AMONG THE LODGES

J. S. Brown, an organizer for the "Modern Pyramid Builders," will soon visit Grants Pass, in the interests of that new and growing secret order.

Election of officers Gen. Logan No. 2, W. R. C. will be held Saturday afternoon, December 14. The past year has been one of progress and advancement along all lines, under the guidance of President Josephine Mowers.

In a recent write-up of the anniversary celebration of General Logan W. R. C., an error was inadvertently made in giving the name of the president of that organization, and Mrs. Josephine Mowers holds that important position, instead of the person thus named.

While people are somewhat interested in the benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, the Fraternal Order of Owls and similar orders of birds and beasts, the Corpulent and Tender Order of Turkey Gobblers will hold first place in the minds of most of the people this month, says the Walla Walla Bulletin.

Backed by the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association and the local Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles Lodge of Elks, No. 99, is already in the field for the 1909 Gr and Lodge and will go to Dallas, Tex., next year with a pledge to expend $200,000 in entertainment to the delegates and visitors. Delegations from other cities of California and adjoining states have promised their support in the effort to bring to the Pacific Coast the first convention held west of Salt Lake City.

Josephine Chapter, No. 27, Order of Eastern Star has just elected its officers for the ensuing year, as follows: Adhe Tuffs, Worthy Matron; L. B. Hall, Worthy Patron; Marguerite Riddle, Associate Matron; Lulu Demaray, Conductress; Adah Smith, Associate Conductress; Catherine Gray, Secretary and Ann M. Holman, Treasurer. The installation will occur at the first meeting in the new year, when the appointive officers will be announced.

Saturday evening the members of Grants Pass Lodge, No. 84, A. F. & A. M., had one of the finest of meetings to be imagined. There was a goodly attendance and several visiting brethren were there to enjoy the social session. When it came to the "For the Good of the Order," several interesting and appropriate talks were delivered and substantial refreshments were forthcoming.

Monday evening the members of Reames Chapter, No. 28, Royal Arch Masons had a big time, the occasion being the "raising" of three prominent residents of Glendale to the Royal Arch degree. The gentlemen who thus rode Sir William Goat into the mysteries of the order were Messrs. W. H. Redfield, J. Osteen and Joe Harding. Postmaster L. L. Hurd, Oliver Lane and Wm. D. Smith came up from Glendale to see how their fellow townsmen would pass through the trying ordeal. After the very impressive ceremonies the members and their guests, to the number of 35, repaired to the spacious Richardson Ice Cream parlors, where they enjoyed a delightful repast.

Grants Pass Camp No. 8007, M. W. A., has chosen the following new officers for the next year's service: W. K. Hodgkinson, C; Fred Dingler, A; C. E. Hildreth, C; J. M. Rader, B; and these will be installed at a joint installation to be held with the R. N. A. people, January 6. The order recently gave a very successful and enjoyable social, at which fully 300 people were present. It was fine and included a literary and musical program of much merit. The order is flourishing all over the country and the local camp gained 47 during the year just ending.

Takilma Tribe, No. 29, Improved Order of Redmen has just elected officers as follows: D. E. Dotson, Sachem; W. H. Kenney, Sen. Sagamore; Frank A. Ellis, Jr. Sagamore; Geo. Finch, Prophet; M. W. Robbins, Chief of Records; W. G. Thrasher, Keeper of Wampum and G. D. Williams, Trustee.

Rogue River Camp, No. 55, W. O. W., has selected the following officers for the coming year: Geo. Slover, C. C; Ed Allen, A; M. W. Robbins, C; Henry Hiller, B; Bert Fals, E; John Larson, S; and D. S. Cook, W.

BORN.

KINNEY—At Central Point, Monday, December 9, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kinney, a son.

MANSFIELD—In Grants Pass, Monday, December 9, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Mansfield, a son.

ALBRO—In Grants Pass, Saturday, December 7, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Albro, a daughter.

BARTLETT—In Grants Pass, Thursday, December 12, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bartlett, a nine-pound daughter.

The proud father was kept busy passing around the cigars, yesterday, owing to the happy event. It goes without saying that he steps pretty high these days.

ELKINS—At Prineville, Ore., Saturday, December 7, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Elkins, a son.

Mrs. Elkins will be remembered as Miss Estella Goodin, formerly preceptress at the Grants Pass High school.

DIED.

INGRAM—At Wilderville, Saturday, November 30, 1907, Josephine Ingram, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ingram.

HODKINSON—In Grants Pass, Thursday, December 5, 1907, Opal Hodgkinson, aged 10 years and 6 months, of diphtheria.

Little Opal was a very faithful member of the Newman M. E. Sunday school, where she will be greatly missed by her many loving schoolmates. Memorial service will be held some Sunday afternoon, the date to be announced later.

WILDERVILLE

The sick are improving at present.

Eugene Sams is home again after an absence of about two months.

W. S. Robinson is on the sick list this week.

My, how it is raining! I guess we are going to have a flood yet before it stops.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lindsay were in town Thursday of last week to attend his father's funeral.

Miss Orpha Stevenson was at home Sunday, December 8, to visit home folks.

If anyone has any bog killing they want done just call on Henry Hocking and Elba Woodard.

Rev. Pepper has been on the sick list the past few days, and so could not fill his appointment at Althouse.

The presiding elder, Rev. R. A. Dunlap is holding quarterly meetings at the Wilderville church. He is doing some splendid preaching.

Miss Emma Hocking missed several days of school last week on account of sickness but is able to take up the work again this week.

Bell Hocking, Nellie Holland and Leota Edwards had quite an accident Friday morning while coming home from Mr. Armstrong's where they had been to get Emma Hocking. As the driver went to guide the horse around a mud hole, the horse jumped sideways and caught the wheel of the buggy on an oak tree, doing much damage to the buggy, but did not hurt the girls at all. Mrs. Close was so very kind as to help the girls with their broken buggy to the Wilderville blacksmith shop where it was soon mended by J. C. K. McCann and Mr. Russell. UNCLE FULLER.
