A newspaper publisher recently brought suit against 45 men who would not pay their subscription, obtaining judgment on each claim.
Twenty-eight of them made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allows, thus preventing attachment.
Then under the decision of the supreme court they were arrested for petit larceny and bound over in the sum of $300. All but six gave bail and they went to jail. The new postal law makes it larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.—The

W. C. T. U. NOTES

This is convention week for White Ribbons and we expect to plan largely for the year's work. An outline report for this year will be given next week. In the Young people's meeting Sunday night the thought of being much in prayer was emphasized; so we ought, in this branch of the Master's work, to pray without ceasing that the causes for which we labor may triumph beyond our fondest hopes.

The man who last week had "such queer feelings" might with all propriety look himself squarely in the face and ask himself a few searching questions. To begin with: "Are you, John Jones, fast becoming a drunkard? Are you true and honest to your own best self and your God?
Are you, who pride yourself on your patriotism, a law abiding citizen? If so, why do you continue taking the poison which is fast killing the man-head within you? Why do you help the liquor dealer evade the law you helped to make? In short, are you the man you wish the world to think you are? May God help you to answer honestly these questions and give you strength to become the man He intended you should be."

Colonel Higginson, when asked to name the incident of the Civil War that he considered the most remarkable for bravery, said that there was in his regiment a man whom everyone liked; a man who was brave and able; who was pure in his daily life, absolutely free from the dissipation in which most of the other men indulged. One night at a champagne supper when many were becoming intoxicated, somebody, in jest, called for a toast from this young man. Colonel Higginson said that he arose, pale, but with perfect self-possession and said: "Gentlemen, I will give you a toast which you may drink as you will and which I will drink, if you please in water. The toast that I have to give is 'Our mothers.'" Instantly a strange spell seemed to come over all those tipsy men. They drank the toast in silence. There was no more laughter, no more song, and one by one they slunk out of the room. The lamp of memory had begun to burn and the name of "mother" touched every man's heart.

Editor Courier—As there seems to be an effort on foot to inject the discussion of religious questions into the present presidential campaign, I wish to tell your readers just what I think about it.

In the first place, it is very unwise and un-American to prejudice the claims of any candidate for office on account of his religious belief. The fathers of this republic very wisely provided against religious legislation.
They knew, as every student of history knows today, that there had always been less liberty in a theocracy than in any other form of government. They could foresee the dangers to which the people would be exposed if too much authority should be given to the so-called clergy.

It is said that Mr. Taft should not be elected because he believes in Unitarianism. Now I believe that Mr.
Taft should not be elected, but not on account of his religion, but because Mr. Bryan represents a better platform of political principles. I shall do all that I can to secure the election of W. J. Bryan, but while I am doing this, shall keep up my record for political and religious fairness and take no undue advantage of my opponents. As individuals, Taft and Bryan are both clean men. Politically, Mr. Taft represents that class of men who are seeking to absorb the wealth of this country through class legislation, while Mr. Bryan represents that class of men who believe in equal rights to all and special privileges to none. I honestly think that Mr. Bryan is far in advance of Mr.
Taft as a statesman.

If Mr. Taft is a Unitarian, it only proves that his religion is in advance of his politics. It proves that he knows something about the Bible.
Jesus Christ, himself, was a Unitarian. He believed in the ultimate triumph of all good and the final destruction of all evil. This is Unitarianism in a nutshell. The Unitarian believes that we should be free to investigate any and all questions and that no iron-bound creed should be imposed as a test of church fellowship.
The superstitions of the past are passing away, and the time is coming when all men will do right for the sake of right.

FRUIT GROWERS ORGANIZE

do hereby make and subscribe the following written articles of incorporation as follows:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be the Rogue River Fruit Exchange.

ARTICLE II.

The objects for which this corporation is formed, are and shall be

First: To own, buy, sell, handle, deal in, grow, cultivate, improve, and raise all kinds of fruit, vegetables, garden and field products of every kind and description.

Second: To own, buy and acquire by gift, purchase or otherwise, real estate, water rights; to sell, mortgage and hypothecate, or to rent and lease the same for profit.

Third: To erect buildings thereon, warehouses and any and all other buildings desired by said corporation, either for use in carrying out the purposes of the corporation, or to sell, lease, let, rent or otherwise handle for profit.

Fourth: To plant and cultivate, either for their own profit and use, or for others, orchards and vineyards.

Fifth: To manufacture, buy, sell and deal in fruit boxes, crates, baskets and any and all articles used in the packing, shipping or handling of fruit, vegetables and other farm products.

Sixth: To buy, sell, handle and deal in spraying machinery, and material used in the spraying of fruit trees, vegetables and other farm products.

Seventh: To buy, sell and handle all kinds of farm, orchard and garden machinery, tools, materials, seeds, merchandise and appliances of every kind.

Eighth: To ship and transport on commission or for profit, all kinds of fruit, vegetables and farm products.

Ninth: To establish and arrange for and locate purchasing agencies, offices and distributing points anywhere that they may desire.

Tenth: To do any and all things necessary or incident to the carrying out of the business of said corporation, as herein expressed in all of its branches, and for its best interests, as may appear to its board of directors, either now, or in the future, in the same manner, and to the same extent as any person, firm, association or corporation is authorized by law to do.

ARTICLE III.

The amount of capital stock of this corporation shall be five thousand ($5000) dollars, divided into five hundred (500) shares, of the par value of ten ($10) dollars each. The capital stock may be increased or diminished by two-thirds vote of stock present.

ARTICLE IV.

The number of the directors of this corporation shall be five (5), but at any regular meeting of the stockholders of the corporation the number of directors may, by the by-laws of the corporation be increased or diminished to any number, not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Oregon, and the names of the directors who shall manage the concerns of the corporation until the day of _____ 190—
and until their successors are elected and qualified are:

ARTICLE V.

The time of the existence of this corporation shall be fifty (50) years.

ARTICLE VI.

The principal place of business of this corporation shall be at Grants Pass, Josephine county, Oregon, but said corporation may keep and maintain offices in any other place which it may desire to transact business.

In witness whereof, we, the undersigned incorporators, do make, subscribe and acknowledge these written articles of incorporation this day of _____ 1908.

BY-LAWS OF THE ROGUE RIVER FRUIT EXCHANGE.

ARTICLE I.

The name, place of business, capital stock and purposes of this corporation, are set forth in the articles of incorporation, which are referred to as a part of these by-laws.

ARTICLE II.

The directors of this corporation shall be five in number, who shall be elected annually, and shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified. They shall qualify as directors within five days after the election, and within 10 days thereafter they shall elect from their number a president, vice-president and secretary. They shall also choose a treasurer, who shall be required to give bonds with surety, in such sums as they may deem ample. They may choose a bank as treasurer without bonds.

The directors shall have power to levy and collect assessments on the capital stock, the same to become delinquent in thirty days from date of notice in local paper and by mail, of such assessment. The directors may sell such delinquent stock at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, first giving thirty days' notice of such sale in a local newspaper, such sale to be made at the door of the office of the corporation in Grants Pass, Oregon.

ARTICLE IV.

No sale of stock of this corporation shall be legal unless transfer is made on the books of the corporation, and no stockholder shall sell any of this stock without first offering it for sale to the corporation.

Twenty-five shares (25) of the stock of this corporation shall be the limit of the holding of any one person or company.

One ($100) dollar per share shall be the first payment on the stock and no future call shall be made within 60 days except upon a majority vote of the stockholders at a regular or called meeting.

The board of directors shall have entire control of the handling of the products handled by this corporation and shall employ such agents and other employees as are necessary to do the business of the corporation, and shall fix their remuneration. No director shall be elected as manager of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII.

No stockholders of this corporation shall sell or offer for sale any of his products, outside of this corporation, except with the consent of the board of directors.

ARTICLE VIII.

The directors may refuse to receive for shipment any fruit not considered prime for any cause. They may also refuse to receive fruit for shipment from any person who has not shipped with the exchange regularly heretofore during the shipping season for such fruit, when in their judgment the receiving and shipping of the same would be detrimental to the interests of the regular shippers of the exchange.

ARTICLE IX.

The duties of the secretary shall be to keep all books and accounts and records of the corporation, and to keep the minutes of the proceedings of the directors' and stockholders' meetings, and to carry on all correspondence, and to perform such other duties as may be required by the board of directors, and his books shall be open to inspection by any members of the corporation at any time.

ARTICLE X.

The duties of the president and vice-president shall be the same as are usually required of such officers.

ARTICLE XI.

It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive and pay out all funds of the corporation on vouchers signed by the president and secretary and to keep a correct account of the same.

ARTICLE XII.

The annual meeting for the election of officers and the transaction of other business of the corporation shall be held on the second Saturday in February, each year, in the town of Grants Pass, Oregon, at 10 o'clock a. m.

ARTICLE XIII.

The president shall instruct the secretary to call a meeting of the stockholders whenever in his judgment the necessities of the corporation require it, by giving 10 days' notice through the local newspaper and by written notices through the mail.

ARTICLE XIV.

A majority of the stock subscribed, upon which all legal calls or assessments are paid in full, shall constitute a quorum at any stockholders' meeting, and no vote shall be counted which is not represented by one share of stock upon which all calls or assessments have been paid.

ARTICLE XV.

These by-laws may be amended by vote of two-thirds of the stock upon which all calls or assessments have been paid in full, at any regular or called meeting provided that notice to amend by-laws shall have been given in the call for the meeting.

ARTICLE XVI.

The board of directors shall have the power to fill any vacancies that may occur in their number.
