W. C. T. U. The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held as usual, in the W. O. W. hall on Sixth street January 22, at 2:30. Let all mothers be present as the Mothers day program will be given, also the subject of Legislature will be discussed. Mrs. Chiles and Mrs. Curtis will have charge of Legislature, while Mrs. Perry will lead the exercises commemorating the birthday of Madam Willard.

The L. T. L. meets at 4 o'clock, January 22, immediately after the Union adjourns. "Let us make this year the banner year for Loyal Temperance Legion in Oregon and that will be a mighty factor in making Oregon dry in 1910."

The monthly and business social of the "Y" will be held this Friday evening in the parlors of the Newman M. E. church. Young people welcome. We would make a special plea for the "Y." May the young people realize the importance of the "Y" work and identify themselves with this noble band where aim is to brighten the homes darkened by strong drink. Dear young people, you are needed to oppose strong drink in every form—your minds and youth are needed in this conflict against the saloon and its kindred evils.

Help the home life by being "Y's". The new State Year Book and minutes of the Silver Anniversary Convention are at hand. Let every woman interested, avail herself of a copy. Ten cents is not too much for this splendid report of our state W. C. T. U. work and we hope to place a copy in every home represented in our local union.

Special motto for 1909: "Prohibition for Oregon in 1910." Our slogan: "25 new members in 1909."

The supreme court of Arkansas has decided that it is illegal to solicit liquor orders by mail in prohibition territory in that state. The statute, upon which the decision is based strictly prohibits soliciting liquor orders in dry territory in any manner by circulars, posters, newspaper advertisements or agents. "Wouldn't there be a lot of men dealt with here in Oregon?"

From Tennessee, "Prohibitionists elected speakers both houses. Victory sure to follow." Wabash and Lawrence counties, Ind., voted dry December 29. Ohio going dry—new victories daily.
