Beware of Frequent Colds.
A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler Penn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by M. Clemens.
Grange to Hold Open Session.
To afford the public an opportunity to learn what are the purposes of the Grange and to increase the number of new members that are being received by Dimick Grange that Grange will hold an open session on Saturday afternoon, May 9. The exercises will begin at 2 o'clock and a highly interesting and instructive program for the occasion is being prepared under the direction of a special committee composed of Mrs. H. M. Parham, Mrs. M. Morrison, Mrs. H. B. Alverson, Mrs. T. J. Cook and Miss Lawton. The program will embrace short addresses by a number of persons and recitations and musical selections. At the close of the literary exercises a lunch will be served to all present by the ladies.
All who are interested in the raising of the standard of the farms and of the farmers are cordially invited to attend this meeting, which will be held in the Dimick school house 1 1/2 miles west of Grants Pass.
Good Cough Medicine for Children
The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. Sold by M. Clemens.

REV. AND MRS. BECKMAN GIVEN HEARTY RECEPTION

The following news item which appeared in the El Paso, Texas, Evening News of last Saturday will be of interest to the many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Beckman, who formerly resided in Grants Pass, and where Rev. Beckman was pastor of the M. E. Church: Rev. C. O. Beckman, the new pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city, and Mrs. Beckman were tendered a reception at the church on Myrtle avenue by the members and friends of the church last night. There was a large attendance and a pleasant time was had by all present.
Besides an address of welcome to the new pastor by Dr. O. C. Irvin and a pleasing response by the Rev. Mr. Beckman, the following musical program was rendered:
Piano solo, Miss Hallie Irvin.
Mezzo solo, Mrs. W. W. Fink.
Piano solo, Miss Della Keifer.
Baritone solo, Dr. E. H. Irvin.
Violin solo, Miss Clara Fink, accompanied by Miss Laura Maud Fink.
Soprano solo, Mrs. E. H. Irvin.
The church was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and palms. During the social hour following the program light refreshments were served by the ladies.
The Rev. Mr. Beckman has been working in his present charge only a few weeks, yet has already won a warm place in the hearts of his congregation and all El Paso people who have met him or heard him preach. In announcing last Sunday the reception to him which was held last night, a member of the church said that it was not customary to hold such an affair so soon after the coming of a new pastor, but that the Rev. Mr. Beckman had already made a favorable impression upon his church people and that they were anxious to show him their appreciation of his splendid start in the work with them.
Sunday was Easter and the weather was especially favorable for the display of Easter bonnets, and indeed there were quite a number in evidence at the morning services at the various churches—even the "Merry Widow" was conspicuous and if there's anything in a name this feminine lid should become immensely popular. And in this connection the Courier trusts that it may not be impertinent to note the fact that the population of Grants Pass includes a great number of unusually handsome and tastily dressed women. This fact is frequently commented on by the eastern stranger.

Colonist Rates.

As has been the custom for several years past the Railroads leading to the coast have agreed on a colonist rate, a little higher than in years past, but still a very attractive rate, and it ought to have the effect of bringing a large number of immigrants to Oregon this spring. The rate is effective from March 1st to April 30th and is substantially as follows: from Chicago $28; from Missouri river common points, Council Bluffs to Kansas City inclusive, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Denver, etc., $30; St. Louis, $35.50. Usual stopover privileges will be given on these tickets. 1-24 tf
