Blessed be nothing.
Even the chickens are becoming webfooted.
If this weather keeps up it is liable to rain.

Ernest Reynolds will take charge of his father's ranch this year while Mr. Reynolds Sr. will devote his time to copper mining in the Oregon mountains.

Ignate Knopke "bagged" a big lynx Sunday. This is quite a surprise as we were unaware that any of this specie abounded here.

Mrs. Gertrude Webb gave a social dinner to a happy throng who surprised her last Sunday. Say "fellows," lets go again!

A good many strangers have been going in and out of our valley lately and people are wondering what it means. Yes we wonder.

Another good man is reported in or-town. He succeeded in buttoning up his wife's dress in the back without swearing.

L. R. Webb spent two days in the Smith river country. It is not very hard for mining men to guess what L. R. is after.

It is all right for a woman to support her husband, but then we think he ought to help her out the wood.

What is this music we hear, far sweeter than the birds of Springtime, that makes our pulse quicken and our hearts gladden and we imagine the lips of heaven and earth are about to meet? It is the command of "Red Cloud" as his forces throw 13 inch shells into the camp of the Timber grafters. Go it, old man, and let your next shot be a poem something like this: "Thieves to right of us, thieves to left of us, thieves in front of us, stole and plundered."

Another story, very similar to the oft repeated old one comes from Messrs. Lang and Knopke, who have had mining claims on the head waters of Smith River for over five years. Yes, they were located on by people who never saw the country and where there is not enough timber for mining purposes. How long must these things be? Mr. Knopke says that one locator has been to his camp on Saddle Bar, saw him mining, saw the gold he was taking out, saw his notices, broke his bread, shared his hospitality and located a school ma'am's timber claim on top of his mine, where it was impossible for her to get in and view the claim she was taking. Everyone in Elk Valley knows how long Mr. Knopke has been on these claims—one placer and two quartz, and all know that the country is utterly inaccessible to women and besides no woman could come into the country without the settlers knowing it.

WILDERVILLE

Mrs. McBride received the sad news of her sister's death, which occurred recently in North Carolina.

A man from Deer Creek was passing through here last Sabbath and while near the Chaney Creek bridge he undertook to take his gum coat off while riding along and the horse got frightened and threw the man and hurt his ankle pretty badly.

Mrs. E. Woodard got a letter from her brother George at Fall City that he had cut his leg pretty badly and feared blood poisoning.

Mr. Akers preached Sunday, the 7th at Wilderville church.

Minnie Zimmerman has gone to Grants Pass after visiting relatives near Wilderville several days.

Grandma Borrough has gone home down Rogue river, after visiting at Scott Robinson's several weeks.

John, Burton, Boyd and Paul Robinson are having the measles.

Guy Buell passed through here last Sabbath with his little wagon pulled by his faithful dog. He had his camping outfit, going to the sawmill up Chaney creek.

The Chaney Creek saw mill made a short run Tuesday of this week, sawing enough lumber to make their bank house.

A few of the young folks had a little play party at J. Hocking's Friday evening of last week.

We are having queer weather for this time of the year.

LAUREL GROVE

Rain, rain, again and miners are still working away and expect a good cleanup this Spring and farmers are looking for good crops this Summer as the late rains will keep the ground wet till late.

Fruit trees are getting in full bloom but if Jack frost visits our burg this Spring we will be minus some peaches.

Willard Topping was visiting the writer one day last week and says he has got the chills and fever. I guess we all know what that is.

Wardie Hyde is working on the ditch for Mrs. H. T. Day.

M. Haberman, Evan and daughter Anna paid your city a visit one day last week.

J. L. Williams returned to his home last week, after an absence of a month in various places, but says he is glad to get back to this beautiful valley, where everything is green and thrifty and where the peach trees are blooming and birds singing. He says he found no cook so he thinks there is no place like home, sweet home.

A surprise party was given at Charles Swinden's last Friday night and games were played and a general good time was had by all present.

Ring, ring! Just listen to the phone, will you? Someone talking all the time these rainy days.

Why is it that a man with capital can commit a crime and only pay a fine and perhaps get a year or two in the pen, while a poor man, who does the same crime is sent to the pen for life, perhaps. Now, it looks as if money and unjust officials were the cause of it all. Why not start in with the rich class and make an example of some of them, instead of putting everything on the poor class of people? Take the grafters of timber and fellows who plunder for gain in the city. Do they get the same punishment that the poor man would? No, because he has money to bribe and buy attorneys and witnesses and get off easy, but the poor man—send him up. Is it just?

Ed Swinden bought a nice span of horses recently for which he paid $320 but they are a fine team though and young horses too.

Seem to me "Windy" of Kubli is a little hasty in regard to "Red Cloud" sitting in his back yard and not working for the R. F. D. I have been helping it as much as possible and am ready to see "Windy" help some too.

"Shorty" says "age before beauty" if that be the case, I do not see where he comes in, do you?

Jas. J. McFadden and brother Pat passed through our busy burg last Saturday evening, going to the dance at Rose's hall.

Amos Williams and H. T. Day were visiting at our reporter's last Saturday night.

Several of our farmers are going into the dairy business this Summer, and believe it will be a profitable venture. Among them are Fred Knox and Mr. Haberman. These gentlemen both have a bunch of first-class dairy cows and have plenty of alfalfa and clover, pasture and hay and therefore are prepared to dairy right and

The later rains caused the Ditch Co. to suspend cleaning ditch for some time.

News is scarce as hens teeth this week.

RED CLOUD.

DAVIDSON.

T. H. Peterson was visiting on this side of the river Sunday.

We have been having some more rain of late and it raised the river quite a lot.

J. T. Cook and family and Ike Vincent and Bartie Davidson were all visitors from here to Grants Pass Friday also Pat and Jas. J. McFadden.

It does not look as though the miners in this vicinity would get to clean up at all this season as the late Spring rains that we are having keep the supply of water up fine.

Frank M. York who has been sick for the last two or three weeks is not improving very fast at present but we all hope to see him up and around soon.

The farmers in these parts are not getting along very fast with their plowing at present owing to the recent rains and if it keeps up very much longer they will have to quit trying to sow grain and put what ground is left in corn.

It seems as though "Windy" was having a great time trying to hear from Provolt correspondent. It looks to me like he would telephone to him as there is a good chance now since they have got the Applegate Telephone installed on this side of the river.

Mr. Culey and Herman Offenbacher took a fine lot of beef cattle through Davidson Thursday. They were taking them to W. I. Sweetland of Grants Pass.

Joe. S. York who has been down at Grants Pass for the last two or three days on business passed through our little burg Saturday. He says they are getting along fine with their hop yard at present and also getting the rest of the farm in shape for the Summer.

We noticed a small item in the Kubli News stating that the dance at Mr. Haberman's would be on the 18th of this month which we are sorry to say was a mistake. It will be Friday night the 19th instead of Thursday the 18th. Be sure and do not forget the date now and come as a good time is anticipated.

"Shorty" seems to still have a pick at me in regard to my fences. I am getting my fences in pretty good shape now and will soon have them so that I am not ashamed for even him to see them. But from what I have seen of that 40 acre farm that he has taken up it needs a fence worse than my whole 330 acres do. He is putting out a strawberry patch at present and has not even got a sign of a fence. So do not say anything more about my fence until you get your berry patch fenced and then you can start to work on my fence again.
