A. H. Cousin, fiscal agent of the forestry department for the districts composed of Oregon, Washington and Alaska, reached Grants Pass on official business Thursday and is still in the city.
L. A. Steelhammer has just purchased the H. J. Bacher residence on North Fourth street. This is one of the prettiest little places in the city and the location is especially fine.
Mrs. Carl G. Allen left last Thursday for Oakland, Cal., to join her husband who preceded her several weeks. Mr. Allen is employed in his uncle's hardware store.
D. L. McDermott, for a short time past working in the Grants Pass printing offices, left Thursday night for Harrison, Idaho, where he has been offered a position.
Mrs. Daisy Crouch, of Alameda, is in the city on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks. She has many friends in Grants Pass who always give her a warm welcome.
E. E. Runge, linotype operator on the Trinidad, Colo., Chronicle-News, arrived in Grants Pass Saturday night to spend a couple of weeks. He is looking over the country and it is possible he may decide to invest in fruit land.
Mrs. W. W. Canby left Tuesday evening for Missoula, Mont., to install a chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma at the University of Montana. Mrs. Canby was Grand President of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity 1906-08, and was appointed installing officer for this year.
G. H. Keal, the Takilma merchant, arrived in town on Tuesday and started home on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Keal says that business at the Waldo copper mine is picking up and that ten or a dozen new men have been taken on during the last few days. The country generally in that section is looking prosperous.
Manager O. A. Thomas and F. E. Newberry, of the United Copper-Gold Mines Co., returned this week from an inspection trip to the Pickett creek properties, and later left for their homes at Salem. They left five men at work at the mine with a great amount of work outlined. They report a lode 500 feet wide, the whole mass going from 2 1/2 to 6 per cent copper and gold values of $4 to $8 per ton. Ralph Looney, treasurer of the company, and Frank Newberry were also of the party visiting the mine.

Judge Geo. H. Durham will leave for Chicago on legal business this evening and will be gone for 10 or 12 days.

H. T. Pitchard, of North Platte, Nebraska, is a visitor in Grants Pass. He is looking over desirable properties with a view to purchasing should he find what he wants.

O. Weicher, of Chicago, and A. Wyeberg, of Milwaukee, Wis., are looking over the country around Grants Pass with a view to locating in this part of the Rogue River valley.

Our member of the House, Hon. J. C. Smith, has returned from Salem, where he was called to attend a special session of the Legislature which convened on Monday and adjourned on Tuesday.

F. H. Knight was called to Grants Pass Thursday on account of the serious illness of his brother, A. D. Knight, who is ill with pneumonia. F. H. Knight is now resident of Portland and is city solicitor for the Oregonian.

Mrs. Mary Smith, of this city, who is president of the Rebekah assembly of the State of Oregon, left Monday to make her official visits to Rebekah lodges from Roseburg to Portland. At the latter place she will remain 3 days returning here the 28th.

Ralph W. Hoyt, president of the Portland Rose Festival and cashier of the Merchants' National Bank of that city, was a Grants Pass visitor Thursday and Friday, working in the interest of the rose festival, which is to take place the 11th and 12th of June. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hoyt, and while here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Judge Geo. Durham.

Miss Maud Baber, who for seven years has held a responsible position in the Courier office as operator on the Simplex machine and later on that wonderful machine, the linotype, has resigned her position and accepted a place for the present in a mercantile establishment. Miss Baber will be greatly missed in this office, which she has served so long and so faithfully. Her old associates bespeak for her the best that life affords, and will always remember her with pleasure.

Southern Oregon Manager McCord, of the United Wireless Telegraph company, has notified W. T. Perry, local representative, that he will be in Grants Pass in about a week or 10 days with a set of wireless instruments for practical demonstration, and will show Grants Pass people the mysteries of wireless telegraphy.

Prepaid Railroad Orders.

"Something which is of considerable interest to the public generally and which is perhaps not generally known is the system of prepaid orders now in effect between stations of the Southern Pacific company and all points in the United States. By means of this system tickets may be purchased at Grants Pass from any place in the United States and mailed or telegraphed direct to the party wishing to come here. Sleeper accommodations and small amounts of cash in connection with these tickets may also be forwarded at the same time."

Commercial Club's New Home.

The trustees of the Commercial Club have rented the upper story of the Williams Bros. building on Sixth street over the Peerless Clothing company. There are nine rooms on the floor and it is understood that all of them will be occupied for club purposes. The largest one will be for the general business of the club, another will be a banquet hall, there will be a ladies parlor, and toilet rooms. There is to be a billiard room, also a reading room. This will make a fine place for the club and it will serve many good purposes. As soon as the building is put in repair it will be occupied by the club.

W. A. Burr, proprietor of the Burr Music House, of Roseburg, is in town this week with a shipment of Bush & Lane and Victor pianos which he is offering at from $60 to $100 less than they have been sold for heretofore. Formerly he handled them for a Portland piano house, but now he buys them direct from the factory in carload lots, which enables him to cut out the jobbers' profits. These are high-grade instruments and have many advantages over any other make. Read what Ethel Caroline Palmer has to say of them elsewhere in this issue. They are on exhibition next door to post office.

Just arrived—One carload Peter Schuttler and Moline Wagons. Grants Pass Hardware Co. 3-12-09
