

W. C. T. U. Let us labor for that larger comprehension of truth and that more thorough repudiation of error which shall make the history of mankind a series of ascending developments.—H. Mam.

Suppose Jones put up a bar, and behind it from January to December, takes in $2000 and gives nothing but brown paper. Who is kept Jones and his family? Is the earner and business men of his country. He has produced nothing and given nothing valuable in return for the $2000. He is an able-bodied pauper.

Suppose Smith sets up a bar, and behind it from January to December, takes in $2000 and gives nothing but whiskey. Who is kept Smith and his family? Is the earner and business men of his country. He has produced nothing and given nothing valuable in return for the $2000. He is an able-bodied pauper.

What is the difference between the two? Jones harmed nobody; Smith harmed everybody he could;

Jones was a harmless pauper, Smith was a destructive pauper—that is all the difference.—The American Issue.

GRANGE CO-OPERATION.

A Profitable Business Enterprise at Vineland, N. J.

Vineland grange of New Jersey, in connection with the Farmers' Club and Fruit Growers' union, formed an association about six years ago under the name of the Grange Co-operative society. Nine directors were chosen as a board of managers. Persons became members by buying stock at $5 per share, but two-thirds of the members must be Patrons. In July, 1904, a grange store was opened, which carried a full line of groceries, feed, etc. The co-operative plan provided for the payment of 5 per cent on each stockholder's interest in the concern at the end of the year; also such a percentage on all goods he had purchased as his sales would allow after paying the expenses. All sales must be for cash. The business amounts now to over $30,000 a year. Last April the store building was burned, and a new one is now being erected. This will contain a grange hall with all modern improvements. The membership of this flourishing grange is 364. It has become one of the most popular societies in Vineland.

Connecticut Patrons Helped Celebrate. The Patrons of Connecticut took a prominent part in the bridge celebration at Hartford. The grange features of the parade were a touring car containing the officers in full regalia and a float representing colonial agriculture drawn by three yoke of oxen, followed by floats representing Flora, Pomona and Ceres. A big automobile farm truck loaded with farm machinery of the latest pattern was last in the grange procession. The animals drawing these various floats were blanketed and marked "Connecticut State Grange P. of H."

Pushing the Work. The work of organizing new granges will be pushed with vigor after the election is over. State Master Godfrey of New York state will put out one or two special organizing deputies in the field. State Master Pierce of Vermont has also secured the services of two organizers for like work.

A Novel Meeting. The grange located at Swansey, N. H., recently had a novel meeting. The admission was 7 cents, and every seventh person was admitted free. Seven "old ladies from Lavender town" sang seven old time songs. There were tableaux and recitations.

Nearly every grange in New Hampshire has purchased a flag for its hall, as a vote cast at the last annual session of the state grange requested.

ALL DISTRESS FROM STOMACH VANISHES

Indigestion and Dyspepsia Misery ends Five Minutes Later.

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your stomach misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak; there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, gripping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food. Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.
