W. C. T. U.
October 30th at M. W. A. hall, the W. C. T. U. meets in regular session for the transacting of any business.
An interesting program with refreshments is planned and it is hoped that all White Ribboners will plan to be present. The Union convenes promptly at 2:30 that its session may close at 4 to give place to the L. T. L. which meets at that hour in the same place.

Let the mothers plan to be present with their children and help to make the children of today Christian Citizenship for tomorrow.

The last meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held last Friday in M. W. A. hall.

Several important subjects were discussed and plans outlined for the next meeting, October 30th.

A short season of prayer was had for the work at the National convention which convenes this week, October 21st, in Denver, Colo.

The L. T. L. met at 4 o'clock with 19 little ones in attendance. After the opening exercises the children had a physical culture drill and that was followed by a march which they enjoyed to the full. This first meeting for this year may be an earnest for the year and we certainly are hoping great things for the Loyal Temperance Legion for we verily believe "a little child shall lead them."

DRUGGISTS ON PROHIBITION.

In a paper read before the section education on legislation of the American Pharmaceutical Association at the meeting in Hot Springs, Ark., a prominent druggist urges all members of his profession to observe both letter and spirit of all prohibition laws.
The present temperance advance, he says is not a temporary "wave" but a world movement and bound to succeed, because it is based upon the fact that the liquor traffic is responsible for a large proportion of the disease, poverty and crime. With prohibition there comes to the druggist a temptation to abuse his privilege to sell liquor and the profession is still more dishonored in the public mind by those sellers of liquor who use a so-called drugstore as a "blind".
Therefore, for the honor and the safety of the profession, this writer calls upon all druggists and organizations of druggists not only to obey the law to the letter, but to ally themselves with the authorities and insist upon law enforcement and if it be found, as he thinks possible, that liquor selling must be taken out of the hands of druggists altogether, then pharmacists should themselves "take the initiative, stand sponsor for such a law and get public credit for defending their professional integrity." Such utterances from a man who declares himself not personally a prohibitionist or even a total abstainer, certainly points to a change in the business man's attitude toward prohibition.—Union Signal.

Seventy saloonkeepers in Dubuque, Ia., have abandoned the traffic fearing the effects of the recent decision of Judge Smith McPherson of the United States supreme court in which he declared the sale of liquor illegal. May God hasten the day when twenty times seventy saloonkeepers will abandon the traffic, fearing the effect of other righteous decisions yet to be made.

Hyomei Cured Bronchial Catarrh After He Had Given Up.

"For many years I have been a sufferer from bronchial catarrh, and had despaired of anything like a cure. Judge of my pleasant surprise when I first used Hyomei, which brought complete relief. Hyomei has been a veritable Godsend."—Rev.
Charles Hartley, Sardinia, O. There are many readers of the Courier who are suffering from catarrh, either nasal or bronchial. Many of these despair of ever being cured. They have soaked their stomachs with nostrums until they are disgusted with all medicines, and are now traveling their miserable way, allowing the devilish germs of catarrh to sap them of their health, energy and vitality.

But let us reason together. Dem-aray, the druggist, has a guaranteed remedy for catarrh, colds, coughs, bronchitis, croup and all inflammatory diseases of the nose, throat and bronchial tubes. The name of this remarkable remedy is Hyomei, and if it doesn't cure Demaray will give you your money back. Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mei) is medicated air; you just breathe it through the inhaler over the inflamed and germi-ferous membrane, and its soothing antiseptic properties will allay the inflammation, destroy the germs, and restore the entire respiratory tract to its normal condition. A complete Hyomei outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs but $1 and an extra bottle of Hyomei, if afterward needed, costs but 50 cent. See Dem-aray about it today. 10-16 and 30

NEW DESIGNS FOR STAMPS ADOPTED

The Idea Was to Have Them Simple and Artistic in New Issue.

The bureau of engraving and printing at Washington, D. C. has completed designs suggested by Postmaster General Meyer for a new issue of postage stamps. The stamps will be of the following denominations: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 10, 15, and 25 cents and $1. The $2 and $5 denominations now in use will not be reprinted. It will be some weeks before all the denominations will be put on the market. However, the 2-cent stamps will be first distributed and it is said that shipments to postmasters will commence some time in November.
The new issue has been designed with the object of obtaining the greatest simplicity commensurate with artistic results. The profile has been taken in each instance instead of a full view, giving a bas relief effect. All the stamps are of a similar design, containing a head in an ellipse, the only decoration being laurel leaves on each side of the ellipse, the lettering is in straight lines, at the top being "U. S. Postage," and at the bottom being the words, "Two cents".
The "1 cent" stamp contains the head of Franklin, while all others will bear that of Washington taken from busts by Houdon.

Thus one of the most notable differences in the new issue will be the minimum of lettering. The colors are reds and blues of the early stamps.
Director Ralph of the bureau of engraving and printing, regards the new stamps as the most artistic ever issued by the government.

"A Parent" Answers.

To the Courier: Prof. Turner, in his answer to my few questions concerning the High School, jumps at conclusions, gets mad, indulges in an ugly fling at an innocent party, becomes personal and entirely avoids the issue except to admit the evils I suspected. That the lesson assignments are so difficult as to compel many students to take as low as three studies is sufficient in itself to justify an inquiry, for what can we expect from a three study student? That the scholars who are trying to make a credible showing are overworked can be ascertained by the Professor merely by inquiring of the parents.
I have heard many speak of it. We have a state law against working children overtime and it should apply also to our scholars as overstudy is more exhausting than overwork.
Now, Professor, don't you think this is a public question and better discussed in the public prints than in the privacy of your office? It is the duty of every parent to look after the welfare of his children—above all to see that they are given a fair chance in the public schools and not allow them to be overworked. Would it not be better, Professor, to cut down the lesson assignments sufficiently to allow all students to take at least four studies and have a respectable number of six students? Surely they are the kind of which you could be proud and such students would be better prepared to take up the duties of the larger life.

I have nothing but the kindest feeling toward you, personally, Professor and my daughter speaks of you in the highest praise, but your system is wrong and I believe we would all be better satisfied with the suggested changes. Would you not point with pride to a fair-sized graduating class of six-study students and wouldn't every family be proud to be represented in such a class?
Think it over, Professor and see if you do not agree with me.
