

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

F. W. Russell spent Sunday in Murphy.

Lafe Grimes came in Tuesday from Galice creek.

Earl Higgins returned Monday from Checto, Cal.

E. W. Mitchell, of Merlin, was in the city Wednesday on business.

Mrs. D. H. Reid, of Portland, is in the city the guest of her son, F. W. Reid.

Frank Colvig came up from Galice Monday for a few days' visit with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Harned and baby, of LaGrande, Ore., arrived here Sunday to visit relatives and friends. Mrs. Harned was formerly Miss Grace Good, of this city.

Elmer Wertz is again able to be about the streets, after his recent hard spell of sickness.

Master Edwin Bobzien and sister, Miss Helen, left Monday evening for a short outing at Sealide.

E. D. Thompson went to Woodville Monday on business, returning to this city the same day.

Bert Dysert and Clay Ramsey, two Wolf Creek miners, were in our city Wednesday on business.

Mrs. H. A. Perkins, who has been in our city for the past week taking medical treatment, returned Wednesday to her home at Wolf creek.

Walter Whittlesey arrived here from the east Tuesday for a few days' visit with his cousin, Mrs. H. C. Norton.

Royal Whitmore returned Tuesday from his trip to Portland and the fair.

Mrs. J. H. Simons went to Galice Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Lewis.

Mrs. Geo. Riddle and Miss Minnie Tuffs went to Portland Monday evening to attend Eastern Star Grand lodge.

J. H. Williams and mother, Mrs. E. A. Williams, and Miss Maude, came up from the mill at Reuben Saturday.

Dr. Flanagan went to Portland Tuesday to attend Grand Commander's Cathedral Class of Scottish Rite Masons.

Mrs. S. Hoyt and daughter, Mrs. Theresa Williams, left Monday for Portland to visit Mrs. Hoyt's daughter, Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cheshire returned Monday from Portland where they took in all the sights at the Rose Festival.

Mrs. W. W. Webb left Wednesday for her home at Mercedes, Tex. Mrs. Webb has spent the past several months here with her father, I. C. Spencer, who has been ill with cancer.

Mrs. M. E. Moore and daughters, Misses Lizzie and Nellie, and son, Charles, accompanied by Miss Hazel Gillette and brother, Carrol, and Miss Mae Nipper, left Tuesday for Cow Creek canyon, where they will enjoy camp life for two weeks.

While at work on one of the culverts on D street Tuesday morning, George Snow had the misfortune to fall on his hand, driving a nail into the second finger of his left hand to the bone, and disabling him for several days.

Owen Thomas, of Salem, was in our city Monday from his Pickett

Creek mine, leaving for Salem in the evening. When asked if he had any gold to show for his work he displayed enough of the yellow metal to satisfy even the most exacting.

Monday morning the Courier force enjoyed a box of fine, large strawberries from the Savage Bros.' ranch. The fruit was unusually large and unexcelled in flavor. Last week Mrs. J. H. Ahlf also left a box of splendid, large berries, which were much larger than we usually see.

N. C. Westerfield, manager of the agents of the Columbia Life, spent a few days here last week looking into the business of that organization.

A. B. Cornell returned Wednesday from Portland and Salem, where he had been on a business and pleasure trip.

The Electric theater on Front street has had considerable work done on it during the past three weeks. Extensions have been run back over the entrance and the machinery placed so as to give more room inside, while fresh paint and paper have added very materially to the neatness of the place.

Rolla Cole, a former Grants Pass boy, but for the past year a resident of Boise, Idaho, has been promoted from cashier to auditor of the Boise Valley railroad. Mr. Cole started last year as cashier in the company's office and his promotion to auditor in so short a time is proof of his integrity and business ability and his many friends here congratulate him on his success.

A. R. McPherson, wife and children, of San Francisco, arrived here Tuesday to visit Mr. McPherson's brother, C. L. McPherson, and family.
