W. C. T. U. NOTES

The W. C. T. U. is holding busy sessions these days with interest at white heat. Let us, sisters, not forget the "hour of prayer," asking God continually to lead men everywhere to know the truth, and knowing it, to cast a vote for "God and Home and Native Land."

The Forest Grove S. S. convention, just passed into history as the greatest yet, has this among its resolutions: "Whereas the saloon interests are proposing to make ineffective our present local option law, by an amendment to our state constitution giving cities and towns the sole right to regulate and control saloons and kindred interests by a vote of the few regardless of the will and vote of the many, be it resolved that this convention of Christian workers vigorously oppose this proposition and urge every Christian voter to cast his ballot against it in the approaching state election."

Gov. Haaly of Indiana on the liquor traffic: "Personally I have seen so much of the evils of the traffic, so much of its economic waste, so much of its physical ruin, so much of its mental blight, so much of its tears and heartaches, that I have come to regard the business as one that must be controlled by strong and effective laws. I bear no malice toward those engaged in the business, but I hate the traffic. I hate every phase I hate it for its intolerance. I hate it for its arrogance. I hate it for its hypocrisy. I hate it for its cant and craft and false pretenses. I hate it for its commercialism. I hate it for its greed and avarice. I hate it for its sordid love of gain at any price. I hate it for its domination in politics. I hate it for its corrupting influence in civic affairs. I hate it for its incessant effort to debauch the suffrage of the country; for the cowardly makes of public men. I hate it for its utter disregard of law. I hate it for its ruthless trampling of the solemn compacts of state constitutions. I hate it for the load it straps to labor's back; for the palsied hand it gives to toil; for its wounds to genius; for the tragedies of its might-have-beens."

"I hate it for the alms houses it peoples; for the prisons it fills; for the insanity it begets; for its countless graves in potters' fields. I hate it for the mental pain it infuses upon its victims; for its spiritual blight; for its moral degradation."

"I hate it for the crimes it has committed. I hate it for the homes it has destroyed. I hate it for the hearts it has broken. I hate it for the malice it has planted in the hearts of men; for its poison, for its bitterness, for the dead sea fruit with which it starves their souls. I hate it for the grief it causes womanhood, the scalding tears, the hopes deferred, the strangled aspirations, its burden of want and care. I hate it for its heartless cruelty to the aged, the infirm and the helpless, for the shadow it throws upon the lives of children, for its monstrous injustice to blameless little ones."

"I hate it as virtue hates vice, as truth hates error, as righteousness hates sin, as justice hates wrong; as liberty hates tyranny, as freedom hates oppression. I hate it as Abraham Lincoln hated slavery, and as heroes saw in prophetic visions the end of slavery and the coming of the time when the sun should shine and the rain should fall upon no slave in all the republic, so I sometimes seem to see the end of this unholy traffic, the coming of the time when, if it does not wholly cease to be, it shall find no safe habitation anywhere beneath 'Old Glory's stainless stars.'"

The Christian Citizenship meeting held last Friday evening at the salvation Army hall was an instructive and enthusiastic gathering. The Loyol Temperance Legion Medal Contest was the principal feature, the boys acquitting themselves with honor. The medal was awarded to Dana Ament. Other numbers on the program were the tableaux "Help Me To Keep Them Pure," and "Vote For Us, Please," and a quartette of sweet voices sang appropriate songs. This was one of the best meetings yet held and more and better sessions will follow.

MERLIN TEMPERANCE NEWS.

The people of Merlin are not going to leave any temperance work undone if they know it. Men, women and children are enthusiastic. The men's committee and several women of the W. C. T. U. have distributed literature and talked to the voters. The L. T. L. and many other children have been drilling for a rally the night before election. They will be assisted by the young people and the W. C. T. U. All expect a splendid time.

Friday, May 22, the children met for L. T. L. with a large attendance and many visitors. Most of the time was spent in practice instead of regular lessons. The W. C. T. U. met that day also.

For some time past we have talked of a picnic but the weather has been so uncertain that we could not have it. On May 16, Mrs. Lanterman decided to invite the children to a surprise party to be held in an empty house near her home. She and some of the mothers arranged everything possible for the pleasure of the little guests. The children met at the Methodist church to practice at 1 o'clock, most of them unconscious of the pleasure in store for them. After an hour's practice they were told, then formed in line and went to Mrs. Lanterman's singing a marching song.

After playing games for a short time chicken sandwiches and pickles were passed. Then each child was given a plate and served with pie, cake, oranges, cookies and lemonade.

Just in the midst of their lunch Mrs. W. A. Massie, in her wisest chair accompanied by Mr. Massie and some friends, came in. The children were not too busy to cheer heartily as she entered. All were glad to have her with them again and so much improved in health. After lunch the children sang two songs for her, then went outside to play games and march to their songs. Someone sent for the photographer and had a picture of all, which was good. Those present besides the children were Mr. and Mrs. Lanterman, Mrs. Thompson, Rev. and Mrs. Jaquemin, Mrs. Latrope, Mrs. Booth, Misses Stites, Green, Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Massie, Mrs. Mroise and Mrs. Chas. Thompson. Several ladies who were not present assisted in arranging the lunch.

On Sunday, May 24, the passengers on the train saw an unusual crowd about our depot. The occasion was the presentation of a beautiful pin to Miss Stites by the members and friends of the L. T. L. The presentation was made by Miss Josie Thompson, the president. Miss Stites has been their leader most of the time for two years and left on that train for her home, where she expects to spend some time. Just as the train came the children sang "Oregon is Going Dry," which not only pleased Miss Stites, but many of the passengers. We feel very confident that our part of Oregon is going dry and hope we shall not be disappointed.

MURPHY.

(Crowded out last week.)
Hurrah for Bud Peroni! He is an Applegate product!

Fine rain the first of the week. Plenty of fruit left yet in this section. Had strawberries two weeks.

On account of the backward spring our first crop of hay will be rather short.

Who said, Murphy would have a central and all the New Hope ranchers have telephones? Sounds like civilization all right, don't it?

J. F. Burt sold his Tokay ranch Tuesday at an advance of about 150 per cent in one year's time.

You can now talk to O. H. Perry, Wm. Hannum and A. H. Carson from the Grants Pass central on the Murphy line.

Low Carson—"Mitch, what makes the RFD man the maddest when he rides a wheel?"

Mitchell—"Why these blamed ranchers trying to irrigate the roads instead of their meadows?"

The school dance at Haberman's Friday night netted the district about $80. The lunch served by the ladies of the community at midnight would have flattered the Waldorf Astoria, and those clears sent out by Candidates Fallin and DeArmond were certainly appreciate!

The N. S. A. R. Ditch Co., are just completing $2000 worth of enlarging. It looks like quite an expense but we'll get a little of it back every time we drive that old McCormick out from under the big oak tree. That has been its only protection all winter.

Mr. Reed and Mr. Gentner have both started in to improve another ranch since selling their home places. These men are both old war veterans past 60 but you would think by watching them sling the lumber on a new house that they were only in their 30's and building a cage for their first bird.

The county court was with us Tuesday surveying the proposed road through the Bathaway place, making an even grade to the granite summit from Murphy and shortening the trip to the Pass and back about a mile. This change has long been badly needed and although it will cost something it will be a great benefit to the people of Applegate and Williams Valley.

We people at Murphy have no doubt but there was considerable gold taken out of that new strike at Williams but it will take more than newspaper talk to get us to desert our orchards, vineyards and alfalfa patches.

Mr. Gilmore, our postmaster and local merchant, is used to big crowds on busy days but he is not used to any such a congregation as poured in on him and his surprised family last Tuesday evening, neither is he used to any such cakes, coffee and good wishes as were conspicuously handed out by some half hundred of his neighbors. The keys of the town were given to the merry makers, and the games and a general good time were in evidence until stopped by the kitchen clock's announcement of a new day. Come again friends, you are always welcome. If you have a good word for us, that is the way and now is the only time to say it. All the eulogies ever pronounced at the grave are outweighed by one hand-clasp of a friend in the flesh, and all the roses that ever weighted a coffin lid are but a breath compared with the fragrance of one tiny bud pinned on your breast by one who lives, laughs, and loves in sympathy with you. XYZ.

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Penn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by M. Clemens.

WOMEN'S WOES

Grants Pass Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps, cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. K. R. Smith of Grants Pass Ore., says: "For a long time I had been troubled from kidney complaint and rheumatism. Pains in my back, hips and limbs caused me much misery and I constantly lost a great deal of rest at night, arising in the morning, tired and unrefreshed. After trying several remedies without relief, I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at Clemens' drug store. At the time I had taken the contents of this box, my health was greatly improved. I continued their use and am glad to say, received complete relief from the trouble. For this I gladly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as a most efficient remedy for all diseases of the kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 5-15-24

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by Model Drug Store. 4-3-1918

ENGLAND SAYS NO ALUM IN FOOD and strictly prohibits the sale of alum baking powder—

So does France
So does Germany

The sale of alum foods has been made illegal in Washington and the District of Columbia, and alum baking powders are everywhere recognized as injurious.

To protect yourself against alum, when ordering baking powder,

Say plainly—
ROYAL BAKING POWDER

and be very sure you get Royal.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar. It adds to the digestibility and wholesomeness of the food.
