

Milady's Hands

are her pride and rubber gloves are a boon to her in all housework. When working about the garden, bathing the baby, polishing silver and cut glass, in putting up preserves, in treatment of chapped hands and a host of other occasions these protectors are indispensable to well-kept hands. We have a new supply of first quality gloves at $1.00 per pair.

Sabin the Druggist

Valuable Booklet.

The Oregon State Dairy Association convention, which event took place at Salem December 10 and 11, 1908, has printed for general distribution a booklet of 62 pages of most valuable matter relating to the dairy business, and it should be in the hands of every cow owner in the state. The table of contents covers a wide variety of subjects connected with the dairy interests.

Misses Jessie Hale and Tulare Linkey visited at Salem Tuesday.

The Afternoon Tea will be a Success, if-- provided with the right kind of Tea. Our ROYAL GEM JAPAN TEA is especially adapted for that popular hot weather drink, the old-fashioned ICED TEA, or, if you prefer the Black Teas, we have Chase & Sanborn's celebrated "KOHINOOR" English Breakfast in 8 ounce cans at 35 cents. In a fancy Celon Tea we have Chase & Sanborn's "ORANGE PEKOA" in 8 ounce packages at 35 cents. We also carry Lipton's Ceylon Tea. Our 50 cent Spider Leg Japan Tea is a good one; just the right flavor to leave a pleasant taste in your mouth. In a China Tea (Gun Powder) we have a very good one at 75 cents per pound.

Now in the Market

CHERRIES, PEACHES, BLACK-BERRIES, COOKING APPLES, WATERMELONS, CANTALOUPES, TOMATOES, WAX and STRING BEANS.

The White House Grocery

A. U. BANNARD

is prepared to show the most complete stock of Furniture to be seen in Grants Pass, among the novelties are New Davenport, Couches, Rockers, Ladies and Roll Top Desks, Rugs, Mattings and Carpets, and things that must be seen to appreciate in newest styles and at prices you can't afford to pass by, for cash or on the installment plan.

WINDOW SHADES IN STOCK
LARGE SIZES AND LONG LENGTHS
avoiding the delay of sending for them. Come and see.

North Sixth Street

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Ernest Stites, of Williams, was in the city Saturday on a business trip.

Mrs. Will Baughm returned Monday from Selma, where she had spent several days with relatives.

E. T. McKinstry left Friday for Seattle. He will be joined at Portland by Mrs. McKinstry and they will take in the fair together.

For the newest in tailor made suits see Kilen in Albert Building.

Superintendent Chas. Morphy made a business trip to this city Saturday from Granite Hill, returning home Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Lewis went to Ashland Thursday to spend the day with friends, returning to this city in the evening.

T. J. Brinkerhoff, wife and daughter were in town this week from the Mountain Lion mine on a business trip.

Miss Myrtle Sherman, daughter of W. B. Sherman, arrived here Sunday from Portland to spend the summer with her father.

J. O. Booth returned Tuesday from Seattle, where he had been attending the fair and reports a most enjoyable trip.

Have you tried any of those guaranteed Hoses, 6 pairs, 6 months, for 50 cents? We are not only advertising them, but we are guaranteeing them and selling them.

Mrs. A. V. Cleaver, of Baker City, who has been visiting her mother and sister in this city for the past few days, left Tuesday for Hills, Cal., where she will visit with her brother, Lawrence Brown, for a short time.

C. L. Hobart, who recently purchased property on the south side of the Applegate, came down Monday from Talent to look over his property and attend to business matters pertaining to same.

Henry Walters, formerly a resident of this city, passed through here Monday en route to Portland and Seattle and was very busy shaking hands at the depot during the short stop of No. 16. Mr. Walters is dining car conductor on the Southern Pacific between Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Rev. F. K. Bartlett, of St. Luke's Episcopal church, left Tuesday for a missionary trip through Coos and Curry counties. He will first visit Crescent City, and expects to be gone about five weeks in all, returning to this city the first of September. During the absence of Rev. Bartlett, St. Luke's church will be thoroughly renovated and everything will be in readiness for him on his return.

A large Winton touring car which had been stolen by two men from the Seattle garage, passed through this city on the 21st of July, stopping at F. B. Olding's for some slight repairs and returned last Sunday in charge of a sheriff and two deputies, headed back for Seattle. On arrival in this city from Seattle the men inquired the way to Crescent City, but went to Dunsuir instead. After they had departed, a telegram came from Seattle describing the men and car and C. C. Presley wired to Crescent City in search of the fugitives and an auto and two men who had just arrived there, were promptly arrested, but were released on promise that they were not the men wanted. In the meantime the thieves were making all possible speed south and arrived at Dunsuir on the 22nd, having left here at 3 p. m. the day before. One of the men who had stolen the car was acting as chauffeur on the return trip, but was evidently not in such a hurry going back. The names of the men were not learned.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Albert Coe, of Merlin, visited in the city the first of the week.

Ralph Looney visited the United Copper-Gold Mines Co. at Pickett Creek last Sunday.

Physicians and surgeons recommend "FLASH," the antiseptic hand cleaner.

L. R. Steelhammer was called to Salem on Tuesday to the bedside of a sick brother.

Dry Cleaning and Pressing done by Kilen at Albert Block.

Miss Ada Smith, of Walker, arrived here Friday of last week to spend a few days visiting with the F. D. Smith family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Slover and Miss Leila returned Monday from a two weeks' visit at Portland and Seaside.

L. A. White, of York, Neb., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wash. Hair. Mr. White has been at Seattle and is on a tour of the west.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kelley, of San Antonio, Tex., arrived here Sunday to look over the country with a view of purchasing property here.

Mrs. Grace Bunch White left Saturday evening for Glendale to join her husband and they will make their future home at that place.

Frank Hull, of the Hull Printing Co. of Medford, was in the city last Friday attending the meeting of the local National Protective League.

Miss Edna Morrow, of Kansas City, Kan., arrived last Friday to spend several weeks with Mrs. Geo. P. Cramer. Miss Morrow has been making a tour of the West and visiting the A-Y-P.

Miss Augusta Parker left Saturday for Medfordville to spend a couple of weeks with her sister, Miss Mary, and will then go to Seattle. She will also visit relatives in Portland and expects to be away about a month.

Mrs. T. J. Everton, who has spent the past few days here with her son's family, Mr. and Mrs. Everton, left Saturday evening for her home at Merlin. Mrs. Everton took eye treatment of Dr. Findley while in the city.

Arthur Sampson and Tom Fry returned last week from a trip above Gold Hill where they had spent a week camping and fishing. The young men made the trip in a canoe and had a very enjoyable outing.

Mrs. Herman Horning and sister, Miss Dot Cook, left Tuesday evening for Newport, where Miss Cook will spend two weeks, but Mrs. Horning expects to remain until the first of November before returning to her home in this city.

Earle Young, who now holds the position of mining inspector in the forest service, arrived here Saturday evening to visit over Sunday with his mother. He returned to Medford Sunday evening and from there he goes to Roseburg.

Mrs. Ed. Williams left last Friday evening for Portland where she will join her husband and later go to La Grande to visit her mother and sister. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside either at Portland or LaGrande. Mr. Williams having a position offered him at both places with the railroad, but has not yet decided which he will accept.

Robert N. McLean left for Portland Thursday where he will occupy the pulpit of the Third Presbyterian church during the month's absence of the pastor. This is the church Rev. Robt. McLean went to from Grants Pass about 10 years ago, and left to take up duties in Porto Rico. Mr. McLean has been preaching at Central Point alternate Sundays for the past few weeks.

Dwight and Robert Jewell last week drove from Grants Pass to Holland to meet their father and Herbert Smith, who were on the business men's pilgrimage, and the party visited the Josephine caves, returning home Tuesday. During their absence, Mrs. Jewell received a telegram from Frankfort, a suburb of Philadelphia, announcing the death of Mr. Jewell's only sister, Mrs. Lucy A. Blend, who has been a visitor here a number of times, the last being about three years ago when she spent several weeks.

Bob Adams fell in the river last week, at least one foot fell in and of course this caused him to lose his balance and he came near going in completely. This is the way it happened: Bob, in company with several other young people was boat riding in the vicinity of the White Rocks and in stepping from the rocks to the boat he miscalculated the distance and stepped into the water. Those who saw him declare he was in a dangerous position when rescued, but he is all right now—no damage done.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barnes spent Saturday in Medford.

Mrs. J. M. Tetherow and two daughters left Thursday of last week for an outing at Newport.

Mrs. Arthur Pugsley and baby left Thursday for a visit to Mrs. Pugsley's mother at Philomath.

H. L. Darnelle and family left Thursday for Jacksonville, where they expect to reside in the future.

Ed VanDyke returned Tuesday from a very enjoyable outing at Newport.

Miss Anna Colvig, who has been visiting with her sister at Ashland for the past few weeks, returned to her home in this city Tuesday.

"FLASH" is excellent for the bath, as it cleanses the pores, leaving the skin sweet, clean and free from unhealthy matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Perkins went to Medford Saturday to stay over Sunday, returning to this city Sunday evening.

George Grey broke his leg yesterday kicking because he couldn't get Folger's Golden Gate Coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. William Atchinson returned Saturday from Seattle, where they had been to attend the fair.

Mrs. Rose Gano Jenkins, who has been visiting relatives and friends here for the past month, left Saturday for her home at Portland.

Paul Norris, of Grennell, Iowa, was a Grants Pass visitor last week. He was here looking up some investments for clients.

Ringling Bros. Circus, one of the biggest shows in the country will pitch its tents at Salem August 26, at Roseburg August 27, and at Medford, August 28. These are the only

C. P. Bishop & Co. carry Men's and Boys' Overalls, Jumpers, Khaki Suits, Gloves, in addition to their clothing department.

H. McKenzie returned Saturday from Corum, Cal., where he had gone about two weeks ago to engage in the mining business. Mr. McKenzie did not find things to his liking.

J. F. Klein has a full stock of woolen goods for fall and winter suits. Everything new, and the latest styles. Albert Building. 7-16-4t stops in Western Oregon outside of Portland. One and one-third fare will be given on the railroads.

C. L. Hobart, of the Alaska syndicate, was in town Tuesday and went out to his property on the Applegate to look after the surveying and platting of the two farms just purchased by him.

Grants Pass is soon to have another physician in its ranks of medical men. Dr. H. G. Kimbley, of Los Angeles, announces in this issue of the Courier that he will open offices here about the middle of August.

Miss Kate Newell returned Monday evening from a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Moon at Central Point. Tuesday evening she went to Merlin to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Albert Coe, after which she will resume her duties as clerk in the Kinney & Truax store.

About 40 boys of Company B, Ashland, passed through here last Friday on their way to the annual encampment at "Camp Benson," at Clackamas. The encampment lasts from the 24th to the 30th. The company is officered by J. E. Thornton, captain, and G. C. Spencer, second lieutenant.

Cheap wood, factory blocks and kindlings—block, single load $2.75; 4 loads $10.00; Kindlings, 65c. 3 for $1.50. H. Huck Wood Yard, 199 W. H street. Phone 434. 6-25-4t

A. C. Heath, cashier of the First National Bank of Montezuma, Iowa, arrived in Grants Pass on Tuesday evening and went out to see his friend, E. E. Blanchard, of Fruitdale, with whom he visited a couple of days. He looked over the country and expressed himself as much pleased with this part of Oregon.

THE R. L. COE CO.
HALF PRICE REMNANT SALE
SATURDAY, JULY 31 TO SATURDAY, AUGUST 14

A. N. Parsons sold a farm this week of 163 acres located across the Applegate river, opposite the Murphy post office, to C. E. Selleck, formerly general manager of the Western Newspaper Union at Omaha, Neb. The purchaser will soon move on the place and become a permanent resident here. Consideration not mentioned. We learn that Mr. Parsons has also sold the residence of August Fetach, corner Third and I streets.

The Time to Hunt

for Buck Deer will open August 1st, and you want to be ready for it. We have the Rifles and the Ammunition that will bring down the game.

A 30-30 or 25-35 Winchester, in regular or carbine pattern, are always on hand. We also have the Winchester and Remington Automatics.

CRAMER BROS.

Odd Fellows Block
HUNTING COATS, RIFLE GASES, BELTS, FISHING TACKLE OF ALL KINDS, TENTS AND CAMP STOVES

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Mrs. H. L. Truax and two children left Thursday evening for a month's outing at Newport.

Mrs. M. F. Dullhon left Monday for a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Clark, of Glendale.

Miss Maude Williams spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. W. Moon, at Central Point, returning to her home in this city Monday evening.

Miss Ethel Birch arrived from Philadelphia last week to spend two weeks with her cousin, Miss Susie Bannard. Miss Birch is the first one of the Bannard relatives to venture across the Rockies.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Parker, who stopped off here on their way home from the Seattle fair for a few days' visit with friends, resumed their journey to their home at Dunsuir Wednesday.

Prof. P. Ritner, of the Ashland Commercial college was in the city Wednesday in the interest of his college which has proven to be of great value to students and one of the best institutions of the kind in the state.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Flanagan and Miss Winifred returned Wednesday from Seattle, where they had been enjoying the fair for the past week. The doctor says that the exposition is magnificent and that on Thursday of last week, Portland Day, there were about 8000 Portland people on the ground. An exhibit exciting a great deal of interest among the sightseers was a glass cage containing over 1,000,000 in Alaska gold nuggets. This exhibit was greatly admired by visitors from all parts of the continent and was, without doubt, one of the finest displays of nuggets ever placed on exhibition at any exposition.

Rev. Robt. McLean and sons, Berto and Robert, returned Tuesday evening from a two days' fishing trip at Bybee bridge. This is a favorite fishing spot of these gentlemen, and they express regret over the fact that the place has been recently purchased by an eastern man and it is rumored that he will allow no more angling for the finny tribe there in future. Mr. McLean tells some amusing incidents which occurred on this trip regarding the inability of the boys to keep their footing on the slippery bottom of the river, and consequently getting pretty well soaked up with the waters of the Rogue. At one time Berto waded beyond his depth and had to swim out, carrying his fishing pole in his teeth and gained shore only to find that the spinner on the end of the line had become entangled on a rock in the river and had to swim out again and release it. The gentlemen enjoyed their trip immensely and secured a considerable number of fish.

BUSINESS POINTERS

Dr. Flanagan, Physician and Surgeon.
J.E. Peterson, Pioneer Insurance Man.
M. Clemens, Prescription Druggist.
Curtiss & Co., jewelers, are still in business at the same old stand.
Rannie, the plumber.

Alfred Letcher, Registered Optometrist and Jeweler in Dixon's old stand, Front St. Eyes tested free.

The Hugo Mercantile Co. carries the finest line of groceries, dry goods, hardware, miners' supplies and general merchandise to be found anywhere. Give us a call. 7-23-4t

The I. X. L. marble and granite works of north Central Point, Oregon, are agents for The Stewart Iron Works Co.'s cemetery and lawn iron fences, vases, etc. Write us and our salesman will call with designs.

Young Cornell Recovering.

Young Cornell is making fine progress toward an entire recovery from his accident down at Galice. The lad's fall was one of those seemingly miraculous accidents in which a human being sometimes escapes death. His fall from a tree was by actual measurement a distance of 42 feet and 10 inches, striking on a steep side hill and breaking both ankles, and, of course, his injuries are severe, but he will fully recover in a short time. His father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cornell, feel that they have much for which to be thankful in this escape of their son from instant death. In speaking of the accident they desire that a message be sent through the Courier to the many kind friends at Galice for their prompt and practical aid given while the young sufferer was still in that mining camp.

Miss Edna Diabrow last week closed a successful term of school at Speaker, Ore., and returned to Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vineyard, Miss Vineyard and Miss Morgan left Thursday for a trip to Williams Creek and the caves.

J. S. McMURRAY

Voice Culture

Studio over Residence
Hall's Art Store 716 Lee Street

REAL ESTATE AND BROKERAGE

Goldsley & Cramer

LOANS NEGOTIATED INSURANCE

611 1/2 G St. Grants Pass

The Rosebud Parlors

Having purchased the Confectionery, Ice Cream and Soda Fountain Establishment, known as the ROSEBUD, we will be pleased to meet all our old patrons in the new place. In addition to the regular business we will serve lunches at all hours daily. We aim to give satisfaction in all lines.

E. E. CARGILL