

"Very well," said Richard. "I'll give you another trial. But understand me, Bills, there must be no more nonsense!"

was due to the carelessness of an inexperienced chauffeur, who gave his name as Peter Wilson, but whose address had not been ascertained up to a late hour last night. The police are making inquiries.

"No, sir." "No more brandy?" "No, sir." "And you will obey me implicitly in everything?"

The above paragraph chance to catch the eye of a certain Mr. Leger, who had taken the morning train for Chicago. He was an intimate friend of old Bill Williams and would have gone to look after the son himself except that urgent business necessitated the continuance of his journey west.

"Thank you," said the Texan simply and departed without giving any further directions. He enjoyed his ride with Miss Harriet hugely. For three long, blissful hours he centered with her on beautiful country roads, where the air was sweet and invigorating, where the scent of wild flowers came to them and the fragrance of the wild woods streets still in the deepening dusk.

On Friday evening of the present week an entertainment will be given in the beautiful country home of Mr. Jacob Renwick at Irvington-on-the-Hudson. Among other features a little one act play will be presented, entitled "The Man and the Bird," in which Miss Imogene Chittendon, one of the season's most charming debutantes, will take the part of the bird, while the charming and accomplished Miss Renwick will assume the leading role, wearing a costume ordered specially for the occasion and the famous Renwick diamonds.

CHAPTER XIII. ON Wednesday morning two items appeared in one of the New York newspapers, neither of which would strike a casual reader as being important; but so far as this narrative is concerned, they led to complications. The first was an obviously exaggerated report and read as follows: TEXAN FATALLY INJURED.

Hyomei's Aromatic Air is Guaranteed to Cure Catarrh or Cost Nothing. When using the Hyomei treatment the air you breathe is like that on the mountains high above sea level where the pine woods fill the air with aromatic healing that gives health and strength to those suffering from disease of the respiratory organs.

DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-busy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better. In fact, the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all these distressing symptoms, and insuring comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system. Powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, housekeepers, nurses, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve in the social column under the head of "Gossip." It reads as follows: On Friday evening of the present week an entertainment will be given in the beautiful country home of Mr. Jacob Renwick at Irvington-on-the-Hudson.
