A Real Wonderland

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bountiful farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by all druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Badly Mixed Up

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me, so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, 50c.

Many Mining Matters

J. E. Kirk and son Tom made another of their cleanups at the Lucky Bar, on Sardine creek, securing a gold brick weighing over 30 ounces, or valuing over $600, says the Gold Hill News. This was an exceptionally good run, being the returns from only 18 tons of ore. They have been running in an exceedingly rich streak of ore for the past two weeks and will soon be ready for another mill run that will probably go even better than this one. These gentlemen make a clean-up of this kind about every six weeks and are demonstrating that our mines can be made to pay good returns if handled by men who are practical and economical miners.

Will L. Ireland was at Jacksonville, the first of the week making arrangements for having some assessment work done on a promising mining claim which he owns on Forest Creek in that region. He also visited at Medford, on his return trip.

While in Grants Pass, Monday, in company with his step-brother, Grant Patton, the Placer mining man had a rather unpleasant experience. He was doing some trading at the Hair-Riddle Hardware Co's store and fell over in a fainting spell. Dr. J. C. Smith happened to be near at hand and was called in to treat the insensible man. Mr. Patton had no less than three of these spells and the last one was very hard. The trouble was pronounced by Dr. Smith to be due to stomach troubles. He was so improved as to be able to return to Placer, Tuesday.

Notices of locations of quartz mining claims have been filed of record in the County Clerk's office as follows: "Cobalt No. 4" by Henry L. Colvin; "Daisy," at head of Brass Nail Gulch, and adjoining "Little Daisy," by R. G. Smith; "Colorado," at head of Brass Nail Gulch and adjoining "Little Daisy," by R. G. Smith; "Mohawk," in Althouse district, by W. T. Coburn; "Hank," in Althouse district, by Henry Colvin. F. W. Capp et al, have located the "White Cedar" placer claim, in the Rowell Creek unorganized mining district. Lefe Grimes and others have filed location for "The Miller Bar Ditch," tapping the waters of Rock Creek.

Chester and Tyler Irwin arrived from Idaho this week to visit with relatives and old time friends in this city. They used to reside here but for the past seven years have been extensively engaged in mining in Idaho, the famous "Salmon River" camp. Chester is superintendent and Tyler treasurer of the "Goodenough" mines, which are located in the Marshall district. The ore is quite good, having an average of 40 tons in fine gold. They had a few choice samples of the ore, which they showed the Courier man and they were good to look upon, as they were supposed to make all of $50,000 to the ton. These mining men may decide to remain here permanently, for they firmly believe that the mining industry in this region is going to come right to the front and besides they want to get away from the bad winters up in the Idaho country, where the snow last year was 22 feet deep on the summit of the mountains and all of four feet at the mines.

R. S. Moore, who has leased the "Baby Mine," on Jump-off-Joe, was in Grants Pass and he stated that he now has a small crew of men at work on this promising property, which is owned by Boise and Sacramento parties and as the season advances will put on more. This mine now has a five stamp mill and gives promise of making a good showing this season.

J. H. Mills and his step-brother, Grant Patton, two of Placer's progressive mining men were transacting business at the county seat this week. These gentlemen, in addition to owning a very promising mine out in the Placer country, have also secured two fine ranches and are to be congratulated upon having so many things coming their way.

A. S. Downing, Harvey Book and others have sold their interests in the Oregon Bells mine, located in Forest Creek district, to G. W. Troutman and his associates. The sheriff recently facilitated the freeze-out game that is being played there, and it is expected that this mine, which was a consistent producer, will be operated again as soon as the undesirable stockholders have been thoroughly dispossessed.

The Jacksonville Post says that John Tremberth, the mine manager, left last Sunday morning for South America on a Gold hunting expedition. A number of prominent Jacksonville capitalists are furnishing the funds wherewith to explore that country and "Jack" feels confident he will return within 12 months with a million. There are some immensely rich gold propositions in that country that have yet been undeveloped and 'tis said that the sands of the Amazon river are filled with yellow metal to such an extent that the natives scoop it up with a paddle for a shovel and pay out from $100 to $1000 a day and then trade it to the white men for any old thing.

MUCH CONCERN FELT

Ordinary Methods for Treating Catarrh Prove Unsuccessful.

Recent statistics showing an increase in catarrh have shaken the confidence of medical men in the usual prescriptions to safeguard human health from the ravages of this disease.

When stomach dosing provided ineffective, it was natural to look for some other treatment, and it is believed that in Hyomei, an absolute cure for all catarrhal troubles has at last been found. Breathed through a neat pocket inhaler, its healing medication reaches every spot where there are catarrhal germs, destroys them, prevents their future growth, and soothes the irritated mucous membrane so that relief is felt almost instantly, while lasting cure is practically sure to follow.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, and is sold by Demaray under an absolute agreement to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction. It is the only cure for catarrh that has ever been sold under a guarantee to cost nothing unless it cures, but Demaray has so much faith in its power to cure all catarrhal troubles that he is willing to take the risk, so if Hyomei does not help you, there will not be a penny's expense. Get an outfit at once on this liberal plan.

VALUE OF STREET TREES.

Nothing Adds So Much to a Town's Beauty.

There is a pleasing unanimity of opinion among writers and lecturers on street trees regarding their value to abutting property as well as to the community in general. Professor G. L. Stone, botanist at the Massachusetts Agricultural college, in a lecture before the Worcester County Horticultural society opened with the following appreciative words:

"There is nothing which adds so much to the beauty of a town or city as shade trees, and persons of good taste appreciate this fact. One will notice in traveling that the villages adorned with a large number of beautiful shade trees are those in which have existed for some time considerable public spirit, refinement and culture. On the other hand, mill towns whose inhabitants have no permanent homes are usually notable for their lack of trees and embellishments in general. Shade trees, however, possess another value, that of utility, and we wish to call attention to this feature because it is not generally appreciated and furthermore because it will appeal to the practical man, who is little in sympathy with the beautiful in any form. The decisions of courts in the United States have in more than one instance proved that trees possess a property value and in many cases from $50 to $200 or more has been awarded to the abutter for the destruction of a single tree. It makes little difference whether a tree is located on the street or on private land or whether it is set out by the town or city or by the abutter, since a tree in front of a piece of property adds value to it, and the abutter can claim damages for the destruction of such a tree. An elm tree eighteen to twenty inches in diameter, for example, may be worth $100 to $300, and one would experience little difficulty in obtaining recompense for its destruction."

That's It

Cough yourself into "a fit of spasms" and then wonder why you don't get well. If you will only try a bottle of Ballard's Horsehound Syrup your cough will be a thing of the past. It is a positive cure for Coughs, Influenza, Bronchitis and all Pulmonary diseases. One bottle will convince you—at your druggist, 25c, 50c, $1. At National Drug Co. and at Demaray's.

The Harvest Victim.

By the middle of each September England will be dotted over with stacks of corn, and almost all of them when thatched will be crowned with a wisp of straw tied on to a stick or a pitchfork and looking at a distance about as much like a bird as a scarecrow looks like a man. This almost universal and apparently meaningless custom is a relic of the pagan times before the Roman conquest, when the tillers of the soil killed a human victim to propitiate the spirit of the corn and buried him or part of him in the stack. Our wisps of straw represent the effigy which in later days was substituted for the victim. Traces of this superstition are found all over the world and in almost every century, survivors of the dim ages when man looked upon the gifts of nature as a boon to be bought with a price of blood.—Westminster Gazette.

LAUREL GROVE

Master Ralph Swinden was visiting Arthur Faria last Sunday.

Xmas will soon be here with all its good things, are you all ready?

Did you notice how many ancestors "Shorty" has?

Alonso Hyde was at the county seat last week with a load of produce.

Mr. Hyde has about a ton of the finest onions ever raised on Applegate soil.

Mr. Haberman, Esq., took a load of dressed, fat hogs to the local markets one day last week.

Oscar Williams and sister Ella and M. M. Bohard were at the county seat one day last week.

Earl Topping took a sick horse to town last week, belonging to Charles Roberts of that city.

The Laurel Grove Ditch Co. have their ditch all closed up and are ready for the heavy winter rains that we may expect.

H. E. Gething and son, Harry, the genial mining men, have been doing mining work on their property of late and are well pleased with the outlook. Mr. Gething is a good mining man and a rustler and hopes to make it win in the near future. They have a fine body of ore at present on the dumps and more in sight too.

One more week will close a successful term of school at Laurel Grove and then the holidays. We are informed there will be two months of school after the holidays.

George Vining was at the county seat last Saturday for a load of supplies for Mr. Bailey the genial merchant of Provoit.

Messrs. Jeff and David Lindsay were called to the funeral of their father who was buried at that place last Thursday. Our reporter has known Mr. Lindsay for 25 years and lived by him on the Applegate, where he resided for so many years. He was a pioneer of the early days.

We are told that the Michigan mine is to start operations soon, but there seems to be nothing definite concerning the statement.

I will say to you "Sherty" that I am not looking after you at all as my time is too valuable to fool away like that.

What kind of laws will we have yet? The law says we shall not shoot quail or duck now. If not, when shall we kill them—when they are mothering? The quail are in large berries now and the ducks in bands and the only proper time to shoot 'em is in the winter from now on.

Thos. Lewman of Provoit is always croaking about Provoit. One would think, who did not know that valley that it was the garden of Eden with no one but Tom in it, but I know that valley and it is no better than the Applegate valley around Laurel Grove as far as land and water or fruit is concerned. Sounds like Medford to hear him croak.

RED CLOUD.

A Square Deal

I assure you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate woman and child. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. Coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, hoarseness and sore throat, and all the ailments of the throat and chest, are cured by the medicinal principles used in them, viz—pure tripe-collin glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antiferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, long-continued coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

A Dangerous Deadlock

that sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back at all drug stores. 35c.—Westminster Gazette.
