Mrs. D. O. Hayes went to Grants Pass to enter the hospital for treatment. She is much improved at this writing.

O. H. Perry finished picking apples Friday. Mr. Perry purchased what is known as the Judson orchard about one year ago. This orchard is situated about half a mile west of Redland Vineyard and comprises about four acres and has been turned out on the commons for several years, at least one-third of the trees were utterly destroyed by the stock and most of the rest broken as high as the cattle and deer could reach. Such was the condition of this orchard one year ago. The crop of apples this fall will be about 500 boxes. Buster Brown. Get CHINAMEL at Hair-Riddle's to use on your floor and furniture.

Selma

Emmet Conger of Grants Pass spent a couple of days in Selma. Ask Hair-Riddle Hardware Co. to show you that Steel Range they are selling for $35.00.

Election passed with the least excitement in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. Was it due to general apathy or to the Corrupt Practice Law? Or possibly, it was due to "a dead sure thing".

Henry Pfefferle of Waldo was in Selma with a load of supplies a few days ago.

Albert Shoemaker of Deer Creek was in town Saturday with a band of goats which he was dipping in R. C. Churchill's tank. Mr. Churchill had just finished the same process with his herd.

Services were held in the church morning and evening by Rev. G. M. Thorpe.

Much speculation is heard over the report that the electric road is to be commenced soon. The credulous and the skeptics are about equal numerically. It is to be hoped that the former have the winning argument.

THE COURIER'S CONTEST IS GETTING INTERESTING

The Courier's Golden Eagle contest is creating no end of excitement and the contestants are getting down to work in earnest. During the past week one boy has come to the front and has entered the race. We are sure that he will run the girls a good race for that 80 which we are to give away on the 23d of December, just before Christmas. The voting so far has been rather slow for the "Yellow Certificates" have not been turned in, nor have many of the regular coupons but they are out among the contestants and in the hands of those who have paid in various amounts on subscription. They will be coming in rapidly soon.

Last week we announced a special prize of $5 to the contestant who would bring in the greatest number of new subscriptions before Saturday night. There is yet one full day in which to work. The money will be turned over to the winner Monday but the announcement of the winner's name cannot be made until next Friday's issue.

Now is the time for every one of the contestants to get in and work. OREGON DOES NOT OWE A SINGLE DOLLAR

More Than Half Million Cash Balance in the Treasury at Present Time.

Oregon has no state debt, bonded or otherwise. This is one of the first acts stated in the biennial report of State Treasurer Steel, issued last week. There is in the treasury a cash balance of $558,330.15, of which $214,897.98 is in the general fund—an amount sufficient to pay state expenses until next March, when the taxes for 1909 will be paid.

The report shows that two years ago the balance in the general fund, applicable to payment of current expenses of the state government and maintenance of state institutions, was $212,512.03; there was received during the two years $2,592,863.40 and disbursed $2,590,507.45, leaving the present cash balance in that fund, $214,897.98.

State Treasurer Steel makes a number of recommendations to the legislature, among them these: That the inheritance tax be made applicable to the excess of $2000 on all collateral inheritances and on bequests and devices exceeding $500 to persons not related to the donor; that the depository law be made applicable to the school funds; that counties be required to pay the maintenance charge for care of insane, in the first instance the counties collecting from the persons ordered to pay the charge; that such special funds as the pure food fund, the veterinary fund, the board of examiners' fund, etc., be turned into the general fund and all the claims now paid out of these funds be paid out of the general fund; that provision be made for inspection of weights and measures so that the law regarding the same may be enforced.
