FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6 1907.

Now that we have met the Turks and they are ours, let us turn our attention to the preparations for the gift-giving season. Certain it is that the Christmas spirit is the best of all, especially when we mind the injunction that "its more blessed to give than receive."

Despite the impression that seems to have gained credence that we are in the midst of "Hard Times," our Grants Pass merchants, especially those who advertise, are having a nice run of trade. As the holidays approach, this state of affairs will continue to improve.

The entire Dixon stock of Dry goods, shoes, underwear, hats, etc., is being sold out at cost. 11-18 6t

G. W. Donnell corrects an impression which may have been gained by an item which appeared last week, saying he and his family were here from Medford to spend Thanksgiving. This is his home and his family has been residing here right along and that he came home to observe the festival day.

Frank Colvig is visiting at home after spending the summer cruising about Behring sea and the Alaskan coasts as a seaman on the U. S. revenue cutter McCullough. Mr. Noble, who was with him on the voyage accompanied him home. The boys had a wonderful trip and secured many interesting photos of scenes in the far north. They assisted in the chase and capture of several Japanese vessels poaching on the sealing grounds and had a number of exciting experiences. They are, however, glad to be again on terra firma and away from the several cold of the north.

Notice to Fruit Growers and Dealers.

After December 10, 1907, all persons are forbidden to sell or offer for sale diseased or insect-infested fruit. From now until December 10, is granted to allow the merchants to dispose of any stock of the above they may have on hand.

BORN.

TRULOVE—At Leland, Ore., Wednesday, November 20, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. Trulove, a daughter.

MARRIED.

STEWART—McKINNEY—At the residence of Judge and Mrs. Stephen Jewell, Sunday, December 1, 1907. James H. Stewart, of Wilderville and Zora McKinney of Grants Pass. Judge Stephen Jewell, officiating.

GIBSON—McGEE—At the South Methodist Church, at Williams, Josephine county, Ore., Monday evening, December 2, 1907, Joseph Gibson, of California and Miss Elsie McGee, of Williams, Rev. C. H. Cleaves, of Grants Pass officiating.

The edifice was prettily decorated for this happy event and was filled with a large number of friends of the contracting parties. The wedding march was ably rendered by Mr. Leslie Hartley and the words making them husband and wife were pronounced by Rev. Cleaves in his own happy way.

After the impressive ceremony, the newly wedded couple repaired to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. N. Hull, where they were guests until Wednesday morning, when they took the overland train for Siskiyou county, California, where the groom is engaged in the mining business, being accompanied by the hearty wishes of their host of friends.

DIED.

LINDSAY—At his home, in Grants Pass, Wednesday, December 4, 1907, David Lindsay, aged 84 years, 6 months and 18 days, of senility.

Deceased was born in Indiana and when but a mere lad came to Oregon to reside, settling on the Applegate. Later he moved to the county seat, where he was engaged in the hotel business. He was a veteran of two wars having done service in the Mexican War and on the Confederate side in the Civil War.

He leaves a wife, four sons, and five daughters and many warm friends to mourn his departure. The funeral occurred Thursday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. C. H. Cleaves and the interment was at the Odd Fellows cemetery, a large concourse of friends and neighbors of the departed being in attendance.

Elsewhere in this issue is published a statement of the First National Bank of Southern Oregon, showing deposits of $271,212.38 and cash on hand $145,127.33, being 39 per cent of the total deposits. This is considerable more double the percentage required by law.

Notice to Fruit Growers

Fruitgrowers troubled with anthracnose, San Jose scale, green or wooly aphid or moss upon their trees, should use an application of Lime Sulphur solution of 3 per cent strength, at once. It is claimed by Experiment station men that the Lime Sulphur mixture is equally as good as Bordeaux or anthracnose (dead spot) but should not be used until the leaves begin falling heavily. Fruitgrowers will find it much easier to control pests by spraying this fall and again next spring, than by using only the spring application. Anthracnose spores are now migrating and are easily killed while it will be practically impossible to get at them later on.
