His daughter, Miss Leona left for that place Wednesday evening.

Items of Personal Interest.

Frank E. Thompson was in from Kerby this week, on a business trip. Attorney A. C. Hough attended to some legal business at Medford, the first of the week. J. E. Porter was up from Roseburg this week, on business and pleasure bent. Jack Wilson came up from Eugene, Wednesday, to combine business and pleasure. W. M. Dwyer, of Medford was in the city, on important business Tuesday. Ora Hall was down from Ashland to visit with Grants Pass friends for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Patrick are home from a few weeks' sojourn with relatives at Drain. R. T. Cain has been down from Gold Hill, this week, doing some trading and meeting his friends. Harry Messler, the well known Gold Hill resident, was transacting business in this city, Monday. Mrs. A. Garrecht came down from Redding, Cal., to visit with relatives and friends in this city for a few days. Geo. A. Armstrong, an Oakland, Cal. merchant is in the city, just to have a bit of an outing and he is enjoying it immensely. E. J. Morency of Chicago, who is touring the coast points of interest, has been sizing up this city and likes the place very much. H. F. Mathews was an eastern tourist, hailing from Philadelphia, who stopped over and enjoyed seeing the many beauties and attractions of this locality. E. L. Giles, a Roseburg timber cruiser was spending a few days in the city, this week, while he located a number of good timber land claims for outside parties. Sanford Daigle, from the mining district of Wallace, Idaho, accompanied by his wife, has been here to take a look over some of the promising properties of this section. O. T. Ewerich arrived from Cleveland, Ohio, this week, for the purpose of looking this country over. He may make some investments and eventually may come here to live. Mrs. Allie Peck, of Spokane, Wash., came to Grants Pass, as many others from the Inland Empire have done, to make fling upon a choice timber land claim.

A Brief Record of Local Events.

Will Riggs has accepted a position with the firm of C. F. Dixon. Trainmaster C. W. Cline spent Saturday with the local railroad men. Oliver Clarno came in from Bandon, to look up some property interests, this week. C. S. Milness and E. W. Myers, two Eureka, Cal. timber men have been looking after the possibilities in that line hereabouts. The public auction conducted by W. C. Dodge at the corner of 6th and Front streets, Saturday, drew many people and created much interest. Rogue River fishing is very good, these days and many are the disciples of Isaac Walton who may be found whipping the waters within the city limits for the festive finny tribe. Grants Pass liverymen say that the people of this city are enjoying this superbly fine weather and that as a result the demand for rigs of all kind has actually been beyond the supply. Book agents and agents of all kinds are reported to be quite thick in this locality, scarcely a day passing but what some of them can be found plying their avocation. A "Hello Convention" for Josephine and Jackson counties has been called to assemble at Ashland, Sunday, October 20, with the object of talking over operating affairs and of devising ways for bettering the telephone service of this district. J. D. Wimer has sold his 160 acre place in the Applegate valley for $5000 and has purchased the place of Will. A. Leonard, of 176 acres, which is all under the ditch and 90 acres cultivated. He proposes to clean up the rest of the place and then to launch quite extensively into the dairying business. The enterprising firm of Geo. S. Calhoun Co. is putting in a lot of nice improvements, including fine show windows, neat counters and the like. These improvements add very materially to the appearance of this up-to-date establishment. Saturday, C. H. Hoxie and son, Will were in from their place on the upper Williams Creek, bringing in a load of produce and taking home a big lot of supplies. They report that this season the cattle in that region which is noted as being a very desirable stock section, are looking uncommonly fine and that there are just lots of fine, fat deer on Greyback mountain this season. J. W. York, of Missouri Flat, while at the county seat, recently, favored the Courier with a call and stated that a new creamery would soon be started by himself and a Portland party, out on his place and that a plant had been purchased for this purpose, in the Willamette valley. He said that they would be prepared to pay cash for butter fat upon its delivery at the creamery. He further stated that they had made a contract for the entire output of the plant for the next three years to a Seattle party, who would ship it all to the Alaska market. Postmaster Harmon and his able assistants, along with the thousands of other postmasters in the country have received instructions from the postal department to do some special service which will require his clerical force to "get busy" during the week of October 13 to 19. Every piece of mail originating in the local office is to be counted during the days of the week above mentioned, and blanks have been forwarded which tabulated returns will be made. This order applies to all classes of mail. Letters and post cards will be counted, and the revenue in postage stamps which they bear footed up; the number of copies of newspaper, sample copies, circulars and all kinds of printed matter will also be counted and the postage received for their transmission through the mail will be recorded. In addition to this work postoffices are now engaged in a special weighing of the mails which will continue for six months. Plans for the Courses of Entertainments have been perfected and at a meeting held last week the following officers were chosen: H. C. Kinney, chairman, Prof. R. B. Turner, secretary and treasurer; soliciting committee A. E. Cornell, T. P. Cramer, W. L. Ireland, L. E. Hall, Geo. H. Durham, and Dr. E. H. White. These will constitute the executive committee. It was decided that the course would be $2 for adults and $1.50 for school pupils. The course promises to be exceptionally fine and these gentlemen are deserving of much praise for affording the people of this city such a high class of attractions as they have secured for the winter season. Today F. W. Van Dyke was called to Sallis, to see the broken arm of one of J. Wimer's daughters. Full particulars were not obtainable at this time.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Wednesday afternoon about 50 members of the Ladies' Guild of St. Luke's Episcopal church were entertained at the guild hall, Mesdames Fred Gumpert and Everett Holman (the latter substituting for Mrs. M. Clemens, who was ill), acting as hostesses. After some important business had been transacted, refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake were served and the remainder of the afternoon passed all too quickly in social conversation. Monday evening a delightful farewell reception was tendered Miss Bertha Ryan, who has been the guest of her friend, Miss Nona Bridge, teacher in the High school, for some time past and who left this week for Pasadena, Cal., where she will visit for a short time and then proceed to her home at Fremont, Iowa. The affair was gotten up by the members of the third and fourth year classes, but all the members of the High school attended and enjoyed the fine event. Musical selections were rendered and various games were played, and a good social time was had, ice cream and cake being served during the evening's pleasures. The reception tendered Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Beckman, by the Official Board of the Newman M. E. church in the church parlors, Wednesday evening was a charming occasion, the spacious parlors being filled with a host of warm friends of the popular pastor and his good wife, to express their good wishes, as they are entering upon their third year's work in this church. A fine musical program, consisting of a male quartette, piano duet, vocal duet and vocal solo was rendered. Attorney H. D. Norton spoke on behalf of the Board in his usual happy manner, to which Rev. Beckman feelingly responded. All the ministers of the churches had been invited to participate in the exercises, but owing to various hindering causes they were unable to be present, with the exception of Rev. Lovett, who brought the greetings of the Baptist brethren in a cordial way. A nice letter of congratulation was sent by Presiding Elder M. C. Wire, which was read. Then followed a social session, when refreshments were served. The parlors were beautifully decorated for the occasion, red and green predominating in the colors used. It was indeed a very pleasant occasion for both pastor and people and all greatly enjoyed it. A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the parents in this city, Saturday evening, when Frank Bachelor, of Glendale and Miss Estella M. Powers of Williams Creek were married, Rev. Austin J. Hollingsworth pronouncing the impressive ceremony. Only the immediate relatives and friends witnessed the happy event, after which a bounteous wedding dinner was served. The couple left Saturday night, on the overland, for Glendale, where they will hereafter reside. The "Witch Party," which the members of the Bethany Presbyterian Benefit society are planning to give in the near future, promises to be quite a social function of no small importance. This evening the Endeavorers of the Bethany Presbyterian church are to entertain their many friends with a novel "Poverty Social." These young people are royal entertainers and tonight's doings will undoubtedly be up to the usual high standard. Still doing business at the old stand—Piel's Elite Laundry, 10-14 ft
