SPEECH OF HONORABLE GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS

The people of Grants Pass were well entertained at the Opera house last Monday afternoon by Hon. George Fred Williams of Massachusetts. Mr. Williams is recognized as being one of the most learned men of the legal fraternity in the United States. In addition to his scholarly attainments, he is a polished gentleman and a natural born orator.

The speaker went directly into the discussion of the questions at issue, and it was soon apparent that he had his task well in hand. He began by paying a tribute to the people of Oregon for the example that they had set in bringing about the initiative and referendum and other civic reforms. The undignified conduct of Mr. Roosevelt in the present campaign was presented in its true and unenviable light. He showed plainly that the power of the administration had been used to secure the nomination of a presidential candidate whom he himself had selected. He also pointed out the dictatorial course that had been pursued in matters that belonged exclusively to the states, and warned the people of what might be expected of Mr. Taft should he be elected under the authority and dictation of the present incumbent.

Mr. Williams went pretty thoroughly into the injunction question. He showed that Mr. Taft had done more to destroy the right of trial by jury than any other man who has occupied a judicial position since the foundation of our government. He showed too, that this usurpation of power had been and was still being directed against organized labor and in the interest of organized capital. He made it clear that plans were now on foot to select additional members of the supreme court from among corporation attorneys.

The bank deposit guarantee as proposed by Mr. Bryan and the democratic platform was fully explained and shown to be on a parallel with other forms of insurance now in vogue. He argued that the man who deposited money had just as much right to be protected as the man who loaned money.

Discussing the personality of the two leading candidates, the speaker called attention to the fact that the more the people learned of Mr. Bryan the better they loved him. He said that the leading colleges of the world were now using the speeches of Mr. Bryan as models of purity and American statesmanship. He intimated that future mothers would point to Mr. Bryan as a fit example for their sons, while no one would care to have their children remember the man who is known to be the father of injunctions.

Mr. Williams was very optimistic in his views of the coming election. He expressed a desire that Oregon should cast her electoral vote for Mr. Bryan but thought that it would not necessarily be needed, as hundreds of thousands of republicans throughout the eastern and middle states were beginning to see the fallacy of republican pretensions and were now going to cast their votes for Mr. Bryan, the man who for 12 years has stood firmly for the God given rights of all men. He expressed his belief in what we all believe that a large majority of the people want to do right, and that what was now needed was a thorough campaign of political education.

The speech from beginning to ending was full of truth and high-class patriotism. It furnished just such food as is always relished by men and women of cultured minds. In short, it was American democracy, pure and undefiled. It was the kind of democracy that is always the result of right thinking and right training. It was the kind that has characterized the great and good men of all ages. It was universal justice to all mankind. And if the American people fail to appreciate and to appropriate such teaching, it will be evidence that our republican fathers labored and suffered in vain.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

The W. C. T. U. met as announced, in M. W. A. hall last Friday. The business session closed at 4 o'clock and the Loyal Temperance Legion Harvest Home and Crusader Monthly Day program was given, every number being exceptionally good. Mrs. Weidman spoke in the interests of the Crusader Monthly, the Loyal Temperance Legion official organ; and Mrs. Schader in memory of Frances Willard's birthday, read a selection from Miss Willard's writings. A piano solo, by Miss Elizabeth Allen; and a song by Anna Calvert and Doris Caldwell made up the musical numbers, while Ross Dickey, James McFarland and Elmer Howard creditably represented the L. T. L. in the elocutionary numbers. A social hour followed and grapes and peaches were served. This first Red Letter Day of this new year's work was voted a success. The next meeting will be October 16th in M. W. A. hall. A full attendance is requested and all are urged to be there promptly at 2:30 o'clock so that the session may be closed at 4 to give place to the L. T. L. which meets at that hour. Mrs. Weidman has charge and a good meeting is insured. Let all the L. T. L.'s rally to her support and be at the M. W. A. hall on Front Street at 4 o'clock, October 16th.

Mrs. Helen D. Harvard, National Superintendent of Christian citizenship is asking that the last Sunday in October be presented and known as Christian citizenship Day. Let our local superintendent of Christian citizenship plan now with our pastors for the observance this day. Let the moulding of Christian public sentiment be such that all may know and practice the righteousness that exalteth a nation. Let an educative campaign be prosecuted from now till our city election that righteous men may be elected.

HEARD ON THE STREET.
Said Mr. C.—"That prohibition law is pretty strict, ain't it? Why I could be dealt with just as quick for giving it away as for selling it. Half the men in this town could be arrested."

His companion was evidently out of sorts that such a law existed and answered: "I think we'd better move out and let the church notice that 'church' with him means 'temperance' people run things." Hitherto, in the minds of the liquor element, temperance men had no law, but they are learning that such laws are and have been and that the liquor men are open law breakers.

Possibly if "church people" did "run things" our city would be a better place in which to bring up our boys and girls; that husbands and fathers would not be subject to so many temptations and that the management of city affairs would be conducted in the fear of the Lord.

Hundreds of People in Vicinity Will Welcome This Advice Says Local Druggist.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney trouble or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid extract of dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

GOTHAM BROKERS HELD MEETING AT MIDNIGHT

It is rumored that the fruit brokers of New York City got together recently, had a midnight meeting down in the subway and decided they were not going to pay fancy prices for Oregon and Washington apples. There was at least on commission man who did not attend this meeting, however, and he sneaked off to Hood River and bought 80,000 boxes. A grapevine telegram says that 150,000 more have been sold and eastern commission men have been plentiful in the Rogue River, Grande Ronde, Wenatchee, Yakima and other fruit producing sections.
