That the recent panic did not effect this favored part of the country is evidenced by the many improvements constantly being made. Mr. Gentner has erected a full set of farm buildings on his farm east of Murphy. H. L. Reed is building a new house, barn, etc. on his new place about one mile west of the Applegate bridge on the South side. Mr. Winetrout, Mr. Leith and the Hayes Bros. all have fine new residences completed, also D. O. Hayes is building an addition to his house and last but not least we must not forget Lewis Mitchell's new barn.

FRUITDALE

A very disastrous fire occurred last Monday night when the large new house owned and occupied by Joseph Goldbach and Mr. Quinlan and their families was completely destroyed. They were awakened about 1 o'clock in the morning by the smoke. The children were carried out in their night clothes. The fire had made such headway that there was no time to save anything. All their furniture and belongings were burned including two $1000 pianos. A tool house was also burned together with a lot of new machinery which it contained. The Goldbachs and Quinlans came from St. Louis, Mo., only a few months ago and purchased the Gentner farm. They are very nice people and have the sympathy of the entire community.

It is talked into buying something "just as good" as Rex Flintkote Roofing. Rex Flintkote is the composition roof made. Sold by Hair-Riddle Hardware Co.

There will be preaching here next Sunday at 3:30 p. m. by Rev. A. H. McLean, of the Newman M. E. church. A. S. Reitz will sing a solo at this service. Don't fail to be present. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. as usual.

If you want some cheap powder to blow out those stumps ask Hair-Riddle Hdwe. Co. about what they have.

Someone said last Saturday is Grange meeting was the best they had ever attended. But then they are all up to the mark.

A Drama of Wonderful Intent.

Most strikingly effective of all the religious dramas ever presented is "The Holy City," Clarence Bennett's powerful and interesting play pictures with vivid strength and masterly power the scenes and incidents leading up to the betrayal of the Master by Judas.

The dance of Salome, the daughter of Herodias, before King Herod, is shown as is her successful plea for the head of the great preacher. After John's death events move with great rapidity and the plotting and scheming of the high priest and the Pharisees with Herod are depicted as well as the giving of the 30 pieces of silver to Judas who promises to betray Jesus into the hands of his enemies.

The presence of Jesus is, of course, only suggested, but so cleverly is this done that the spectator seems carried back 2000 years and fancies himself an actual witness of the great scenes which accompanied the enactment of the greatest tragedy in the history of the world.

Other scenes depict the convulsion of nature at the moment of the crucifixion, the suicide of the remorseful Judas and the bringing of the glad tidings of the resurrection. The entire play is a drama of simple majesty and wonderful interest and is presented by a company of sterling players.

The Holy "City" will be presented at the Grants Pass opera House on Thanksgiving night, Nov. 20th.

The Commercial Club has adopted a new slogan—200—10,000—Inquire of Secretary Andrews as to the meaning or anyone wearing the badge.

Cedar fence posts 10 cents each while the present stock lasts, at Hair-Riddle Hardware Co's.

RUTH SMITH WINS LAST WEEK'S PRIZE

The Courier's Golden Eagle Contest developed some hustlers last week, and several thousand coupons were turned loose. The extra prize of $5 put new life into the contest and brought in between twenty and thirty new subscribers to the Courier. Miss Ruth Smith carried away the $5 for having brought in the greatest number of new ones, she had 10 to her credit.

For the next week we will give another $5 for new subscriptions, but this time it will be $3 to the one who brings in the greatest number of new yearly subscribers by Friday morning at 9 o'clock, and $2 to the one who brings in the next highest list. All the new names appearing on this week's report will be counted and all up to next Friday morning.

All "Yellow Certificates" now out must be voted not later than December 1, but "Yellow Certificates" which will hereafter be given out need not be voted until the last day of the contest, although they can be voted at any time. Some may prefer to keep them until the close of the contest and vote them in a bunch.

We told you that we had great faith in the boys and we were not mistaken, for the only boy in the contest has been working. Donald Calvert, although he started late in the race has made a good showing and has several "Yellows" to his credit. Mable Darnell, who started out in the beginning of the contest, although not in the lead at this count has several coupons which she has not yet cast. Edna Cornell is now getting well into the race and will have a big "Yellow Certificate" before the contest closes. Ella Turner is looking after the votes in the Kerby country, and has sent in several new subscribers. There are a great many more to be had in that section. Ruth Smith, who now heads the list, did some splendid work last week, and she will continue to bring in the new names.

So far the contestants have devoted only a portion of their spare time to the work and yet they have had splendid success. A little more time will mean better results, and "Everlastingly at it" would mean the $50. There are only about four or one half weeks more in which to work, and you cannot afford to slack up now, for every week means money to the winner, and how can you earn money easier? You all have friends, lots of them, and they want to see you win the big prize. They also want the Courier and are willing to pay for it. The price is $1.50 to all. Your neighbor is not getting it for a cent less. If he wants the Weekly Oregonian with it the price will be $2 for both papers one year.

The standing of the candidates as counted Friday noon is as follows:

Ruth Smith	8415
Maud Reynolds, R.F.D. 1	7955
Mabel Darnell	5755
Donald Calvert	5070
Pearl Kearns	1350
Edna Cornell	1400
Reta Mowers	1040
Ada Brockman, Merlin	475
Ella Turner, Kerby	705
Tracy Stith, Kerby	315
Marguerite South	205

Mrs. R. O. McCroskey arrived from Portland Monday to visit her daughter, Miss Lucile, and her many friends in Grants Pass.
