DROWN IN EFFORT TO SAVE OTHERS

OAKLAND COUPLE DIE IN SAC-RAMENTO RIVER, DRAGGING RESCUERS DOWN, TOO.

Boat Capsizes, Throwing Occupants Into the Swift Running Stream, and Sweeps Them to Death.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 21.—Four people, two of whom are believed to be residents of Oakland, met death by drowning here yesterday afternoon in the Sacramento river, 300 yards above the confluence of that stream with the American river.
Two bodies have since been recovered.
Two of the victims of the treacherous current were drowned in an attempt to rescue the other two.

Charles Palm and a girl whose identity is unknown, arrived here yesterday with the intention of spending their vacation with relatives on a boat. The lad of 17 years and the girl who came here with him, said to be his cousin, had crossed to the Yolo side of the river in a duck-boat. As they were about to disembark the bow of the boat was carried under the flooring of the houseboat. The current is strong at this point and in a moment the boat had capsized.

Mrs. Charles White, the sister of Palm, was alone in the houseboat at the time and it is believed that hearing the cries of Palm and his companion as they struggled in the water, she ran from the cabin and jumped into the river in the hope of effecting a rescue. The shrieks of Palm and the girl were also heard by Emanuel Grigs, a fisherman who lived in another houseboat a short distance down the river. Grigs ran along the bank to the White houseboat, where he saw the three struggling together in the water. Without stopping to remove his boots he dove in after them. He succeeded in getting hold of the two women and was scarcely a stroke from the houseboat when he uttered an agonizing shriek and sank beneath the water with the two women, who had been clinging to him.

Mrs. White was about 20 years old and had many friends on the Yolo side of the river. At the time of the disaster her husband was absent on a fishing trip. Charles Palm operated a moving picture machine in the Novelty Theater, Oakland. His companion, who was apparently not more than 16, is said to have been an actress of the bay region.

Auto Plunges Over Embankment.

Martinez, Cal., Aug. 21.—An automobile driven by Dr. C. L. Abbott, Coroner of Contra Costa county, and also containing Miss Gertrude Roberts, ran over a 25-foot embankment at Glen Frazer, near here, yesterday afternoon. Both occupants were painfully injured.
The car turned turtle, pinning both under it. Dr. Abbott managed to extricate himself, but the full weight of the machine rested on Miss Roberts' right leg, holding her fast until Dr. Abbott procured a lever and managed to pull her from under the wreck.
The leg is not broken, but the knee joint is so badly sprained that the young woman will not be able to walk for a month. Both Dr.
Abbott and Miss Roberts returned to their homes in Richmond.

FRENCH REPULSE ARABS.

Suffer Heavy Losses in Attack on General Drude's Forces.

Casa Blanca, Aug. 21.—Another fierce attack by the Arabs was made upon General Drude's French forces that are stationed in the outskirts of the city yesterday. A horde of the besieging natives swooped down upon the encampment, but the French were ready for them, and the Arabs were driven back with terrible loss of life. The Arabs are poorly equipped for the fanatical warfare they are waging, and they cannot cope with the trained soldiers of France.

The temper of the natives is aroused to the highest pitch, and it is expected that a general uprising will follow this recent defeat.

The possibility of such an uprising has filled the foreign residents with terror, and they are fleeing from Fez, Morocco City and the other dangerous points, leaving their property behind in their precipitate flight. It is expected that a general attack against a number of prominent centers of foreign population will begin soon.

NO RESPITE FOR CRIMINAL RICH

ROOSEVELT STRIKES AT PRES-ENT DAY EVILS IN SPEECH AT PROVINCETOWN.

Declares That Criminals Should Be Punished, Whether He Be Rich or Poor.

Provincetown, Mass., Aug. 21.— Through a lane of mighty battleships, the thunders of whose salute rang out over the bay for miles, the Government yacht Mayflower entered Provincetown harbor yesterday, bringing President Roosevelt to the spot where the Pilgrims first stepped on the soil of the new world and in whose memory a beautiful monument had its inception in the laying of the corner stone yesterday.

The corner stone exercises were in charge of the Massachusetts Grand Commandery of the Masons, and the ritual was conducted by J. Henry Blake, James Bryce, the British Ambassador, offered the congratulations of the mother country. Other speakers included Governor Guild, Senator Lodge and the officers of the town and the monument association.

The monument, when completed, will be one of the most beautiful of the many historic memorials in the vicinity of Boston. Its purpose is to mark the place where the Pilgrims finished their long voyage, and where they drew up their historic pact in the cabin of the ancient Mayflower, and where a few of them first landed on American soil.

After paying a glowing tribute to the Pilgrim Fathers and their descendants, President Roosevelt attacked with his characteristic vigor the problems of the present day.

He said in part: "Experience has shown that it is necessary to exercise a far more efficient control than at present over the business use of those vast fortunes, chiefly corporate, which are used (as under modern conditions they almost invariably are) in interstate business. When the constitution was created none of the conditions of modern business existed. They are wholly new and we must create new agencies to deal effectively with them. There is no objection in the minds of this people to any man's earning any amount of money if he does it honestly and fairly, if he gets it as the result of special skill and enterprise, as a reward of ample service actually rendered. But there is a growing determination that no man shall amass a great fortune by special privilege, by chicanery and wrongdoing, so far as it is in the power of legislation to prevent; and that the fortune when amassed shall not have a business use that is anti-social. Most large corporations do a business that is not confined to any one State. Experience has shown that the effort to control these corporations by mere State action cannot produce wholesome results. In most cases such effort fails to correct the real abuses of which the corporation is or may be guilty; while in other cases the effort is apt to cause either hardship to the corporation itself or else hardship to neighboring States which have not tried to grapple with the problem in the same manner, and, of course, we must be as scrupulous to safeguard the rights of the corporations as to exact from them in return a full measure of justice to the public. I believe in a national incorporation law for corporations engaged in interstate business. I believe furthermore that the need for action is most pressing as regards those corporations which, because they are common carriers, exercise a quasi-public function; and which can be completely controlled, in all respects by the Federal Government, by the exercise of the power conferred under the interstate commerce clause, and, if necessary, under the postroad clause of the constitution.
During the last few years we have taken marked strides in advance along the road to proper regulation of these railroad corporations, but we must not stop in the work. The National Government should exercise over them a similar supervision and control to that which it exercises over national banks. We can do this only by proceeding farther along the lines marked out by the recent national legislation.

"In dealing with those who offend against the anti-trust and interstate commerce laws the Department of Justice has to encounter many and great difficulties. Often men who have been guilty of violating these laws have really acted in criminal fashion, and if possible should be proceeded against criminally; and therefore it is advised that there should be a clause in these laws providing for such criminal action and for punishment by imprisonment as well as by fine. But, as is well known, in a criminal action the law is strictly construed in favor of the defendant, and in our country, at least, both Judge and jury are far more inclined to consider his rights than they are the interests of the general public; while in addition it is always true that a man's general practices may be so bad that a civil action will lie when it may be not possible to convict him of any one criminal act. There is unfortunately a certain number of our fellow-countrymen who seem to accept the view that unless a man can be proved guilty of some particular crime he shall be counted a good citizen, no matter how infamous the life he has led, no matter how prencious his doctrines or his practices. This is the view announced from time to time with clamorous insistence, now by a group of predatory capitalists, now by a group of sinister anarchistic leaders and agitators, whenever a special champion of either class, no matter how evil his general life, is acquitted of some one specific crime. Such a view is wicked whether applied to capitalist or labor leader, to rich man or poor man."

Frances McMillen Is Lost in Alps.
New York, Aug. 21.—Frances McMillen, a young American whose genius as a violinist has attracted unusual attention, both in this country and abroad, was lost Saturday while ascending Mount Blanc in the Alps. Searching parties have thus far obtained no trace of him.

Nothing is known of the circumstances under which McMillen was lost. He was with a party including Yvette Gullbert, the French actress, and her husband and a Madame Van Dyk.

Boy Falls Into a Well and Drowns.
Redding, Cal., Aug. 21.—Hugh Nichols, a 6-year-old boy, fell through the curbing of an old well in Shasta and was drowned. He was playing with a companion who dared him to jump from a step on to the covering of the well.

COUPON BOND because of its quality, its body and its general ap-graphed stationery, checks, vouchers, bonds, bills and receipts manufactured. Yet exclusive as it is, it costs no more than other good bond papers, and in the end is cheaper. The great resources of the American Writing Paper Company make it possible for them to furnish in Coupon Bond an extremely high grade business paper at a comparatively low cost.

Make your printer include Coupon Bond in his next estimate—
