LOCAL EVENTS.

Remember Market Day at Grants Pass tomorrow, July 18th.

The Rogue River band gave a splendid concert in railroad park last Friday night.

A gentleman passed through the city Tuesday in an automobile en route from Oakland to Portland.

After a brief intermission for the repair of one of the motors, the new box factory started up Monday.

The new box factory was shut down last Saturday on account of difficulty with some of the electrical machinery.

The Rogue River band will give its regular weekly open air concert next Friday night at the city park across the river.

Over two tons of salmon are being shipped out of Grants Pass daily, most of them going to Oakland and San Francisco.

W. R. Rannie, with three helpers, is just completing the manufacture of 1200 feet of 6-inch hydraulic pipe to be used by the Electric Gold Dredging Company near Gold Hill.

Harry Harmeling who until recently has been associated with his brother, S. J. Harmeling in the nursery business has been appointed assistant superintendent of parks at Spokane, Wash., and has already entered upon his duties as such.

A. J. McKinney of the Palace hotel went to Medford last Monday to apprehend a former boarder who had, apparently, with malice aforethought left the city without liquidating a board bill of some $25. Needless to say A. J. got his man.

Tents, Tents, Tents, Flies, Wagon covers, at Cramer Bros.

R. F. Wendover, secretary of the Gilman Bed Rock Mining Co., reports that within the next few weeks a considerable number of the stockholders of the company who are now located at Sacramento, will come to Grants Pass to make their homes.

Mrs. Louise Kelley of Emporia, Kan., one of the national workers in the ladies organization of the Christian church spoke last Sunday morning and evening in the Christian church at this place. She rendered very able addresses.

W. H. Middleton and J. H. Tucker of Frisco came down from Portland Wednesday and went from here to the Bay City in their auto car. The gentlemen came here from San Francisco in their automobile a couple of weeks ago, but through fear of bad roads left the car at Olding's garage in this city, finishing the trip to Portland by the Southern Pacific.

Edward Clanton of this city has just been elected by the State Fisheries department for deputy fish warden of District No. 2, to succeed J. W. Wilson, resigned, whose resignation will take effect October 1st of the present year. Mr. Clanton has been identified with the state department for some nine years and is, therefore, admirably qualified for the position to which he aspires. He will within a few weeks make a trip over the district in company with Mr. Wilson, the outgoing deputy warden, in order to familiarize himself with the territory and its needs.

The deer season opened Wednesday, July 15th, and many hunting parties have already gone to the hills in quest of the long-pronged buck. Despite the fact that the past couple of years have been particularly favorable an increase of deer in the hills by reason of numerous water holes, thick underbrush in the mountains, rangers report fewer signs of deer in the lower slittles than in past years. Small game is reported unusually plentiful this season.

The social function of the past week was a very pleasant reception given last Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Conklin. There were nearly 300 in attendance and each, on arrival was served with punch in the dining room. A pavilion had been arranged on the lawn where ice cream and cake were served. The pavilion grounds and the dell on Gilbert creek were lighted with numerous incandescent bulbs. Vocal selections were rendered by Misses Nina Paddock and Marion Clarke, and Misses Leila Caldwell and Marjorie Kinney favored the assembly with piano renditions. The absence of stiff formality made the reception a most enjoyable event.

Messrs. Chas. M. Trout, Stanley Fry, J. E. Ish and G. F. Hensley of the Gilman Bed Rock Mining Co. who went down the river below Galice Creek the fore part of last week in a skiff to ascertain whether the barges and machinery could be safely floated down through Hell's Gate, returned the latter part of the week and reported the river in good shape and that the barges can make the trip in perfect safety. The machinery however, will probably be shipped to Merlin and hauled from there to a point just below Galice creek, where they will make the first setting of the machinery. The machine is expected from Sacramento next week.

Fred Mensch accompanied by R. H. Gilfillan, O. Phelps and Bert York, returned Saturday from Tiller, Douglas county, where they finished surveying a fractional township on which are a number of homesteaders who are anxious to secure titles. Mr. Mensch will leave the first of next week for Madras, Crook county, where he has about a month's work which will finish his government contracts, and he will then make Grants Pass his headquarters and attend to the duties of county surveyor, at which he has been elected.
