

CONVICTS FOR ROAD WORK.

Tribute to Their Value as Highway Builders.

In an address by John Craft of Mobile it was stated that the cost to the farmers of the south is 50 cents per bale of cotton for an average haul of eight miles, says an exchange. If there were good roads, the cost would be reduced to 16 cents a bale. Estimating a crop at a million bales, this would mean a saving of $340,000 annually. It costs under present road conditions 25 cents to haul a ton of fertilizer a mile. With good roads the cost would be 8 cents a ton.

"I have studied for some years the problem of working convicts on our public roads," said Mr. Craft, "and they have proved to be the most economical road builders to be had. The convict has long passed the experimental stage for roadmaking." Judge Eve of Georgia, who has had twenty years of experience in working convicts as road builders, says: "They are the best and cheapest road builders. While working convicts not a single overt act was committed or a single child, woman or man molested or one dollar's worth of property depreciated on Mecklenburg county, N. C., has the finest macadamized roads, and it is being done with convict labor. It costs an average of 25 cents a day to guard, feed and care for convict labor when it is managed on business principles.

"As for the convict himself, statistics show that 60 per cent of those who are worked in the open air, properly fed and guarded, return to their families and cease to be a charge or menace to the state, while of those who are kept in prison or worked in mines, at sawmills or other similar places 85 per cent become hardened criminals. Nor do I think it right to put the honest wage earners in competition with convict labor or the manufacturing industry in competition with the one that hires cheap convict labor.

"Indiana has about 17,000 miles of good gravel roads. I remember when Indiana was considered one of the illiterate states of the Union. Today she is prosperous, and her people are no longer ignorant, but the state is dotted with the finest schools and colleges.

"Massachusetts spends more money than any other state on her public roads. New York has voted to issue $50,000,000 for her roads to be used in the next ten years. New Jersey has fine roads, which are the best investment the state has. Missouri is agitating a bond issue of $25,000,000 for her public roads. The province of Ontario, Canada, has 60,000 miles of good roads, and from that phenomenal improvement has been prosperity to its farmers."

Road Surface Repair Plan.
The road commissioners of Mason county, Mich., are planning a real innovation in the way of keeping the stone roads in that county in repair. Material for repairs will be stored at convenient places for use along the highways. A man will be kept whose sole duty it will be to see that no hole or break is allowed to grow beyond the mere rut state. He will repair these breaks as fast as they occur. Hundreds of dollars, it is believed, will be saved the county each year by this plan of dealing with the road surface. It is a plan adopted by toll road management and has proved to be economical as well as excellent for the road.

Wide Tires Preserve Roads.
Narrow tires carrying a heavy load cut the road surface, making ruts, thereby letting in the water, which, when frozen, results in ruin to the road. The use of wide tires, on the other hand, through the constant process of rolling, is a benefit to the road. In foreign countries, especially France, which enjoys the proud distinction of having the best roads in the world, the use of wide tires is required by law.

Simple Way to Kill Catarrhal Germs in Nose, Throat and Lungs.

The only natural and common sense method known for the cure of catarrhal troubles is Hy-o-mei. It is breathed through an ingenious pocket inhaler, so that its medicated air reaches the most remote air-cells of the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, soothing the irritated mucous membrane, and restoring a healthy condition. Hy-o-mei goes right to the spot where the catarrhal germs are present in the nose, throat and lungs and destroys the germs so that perfect health is soon restored. A complete Hy-o-mei outfit with inhaler costs but $1.00 and is sold by Demaray under guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy gives satisfaction.

Ancient Rome
is now merely a memory of the past. Billard's Snow Liniment is the family liniment of the 20th century. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Cuts, Sprains, Neuralgia, etc. Mr. C. H. Runyon, Stanberry, Mo., writes: "I have used Snow Liniment for Rheumatism and all pain. I can't say enough in its praise." For sale by National Drug Co. and by C. H. Demaray.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress, "small of back," gnawing or distressing feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, or "rising in the throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more completely than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

The Magic No. 3.

Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Parris, of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles by all druggists 50c.

MARCHERS AND STRAGGLERS.

Town Philosopher Gives Some Hints as to How to Succeed in Business.

"No matter what business you may be in," remarks the town philosopher, "unless you keep up with the procession you'll never arrive. Stragglers don't count in business. They can't pick up enough scraps dropped by the real marchers to keep them going, for the fellows who are in the van don't drop anything. They make a clean sweep.

"The straggler in the mercantile line, for instance, is the slipshod storekeeper who tries to do business in 1907 by methods that went out of date in 1877. He still has small panes of glass in his front windows, about sixteen panes to a sash, while the merchant up the street who marches in the van has accepted the plate glass window proposition as a good thing. Plate glass costs lots of money thirty years ago, but today it is quite cheap and most anybody can buy it. It adds several per cent to the exterior attraction of a store, and it's the outside that any customer sees before he sees the inside, you know.

"These same stragglers who retain their antique window panes still employ the methods of '77 in their advertising. They carry about an inch of space in the local paper, merely mentioning that Smith & Jones have a full stock of fine groceries, when the other grocer takes a half column double and advertises right by publishing a price list of his best bargains for the day or the week.

"Who gets the patronage of the people? Is it the grocer with the fly specked window panes of a past generation and the inch ad that has stood in the same type so long that the letters are worn off at the corners like a run down shoe heel, or is it the man whose errand boy washes the plate glass windows every morning at 7 o'clock and then carries the new copy for the week's advertising around to the newspaper office?"

"As I remarked," concluded the town philosopher, "if you don't keep up with the procession you won't get there."

CLEAN UP PLAN.

Boys Paid 25 Cents a Hundred For Tin Cans in Trenton, Mo.

A novel enterprise for the promotion of sentiment for civic improvement was recently fostered by the Trenton (Mo.) Clean City club, a local organization backed by clubwomen in Trenton, says the Kansas City Star. Partly to get rid of the rubbish that adorned alleys and streets and more to attract attention to the clean city movement the club offered Trenton boys 25 cents a hundred for all old tin cans delivered to a committee on the day appointed.

The cans were received at the most prominent point in the town's business section, and for hours the streets were jammed with boys, cans and spectators. One hundred and thirty boys brought in more than 78,000 cans and received nearly $200 in payment. The club expects the tin can day to be the pioneer event of a general movement in smaller cities. Clubs in several other towns have already shown a disposition to try the scheme, which was an unqualified success.

DON'T DIE AT 45

Cure the Indigestion Which is So Liable to Lead to Apoplexy.

People who suffer with headache, giddiness, palpitation, bad taste in the mouth, drowsiness, distress after eating, and any of the other distressing results of indigestion, are in serious danger. Their digestive organs cannot care for the food properly and hence the coats of the blood vessels in the brain get little nourishment, become brittle, and finally yield to the fierce blood pressure and one is then said to have a "back," be paralyzed, or die from apoplexy. In all diseases of digestion and nutrition the prescription called Mi-o-na has proven itself of great value. It is relied upon today as a certainty to relieve the worst troubles of indigestion and make a complete cure. That Mi-o-na will cure the worst forms of stomach trouble, cancer excepted, and give quick relief in indigestion is proven by the guarantee Demaray gives with every 50 cent box to refund the money unless Mi-o-na cures. A guarantee like this most inspire confidence.
