W. C. T. U.

Crusade day will be observed by the W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon, December 23, in the W.O.W. hall, on Sixth street. A program of interest will be rendered and all are invited.

The L.T.L. will meet at the same place, W. O. W. Hall, at 4 o'clock, Wednesday, December 23. This change has been made because of Friday being Christmas day.

The children of the L.T.L. are requested to bring their offerings for the poor at this time and thus learn the truth, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Our superintendent has planned to make of our L. T. L. band a ray of sunshine to some less fortunate than they. Let everyone help to make some Christmas joy for those who otherwise might miss entirely the gladness of the Yule-tide.

The "Mercy and Rescue" meeting held last Friday was one of the best we have yet held, and those of our band who were not present missed a means of uplift which came to those present.

Entertaining reports from Superintendent and vices came in from all the churches, showing that Christian people are alive to the importance of active temperance work.

On motion a committee was appointed to present through our state organization, a petition to our bers to patronize only the publications containing no liquor advertisements.

Mrs. Graham spoke for a short time on "The Christian's Attitude Toward Sinners," and brought out forcibly the beauty of the Christian life in rescue work. Too often is the sinner repulsed by the Christian's attitude toward him. Let us, dear sisters, put on Christ that we may be able to bring sinners to a knowledge of Him who would that all men might be saved.

A son whose father is obtaining liquor at one of the dens in our city was heard to say, "I hope that Mr. Kinney will shut up these saloons so tight that even the Devil can't get in, let alone a man."

In view of the tragedy just enacted is it any wonder our boys are hoping that a new order of government may be instituted; who knows who may be the next victim to their utter defiance of law?

Not alone was their bar tender guilty of violation of law, but every one who has aided or abetted such desecration of law and order. Neither is the man who fired the fatal shot alone guilty of murder. God alone knows how many are implicated in this last terrible event brought about directly by the liquor traffic.

Another incident of the diabolical deeds of men under the influence of liquor rule is known to the writer. A young man from the country came to town on business and something, calling himself a man, meeting him, insisted on his going into this dive where so many dark deeds are done, and being treated. The young man hesitated, knowing the reputation of the place, but finally, through ridicule, was induced to enter and consented to accept a glass of soda. The Devil who got him to the bar had no trouble in enlisting the services of the agent behind the bar and his soda was drugged and he was made drunk.

Surely an aroused people with God to lead, will triumph over their enemy who is killing our best manhood and clouding with sorrow the womanhood of our land.

A Common Cold.

We claim that if catching cold could be avoided some of the most dangerous and fatal diseases would never be heard of. A cold often forms a culture bed for germs of infectious diseases. Consumption, pneumonia, diphtheria and scarlet fever, four of the most dangerous and fatal diseases, are of this class. The culture bed formed by the cold favors the development of the germs of these diseases, that would not otherwise find lodgment. There is little danger, however, of any of these diseases being contracted when a good expectorant cough medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It cleans out these culture beds that favor the development of the germs of these diseases. That is why this remedy has proved so universally successful in preventing pneumonia. It not only cures your cold but it minimizes the risk of contracting the dangerous diseases. For sale by M. Clemens.

The time honored controversy touching the culinary skill of a fellow's mother and his new wife is largely, though not always, traceable to the fact that in the latter case a trifle of the edge has been worn off the small boy's appetite.

Them's My Sentiments, Too.

Lewis M. Mitchell, the obliging carrier on R.F.D. No. 1, which serves the people of Murphy, was reading the magazine published at Washington, D. C., called the R. F. D. News and found a piece of poetry which suited him so well that he was heard to remark, "Them's my sentiments, too." The verses follow, and the patrons of rural routes will undoubtedly find, should they inquire, that they voice the sentiments of all the carriers:

I'm Uncle Sam's most favored pet, I'm hearty and I'm hale; I've nothing in this world to do But glide 'round with the mail; But one thing almost breaks my heart,

And my nervous system shocks; It's the everlasting pennies That I'm fishing from the box.

I carry stamps and envelopes, And postal cards and such; And I would like to sell a few— "Would please me very much: But a man can't sell unless you buy, No matter how he talks; So I have to keep on diving After the pennies in the box.

It's alright in the springtime, Or when summer breezes blow; But a different proposition her it's thirty-two below; When all your fingers and your toes Are frozen hard as rocks, It's most anything but funny

Scratching pennies from the box. And now, quite confidentially, I'll tell you something more; A rural carrier (way out west) Forgot himself and swore; Says he: "I can stand the snow drifts

I can stand the frozen locks, But blast the measly pennies In the blasted measly box." When the "roll is called up yonder," And we all shall gather there, They wouldn't let a mail man in If they knew he'd learned to swear;

If you want St. Peter to open the gate When your rural carrier knocks, Buy stamps and don't be guilty Of putting pennies in the box. —R. F. D. News.

"Tour of the Tourist"

REMARKABLE event in the history of automobilism was the tour of more than thirty Tourist cars from Los Angeles to San Francisco and return, August 12th to 22d, 1908, carrying 94 men, women and children.

This tour differs radically from any previous automobile run in that practically every car was operated by its owner instead of a professional driver, thus demonstrating simplicity and ease of operation, and proving forcibly that the Tourist is an owner's car—so simple in operation and mechanism as to enable the novice to negotiate the severest test to which an automobile could be put.

This more-than-a-thousand-mile-run was successfully accomplished without mishap or accident, and will live long in the annals of automobilism as a glowing testimonial to mechanical genius and constructional ability.
