After Commissioner Carson's Scalp.

Arknowledging the receipt of a marked copy of the Courier of last CATTLE-17 head of Shorthorn cat week containing the article of Charles Meserve, fruit inspector for Josephine county, relative to the manner in which A. H. Carson, commissioner on the Oregon State Board of Horticulture for the Third district which embraces all the counties of Southern Oregon, had negleced his duties and made it possible for negligent persons to overrun Rogue River Valley with pests from their orchards and vineyards, the subjoined letter was received by Mr. Meserve from E. D. Briggs, president of the Ashland Fruit & Produce Association. It is additional proof that the pest laws NEWSPAPER - Good paying small have been but little better enforced in newspaper business and plant for sale. Inquire H.S., Care Courier. 2-15 Jackson county than in this county and that the effort of the Ashland SINGLE COMB Brown Leghorn eggs, Union to have the laws enforced or a new commissioner appointed is not Men Are Snared." Sunday school 10 to destroy the pests in his orchard the progressive one would have but little to do. It is awfully discouraging to one who tries to do his work right. If the matter had been attended to as the laws contemplate, we would have but very few pests here to com-bat new bat now.

We forwarded a copy of our resolu-tions to the Governor and he has replied thereto, but not in such a way replied thereto, but not in such a way as to give us any encouragement as to a speedy remedy. I wish, in line of our work you would forward a marked copy of your article to the Governor and write him a letter calling his at-tention to it.
