

The Publisher's Claims Sustained

UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary have been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation.

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular educational knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

Verdict for Dr. Pierce

AGAINST THE Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read the unwarranted and malicious attack upon Dr. R. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May (1904) number of the Ladies' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, who never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was boldly charged in the slanderous and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and ailments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies' Home Journal, for $200,000.00 damages.

Dr. Pierce alleged that Mr. Bok, the editor, maliciously published the article containing such false and defamatory matter with the intent of injuring his business; furthermore, that no alcohol, or other injurious, or habit-forming, drugs are in or over years, contained in his "Favorite Prescription"; that said medicine is made from native medicinal roots and contains no harmful ingredients whatsoever; and that Mr. Bok's malicious statement was wholly and absolutely false.

The retraction printed by said Journal, they were forced to acknowledge that they had obtained analyses of "Favorite Prescription" from eminent chemists, all of whom certified that the same contained alcohol or any of the alleged harmful ingredients.

These facts were also proven in the trial of the action in the Supreme Court. But the business of Dr. Pierce was greatly injured by the publication of the libelous article with its great display headings, while hundreds of thousands who read the wickedly defamatory article never saw the humble groveling retraction, set in small type and made as inconspicuous as possible. The matter was, however, brought before a jury in the Supreme Court of New York State which promptly rendered a verdict in the Doctor's favor. Thus his traducers came to grief and their base slanders were refuted.

OVERTAXED

Hundreds of Grants Pass Readers Know What It Means

The kidneys are overtaxed. Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains—Backaches, sideaches, headache, Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

E. E. Gilligan, proprietor of livery and feed stable, at 52 Ferry St., and living at 332 Water St., Salem, Ore., says: "Years of almost constant driving and a fall I got several years ago which wrenched my back badly had tended to hurt my kidneys which I felt in severe backache and lameness so that at times I could hardly straighten up. Sharp pains caught me when I arose after sitting. None of the remedies I tried did me any good until a short time ago I was induced to get Dan's Kidney Pills at a drug store. In a short time I obtained more relief from the backache and disordered condition of the kidneys, than I had for years. I know of neighbors who have also used your remedy and they all speak of it as the best kidney medicine there is and I believe this to be so.
