Benefit Ball Game.

There will be a ball game next Thursday between the professional men and business men at the A. A. C. grounds, the proceeds to go to the Fourth of July deficiency fund, there being something over $200 yet to raise. At the close of the game Prof. Berry will make a balloon ascension from the grounds. Stores will be closed in the afternoon and business stopped and the whole town is expected to attend.

Newspaper men have troubles at all times but sometimes their troubles come in droves. The Courier this week has troubles due to the failure of the express company to deliver a batch of copies on time. A considerable amount of news matter was sent to Melford by express (owners risk) last night to be linotyped by the Tribune's night force and returned by us this morning. The "Daily" received Melford at 11 o'clock today instead of at 12 last night. If you look for an item and find it "out" it may be sure it was in the lot that went astray.

A Brief Record of Local Events.

The Southern Oregon Chautauqua Association closed the most successful assembly of its history last Saturday. The income not only paid the running expenses but took up a number of old bills and had a hundred dollars or more to apply on the debt incurred by the enlarging of the Chautauqua building. Mr. Billings was again elected to the presidency of the association for the 14th year.

E. F. Meissner was in Grants Pass on Saturday of last week to meet Mrs. Meissner, who had been on a visit to her mother at Beaver City, Utah. Mr. Meissner resides on a fine farm a mile west of Kerby on the Illinois river and he is one of the most progressive and successful farmers of that valley. Mr. Meissner has his farm under irrigation and he was credited by the Agricultural College professors, who were at Kerby last year holding a farmers institute, with being one of the most practical men in Rogue River Valley in the proper handling of water to get the best results. Mr. Meissner is taking a deep interest in the Oregon Irrigation Convention and Rogue River Industrial Fair that are to be held in Grants Pass September 10, 11 and 12 and he and his family will attend. Mr. Meissner declared that this convention and fair is the best move yet made in bringing about the development of the various resources of Rogue River Valley and he will do all he can to get the farmers and stockmen of his section to have exhibits at the fair and to get all to attend that and the irrigation convention.

DAVIDSON

The weather for the last week has been quite pleasant as the nights have been rather cool.

C. M. Relford and daughter, Mrs. Clinton Cook, were visitors from Applegate to Grants Pass Saturday.

Mrs. Kate McFadden and sons Pat and Herman were also visitors from here to Grants Pass Saturday on business.

W. B. York took his cattle out to the famous Grayback stock range this week. He did not have as many cattle to drive this year as usual, having sold the most of them not long ago to a man from Gasette, California.

Just ought to take a trip up through our little valley now and see the green alfalfa fields. Some of the second crop of hay has been cut but the most of it has not. Hay will be a good price this season—better than it was last.

So "Eben" wants to know what has become of "Monty." Well now I do not know just exactly how to answer that question but I guess the main reason is that I have been too busy to write but never mind "Eben" I will write as often as I can so that the people of this county can hear of beautiful Elk Valley and I will tell of the wonders of Davidson.

We hear that the Murphy Base Ball team has elected a new manager by acclamation and that he got the famous team together Sunday and played a game with Grants Pass. They played at Provolet and the tally stood 18 to 11 in favor of the Applegate Valley Tri-Color League. We understand that a return game will be played in Grants Pass August 4th. We are afraid that our team will not play as good as they did here as there is no brush in the G. Pass diamond.

Rev. Blackman closed camp meeting at the grove near Murphy Sunday night. There was a large crowd in attendance to hear the closing sermon.

A person can hear a noise around here now that sounds something like hay balers. Swinder and Jennings started Monday at Mr. Haberman's place and everything started off nicely. We hear that J. W. York will start his new Lightning Hay Press Wednesday.

Mr. Berry Raiser do you realize that Willamette berries are being shipped into Grants Pass and sold where your berries ought to find a market? The reason is this; the housekeeper don't know that you have berries to sell. It would cost you but 25 cents to tell them so in the Courier classified ads. It is much cheaper and more satisfactory than peddling.

We happened to be in a store a few days ago when a berry raiser called to sell several crates of berries, but the grocer was loaded up. The farmer went away disgusted and was heard to "roar" about the grocers never buying their produce. There was a reason for it which in that particular case was this: A few days previous the same grocer had tried to buy berries of the same gardener and offered in cash the same price the gardener was receiving by peddling, but he would not sell as he had several customers on the way home. This time the customers did not buy all his berries and he took the leftovers to the grocer, after they had been carted around town for several hours. The grocer was a wise buyer and had bought his berries fresh in the early morning. He had also had other experiences with this same farmer and he knew that the money he received would not go to the town grocer but to the Portland mail order grocer.
