THE CAUSE OF THIS MIGHTY SLAUGHTER: I am forced to sacrifice my entire stock in order to be free to leave Grants Pass for Portland within the next two weeks. The business opportunity of a life-time has been offered me in that city, therefore I positively must close out my stock immediately. The store is for rent and the fixtures are for sale.

PRICE NO OBJECT—EVERYTHING MUST GO!

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC:

When I commenced business in Grants Pass, about three years ago, it was my ambition to give the people the very best merchandise money could buy. Take into consideration the fact that my stock is nearly all new, clean, staple goods that you need every day of your lives, and it will convey to you some idea of what this gigantic sale means, coming at a time when you are as careful of the pennies as you have been of the dollars. My loss will be your gain.

Herald the good news—it's wonderful. This is a premier effort in value-giving without a counterpart or parallel, characterized by thousands of surprises—A supreme master movement in under-priced merchandise, dwarfing all similar events, eclipsing all other sales. An original, direct appeal to the economical instincts of thinking people, to whom the saving of a dollar is equivalent to a dollar earned. The only question is can you—dare you! in justice to yourselves and families, overlook the greatest money-saving opportunity of your life.

At this great Going-Out-of-Business Sale at the Fred Gumpert stand in Grants Pass, which positively commences Wednesday, October 7, there will be a crowd, but you will be jostled by a pleased, good natured people.

Bring the children—It will be a gala time for all.
