Insurance rates are becoming almost prohibitive in Oregon towns. The local citizens should get together and form a mutual association and carry their own insurance and thus cut off the local contributions in this line to the insurance octopus, and besides would then get their insurance at cost.—Roseburg Review.

Grants Pass lodge M. W. A. held a basket social Tuesday evening and about 40 baskets were auctioned off. The baskets were of all designs and shapes from the small shoe box to the big hat box, while many were artistically designed and neatly arranged, but all contained something good to eat. The baskets were auctioned off to the highest bidder by Auctioneer Updyke, who, by his skill in that line secured bids amounting to nearly $90. The evening's entertainment closed with dancing.

A pen of fine chickens was received by C. E. Palmer last Tuesday, he having bought from J. O. Palmer of McMinnville, his pen of Buff Orpingtons which took the grand sweepstakes for the best pen in the Yamhill county poultry show recently held at McMinnville. The Orpingtons are recognized by poultrymen as the best of chickens as they are strong and hardy when young, good layers and will dress when matured from 8 to 9 pounds. They have taken the prizes in nearly all the laying contests.

An Evening of Music.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Van Dyke gave a musical last Friday night at their home on Sixth street, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the 45 or 50 friends who were present. A most excellent musical program was rendered, which consisted of two selections for three clarinets and piano by Messrs. VanDyke, Wharton and Newell, with E. S. VanDyke at the piano. These selections were very much enjoyed as was the clarinet solo by Dr. VanDyke and the clarinet duet by Messrs. Wharton and Van Dyke. Mrs. W. L. Ireland and Harry L. Andrews each sang, much to the enjoyment of the guests. There were also a violin solo by Miss Ada Umphlette and the rendition of a sonata in E minor by Miss Ethel Palmer which were most excellently rendered.

Dr. VanDyke gave a most interesting talk on the Hungarian orchestras, a sketch from personal experience while on his recent European trip, which was a most enjoyable feature of the evening.

After the program there was a story of the South in which snatches of popular songs were played and the audience was expected to write on slips of cardboard the names of the songs as played. Out of the 21 titles Mrs. Bert Barnes and R. W. Clarke had the greatest number correct and were awarded a handsome souvenir spoon. Mr. Clarke gallantly presented his interest in the spoon to Mrs. Barnes.

Refreshments consisting of rye biscuit of the Vaderland garnished with cheese and olives cake and coffee were served in the dining room by young ladies.

Autos and trolleys were to have been ordered from 11:30 to 12, but it was after that time before the guests thought of departing.

LANDERS, FRARY & CLARK'S CUTLERY

KEEN APPRECIATION
 It is the cutting edge of a carver that determines its usefulness.

Landers Carvers hold their edge longer, and require less sharpening, because they are forged out of a solid bar of Crucible Steel. They are more carefully tempered and ground.

But that isn't all. They will appeal to you because of their beauty and excellence of design, and from the fact that we guarantee every one to be free from imperfections.

A very complete line awaits your inspection.

Besides this book, Mr. Stovall has written during the year four serials, 50 illustrated articles and 75 short stories besides considerable "Sunday feature" matter. A great deal of his work, however, has been for boys papers; the Boys' World, Classmate, Forward and like publications. The Squirrel Runs 210.5 Miles.

Geo. Calhoun's squirrel has made another run, this time he did 210½ miles in 17 days, 16.5 miles less than in the 17 days previous. This is accounted for by the fact that it is later in the season and he spent more time in his sleeping quarters. Four people guessed the correct number of miles traveled by the squirrel and the first prize of $10 was divided among Tom Billings, Wm. Rueter, C. W. Birum and A. L. Carter, the winners. There were five people who guessed within one-tenth of a mile of the correct number, and the price of a nugget hat was divided among them, giving each man 6 cents. They were Geo. Hansen, Carl Witjen, C. W. Smith, Jno. T. Jewell and D. E. Dotson. Tom Peterson came out third in the guess but he came out first as to value of prize as he won the turkey and was the only contestant for third place.

The Courier's subscription books and mailing list are open at all times to advertisers, who may desire verification that this paper has a larger circulation, both in Grants Pass and in Josephine County than any other newspaper published in this city.
