 Mrs. A. VanNoy and daughter, formerly residents of Grants Pass but now of Seattle, have spent the past two weeks at Kerby with Mrs. VanNoy's brother, and are now visiting with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Tolon. After the Fourth, Mrs. VanNoy will return to Seattle where she is conducting a rooming and boarding house, but Miss Mary will spend the Summer here. Mr. VanNoy has been an invalid for the past seven years but is now much improved in health.
 J. R. Wordley was in town this week to spend some time with his family and to secure men and supplies for his mine near Takilma. About two months ago Mr. Wordley, purchased the Anderson group of three claims and is now making extensive development. The ore from the property runs from $50 to $300 per ton. Mr. Wordley has been interested in mining in Montana and Idaho, coming to Grants Pass about four months ago. He is also interested in mining property between Red Mountain and Black Butte.
 Judge J. O. Booth returned Monday from Nevada, where has been for the past month looking after mining interests that he has acquired in that state. Judge Booth and George Ward and George Hall located a group of fine copper claims 15 miles from Elko and the two latter are there carrying on development work. The ore assays high in copper and carries good values in gold and silver. On his way home Judge Booth came by way of Salt Lake to arrange with a smelter to have tests made of a car of ore from their mine. The Judge has other mining interests in Nevada and while the state is very much boomed yet he thinks it has mineral wealth enough to make it one of the greatest mining states of the Union.
 Mrs. Mary C. Hildreth, president, Mrs. Rose S. Weidman, secretary, and Mrs. Hattie I. C. Calvert, treasurer of the Woman's Relief Corps, department of Oregon, are at Newberg this week attending the annual encampment of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. Mrs. Hildreth and Mrs. Weidman have held their offices for the past year while Mrs. Calvert is filling the term left vacant by the death of Mrs. Henrietta Zoller. Very few people have any idea of the amount of labor connected with the duties of the state officers of the W. R. C., and while the ladies have enjoyed the work they are nevertheless glad that state officers of the W. R. C. are never re-elected, so they are sure of being relieved of the duties. A number of other Grants Pass people are attending the encampment, among them being Mrs. J. H. Ahlf, Mrs. Josephine Mowers and Mr. and Mrs. A. Morris, Mrs. Dr. Loughridge.
 Hundreds of New Edison Records at the Music Store.
 Victors and Columbias also.
 Several Bargains in Machines.

A Brief Record of Local Events.

The Williams Bros saw mill at Reuben siding is nearing completion.
 Wm. Trimble is building a new residence on Pine and Chancellor streets.
 The Dr. Kremer residence on Fifth and I streets, will be occupied by M. J. Anderson and family.
 August Fetsch has made many improvements on his recently purchased residence property on I street.
 A big touring automobile passed through here Wednesday from San Francisco on their way to Roseburg.
 Evergreens for covering the dance pavilion are being placed on the roof and give the street an air of celebration.
 The officials for this division of the S. P. Co. were here in their private car Tuesday. They were making an inspection of the road.
 We are glad to note the continued improvement on our streets. They are now putting in cement crossings on the west side of Sixth street, at Front street, having just completed the crossing on the east side.
 The C. E. society of the Presbyterian church will hold their regular business meeting Friday, the 28th at 7:30. On account of the warm weather they have decided to hold it at the city park across the river.
 The Commercial Club has received authority from Superintendent Fields to place a sign on the railroad grounds. The sign will have the words: "Grants Pass Commercial Club" and a "fist" pointing up Sixth street.
 Nearly 100 car loads of race horses passed through here this last week on their way from Oakland to Seattle where they will take part in the races at that place. It is reported that the horsemen who backed the Oakland races have "gone broke."
 The display window of the Grants Pass Hardware Co. shows a great amount of ingenuity exercised in the window dressing, there being a representation of a big suspension bridge supported by big piers the whole being constructed from spikes and small chains.
 A pleasant surprise was tendered Herman Schmidt, Monday evening at his home by a number of friends. Entertainment was furnished by cards and music. First prizes were won by Miss May Mitchell and Wm. Trimble, while the other prizes were taken by Miss Rose Wichman and Ray Crawford.
 Herman Horning has put in a new and better soda fountain at his confectionery parlors. The old fountain will also be in commission as an extra to be used in case of a rash. Mr. and Mrs. Horning have rented the Rotemund house on E street and will commence housekeeping this week.
 There was a merry moonlight boating party Wednesday night in honor of Miss Grace Loar of Medford, about 15 young people participated and they had a jolly good time. Hot coffee was served and one young man got about his share of hot coffee on his hands. They left about 8 o'clock and returned by moonlight.
 Farmers are warned by a county exchange against a set of swindlers who are going through the country selling barbed wire fencing. They offer to furnish a good eight wire fence, with iron posts, for 8 cents per foot, and secure a contract that turns out to mean 8 cents a foot for each wire, or a total of 64 cents a foot for the fence.
 S. P. passenger, No. 14 did not arrive on time Wednesday. The main road of the engine No. 2009 broke at Medford, which made them an hour and a half late. They stopped at Grants Pass for 25 minutes to change engines. No. 16, due here Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. was delayed 10 hours at Edgewood, Cal., by a dinner and five sleepers being derailed.
 Thirteen young people spent a jolly evening Monday at the Lee school house where they had lunch and games by moonlight. Their arrival and departure was announced by the toot of horns and residents along the river road were notified that something was coming, and chickens in the Lee district were kept awake and crowing until the small hours so great was the racket created.
 Andy Colvin and wife and Claude Hockett, wife and child will leave on Sunday morning for North Bend. They will go to Roseburg, then on to Myrtle Point in a private conveyance, where they will take the train to North Bend. Mr. Hockett will be the manager and Mr. Colvin the superintendent of the saw mill and box factory at that place. Mr. Young, of Upton, Cal., will be here this week to take Mr. Colvin's place at the Williams factory.

 X. Ackley Sackett of Washington, D. C. who has spent the past 40 years in cutting likenesses is at the Calhoun store this week making silhouettes of customers. Mr. Sackett is an artist in his line and has "made faces" in all parts of the country and of every person prominent in national affairs for the past half century.
 Sunday, June 30, has been designated "Stainless Flag" Sunday by the Anti-Saloon League of America. On that day about 300 ministers in the State of Oregon will speak on some phase of the drink evil and distribute to their congregations 20,000 copies of Dr. E. S. Chapman's "Stainless Flag" address, which are to be furnished free, by the Oregon State League.
 The J. W. Holman home was the scene of a most enjoyable party Wednesday evening, which was given as a surprise to Mrs. Holman by her husband. The event was in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary. About 30 friends were present and the evening was spent in playing whist. Dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and the event was thoroughly enjoyed by all.
 The S. P. cement gang completed the big cement retaining wall on Saturday, at Tunnel No. 4, between Glendale and West Fork, where the big slide occurred last Winter and will move this week to Leland, where they will put in a 400 foot cement aqueduct, 10x12 feet, under Brimstone trestle which is 110 feet high. Wetzel and Wakeman's bridge crews are also located there, bracing the structure preparatory to its being filled, which will be done as soon as the cement work is completed. It will take 201,000 yards of dirt to fill this trestle.
 Hon. Robert Glenn Smith, lawyer and orator of Grants Pass was in Ashland a few days ago on legal business and illuminated the railroad land grant question and other topics. Mr. Smith says the legal opinions quoted in the Oregonian of Sunday have no bearing on the subject. He cited the law passed by Congress in March, 1896, in regard to the governments rights in attacking patents to railroad land grants as in his opinion the S. P. Co's strongest hold on certain of its patented lands. This section of the U. S. Stat. is 2942, and is on pages 219-220 of the General Land office circular containing public land laws.—Ashland Record.
