Crocodiles of Old. The galaxy of lies about crocodiles found in old books dazes the understanding even of the experienced reader of mediaeval natural history. He is a great worm. He is afraid of saffron. He eats honey. The crocodile runneth away from a man if he wink with his left eye and look steadfastly upon him with his right eye. He carries water in his mouth to make the roads slippery and so catches people alive.

The reason they have failed of cure is because they have not treated the disease with the local remedy, Hyomei, which is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler so that its healing medicated air reaches the most remote air cells, kills all catarrh germs and restores the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and lungs to a healthy condition.
