its cars, no attempt being made in that line by them.

Unlike the first train load, the majority of the new arrivals are experienced motormen and conductors, and the few deserters from their ranks say that they have come west with a realization of conditions and a determination to break the strike at all hazards. The strike-breakers reached San Francisco on a river steamer from Vallejo.

Another attempt is being made by Mayor Schmitz to bring the warring factions together, and there may be an amicable settlement of differences today.

Taken for a Burglar.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—Elmer Quinn, a youth of 14 years of age was shot by his guardian, William H. Hutton, early yesterday morning while the lad was climbing through the window. The boy was taken for a burglar. His wound is serious and he now lies at the Central Emergency Hospital in a critical condition.

Busy Time Ahead.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 5.—President Roosevelt will leave Sagamore Hill for Washington October 1. Three days later he will make a flying trip to Harrisburg and York, where he will deliver speeches.

Think They Can Nominate Gillett.

Santa Cruz, Cal., Sept. 5.—Tomorrow the Herrin Hottentots who are managing the Gillett campaign confidently expect to nominate him for Governor on the first ballot. They are giving out that they can control 457 votes, and as 413 are all that will be necessary to make a nomination, if their assertions hold anywhere near good, they will win easily enough.

Was in Poor Health for Years.

Ira W. Kelley, of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any marked benefit, but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse substitutes. For sale by H. A. Rotermund.

How to Serve a Boiled Lobster.

So many people are ignorant as to how a boiled lobster should be served, and so, instead of a pretty and easily carved dish, there is difficulty in getting at any of the meat, says the Washington Star. First break off the large claws and crack them at the joints with the flat side of a chopper, separate the head from the tail, split the tail lengthwise in two, place the body, cut also in half, upright in the dish, lay the claws and half tails round it and garnish with parsley. Hand with lobster a good salad and thinly cut bread and butter.

How to Clean Frying Pans.

Much labor may be saved in washing frying pans if they are wiped out clean with a piece of paper after the fat is poured from them before they are put in the dishwasher. The paper should then be burned. These pans should also have a periodic boiling in soda water in a large kettle. If these two things are done they will be kept as smooth inside as when new.
