

The Secret Of Dry Cleaning

is in using "Dry-Clean-O," a soaplike substance which, when added to gasoline, removes all dirt from the goods, just as ordinary soap does in water.

Sabin the Druggist

Mr. and Mrs. James Marsh and two children, of Dunsmuir, Cal., and Mrs. Marsh's mother, Mrs. M. Lawler, of Sacramento, Cal., who have spent the past few days visiting at the home of Mr. Marsh's parents in this city, left Thursday morning for their respective homes.

Plumbing done to comply with sanitary rules by I. O. Munding, 515 E street. 8-6-31 goes swiftly enough, of course; its a peculiarity of money. But while its going you can at least make sure that it is bringing you adequate returns. Thats why you should trade here.

A RATIO Your Money

Cooking Apples Blackberries, Tomatoes Melons and all kinds of garden truck now in the market. And say, it will soon be time for those fine large Crawford Peaches for canning, send in your orders early.

The White House Grocery

A. U. BANNARD

is prepared to show the most complete stock of Furniture to be seen in Grants Pass, among the novelties are New Davenport, Couches, Rockers, Ladies and Roll Top Desks, Rugs, Mattings and Carpets, and things that must be seen to appreciate in newest styles and at prices you can't afford to pass by, for cash or on the installment plan.

WINDOW SHADES IN STOCK LARGE SIZES AND LONG LENGTHS

avoiding the delay of sending for them. Come and see.

North Sixth Street

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

"FLASH" sells at 15c per box everywhere.

Mrs. H. G. Kesterson, of Glendale, visited in this city the first of the week.

Miss Mabel Buell, of Eugene, arrived here Monday to visit relatives and friends.

Earl Herrigan returned Monday to Medford after a few days spent in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fry, of Merlin, visited in this city the first of the week.

Mrs. G. W. Williams visited over Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Warren Burt, who is enjoying camp life near Glendale.

Miss Lottie DeArmond returned Monday from a few days' visit with relatives and friends at Talent.

Jack Baker, who arrived here last week and spent a few days in our city, left Tuesday for his home at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bacon, of Glendale, visited in our city first of the week, returning to their home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. F. W. VanDyke, Mrs. John Taylor and Miss Caymalita Pool went to Merlin Wednesday to spend the day with Mrs. S. E. Lanterman.

Mrs. S. E. Lanterman, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, of this city, returned to her home at Merlin Tuesday evening.

Mrs. G. H. Ayers, of Covelo, Cal., who has been visiting friends here, went to Merlin Tuesday evening for a few days visit with friends in that vicinity.

The ladies of the Newman M. E. church are already planning their fall work and among other events will be a church fair and bazaar to be held about the middle of November.

I. M. Davis this week received a visit from his brother, J. D. Davis, of Oklahoma. Mr. Davis is making a tour of the west and has been to the fair and stopped off here Sunday for a few days.

Mrs. R. V. Lynch and little son returned to her home at Williams, Cal., Tuesday, after visiting with her sister, Mrs. Harry Schmidt, of this city, for the past week. Mrs. Lynch also spent a few days with her parents at Hugo before leaving for her California home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wildy, who have been in our city since last March, left Wednesday evening for their old home at Guernsey, Wyo. They have spent the last two years making a tour of the west and purchased five acres of land west of this city, about a mile from town. No disposition has been made of this property and Mr. and Mrs. Wildy may some time return to this city to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Heston and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mannel and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Nichols and family returned Saturday from their camp on Williams creek, where they enjoyed outdoor life for a week. The ladies are sisters, so this little outing was in the form of a family gathering and very enjoyable. The gentlemen secured one deer while out.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Carson and two sons arrived here last week from Beatty, Nevada, and are so well pleased with this city and surrounding country that they will make this place their future home, for this winter at least. They have leased the John Taylor place on Foundry street and it is hoped that they will become permanent residents of our city.

Additional locals on page six.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Frank Barrie went to San Francisco Wednesday.

The "FLASH" man is coming. Hear him talk.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Benedict, of Applegate, visited in this city Thursday.

Mrs. Calhoun and son, Lester, went to Ashland to visit with relatives for two weeks.

Miss Ione Riebel, of Roseburg, arrived here Wednesday to visit with friends for a few weeks.

Mrs. W. J. McDow left Wednesday for Merlin where she will remain during the fruit season.

Rev. Ward McHenry spent Tuesday in our city on home mission business, returning to Ashland in the evening.

Miss Nina Kame, of Medford, arrived in this city Tuesday evening to take teachers' examination which began on Wednesday.

Miss Millie Drake went to Portland Wednesday, where she will spend two weeks in a millinery establishment.

J. D. Drake and son, Russell, spent Tuesday in Woodville on a fishing trip, reporting good luck and a fine time.

T. W. Sanford, of Ashland, came down Wednesday evening and visited over Thursday with Grants Pass friends.

Master Donald Belding left Tuesday evening for Galice to spend a month with his grandfather, W. L. Dowell, at his mine.

Miss Reba Lowry has returned from her trip north, which extended over a month, she visiting the Seattle fair and friends at Olympia and Tacoma.

Rev. W. S. Holt arrived here Tuesday and spent a few hours on business and pleasure, going to Ashland in the afternoon and returning to Portland the same evening.

T. F. O'Brien, who for the past two months has held the position of night operator at the S. P. depot, has been transferred to The Dalles, and he, with his wife, left for that place Wednesday evening.

Rolla Stephenson is visiting his old home on West I street. Rolla is a lineman for the O. R. & N. and is stationed at Umatilla, but he gets tired of sand and sage brush and seeks rest in the shadow of the pines.

Mrs. E. M. Dean returned to her home in this city Wednesday after a four weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Harth, at Roseburg. She was accompanied home by her grandson, Philip Harth, who will visit here for several days.

Mrs. Arthur Jackson and baby returned Wednesday from Medford, where they have spent the past two weeks with Mrs. Jackson's parents. Alfred Hamilton returned Sunday from Montana where he had been on a business trip.

Williams Bros. are installing a steam feed at their sawmill at Reuben. Mr. Williams says this is the first one to be used in this part of Oregon. Work at this mill is progressing in fine shape, with 35 on the pay roll.

The Merlin merchants all seemed to have the same notion last Monday as three of the fraternity visited in this city on that day. The gentlemen were Albert Coe, Frank Thompson and William Richards, the latter two gentlemen being accompanied by their wives.

J. P. Kenney went to Hugo Wednesday to make arrangements for the opening up of a store in that place soon. Mr. Kenney was recently in the grocery business in this city, and his friends wish him success in his new location. The new store will consist of a complete line of groceries.

John Morris, from Warner Valley, and brother, Alex Murrie, from Rock Point, arrived in this city first of the week to consult with Dr. DeVore in regard to the serious illness of a brother at Rock Point. The doctor accompanied the gentlemen to that place to make an examination of the case.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Moody and family left Tuesday evening for Portland where they will reside. They were accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Moody, but Clarence will not go to Portland for some time yet, he being engaged in California as salesman for a vacuum carpet cleaner which he and his father are manufacturing. Their place of business will be located on 251 Holiday avenue, Portland. Clarence Moody departed for Grass Valley, Cal., Wednesday morning, after visiting for a few days with his wife and parents in this city prior to their departure for Portland.

Additional locals on page six.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

"FLASH" is put up in 12-ounce boxes, bevelled edged, to prevent cutting the fingers.

Ed Gano went to Medford Wednesday to visit with his mother on her farm near that place.

Miss Mattie McGee went to Ashland Wednesday to visit with friends for a few days.

Chas. Shattuck went to Hills, Cal., Wednesday, after a few days' visit with relatives in this city.

Mrs. G. E. Brinker and son, and Mrs. M. P. Smith went to Medford Wednesday to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. S. D. Newell went to Merlin Thursday to visit for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Coe, at that place.

J. W. McDaniel, a former Grants Pass boy, arrived here Tuesday from Glendale and after a few days' visit with old friends will go to Weed, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sanders, of Seattle, spent several days this week looking over our city and surrounding country with a view to locating here.

Mrs. Ida Hill, of Hills, Cal., spent a few days in our city this week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Smith. She has been afflicted with eye trouble and has been taking treatment from Dr. Findley.

Mrs. G. E. Fox, of Central Point, who has been in our city for the past two weeks taking throat treatment of Dr. Findley, left Thursday for her home much improved in health.

Misses Claudine and Georgia Coron left Wednesday evening for Portland where they will visit with their sister, Mrs. Otto Dunlap, after which they will go to Seattle to attend the fair. They expect to be absent several weeks.

Cheap wood, factory blocks and kindlings—block, single load $2.75; 4 loads $10.00; kindlings, 65c, 3 for $1.50. H. Huck Wood Yard, 109 W. H street. Phone 434. 6-25-11

A letter from E. Breitmayer written at Jacksonville, Mich., says that the funeral of Mrs. Breitmayer took place last Friday, attended by a large number of her old friends. Mr. Breitmayer says he and his little son, William, will be here in about ten days, accompanied by his brother who desires to come west.

Geo. Kish, who was injured about five weeks ago while working on the new steel bridge, is not improving so rapidly as could be wished. Mr. Kish is at the South Pacific hospital and it has developed that his injuries are more serious than were at first suspected, the kidneys having been injured, which makes his recovery very slow.

Dr. Howard G. Kimbley, of Los Angeles, an osteopath physician, has arrived in this city and succeeds to the office and practice of Dr. Campbell in the Conklin building. The doctor comes highly recommended and bears the general reputation of a well read and an up-to-date student in his school of the healing art.

Messrs. Huntley and Maxwell, of Minneapolis, Minn., have been looking over the surrounding country with a view of locating here. These gentlemen are much pleased with Grants Pass and its surroundings and as they seem to be the kind of people we are looking for it is hoped they will become investors and citizens.

Will Wheeler, who was injured while clearing his land of stumps and brush at Jerome Prairie two weeks ago, is getting along nicely. Mr. Wheeler sustained a compound fracture of the left leg and was brought to the South Pacific hospital. Dr. Lundbridge thinks he will be able to be out in about three weeks.

Mrs. Etta Leverich arrived here Thursday morning from Yerington, Nevada, en route to Eugene to visit her parents and stopped off in this city to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Baber. Mr. and Mrs. Leverich were former residents of this city, but for the past two and a half years have resided in Nevada. She also visited friends at Ashland and Woodville.

Miss Elizabeth MacNeil left on the Northwestern Monday evening for Minneapolis, where she will join Miss Mary Louise Labrie and the Misses Elizabeth and Agnes Murphy. These young ladies leave for a splendid trip to the coast and will visit friends in Seattle and Grants Pass, Oregon. Miss MacNeil will return via San Francisco and other points in California.—Journal-Observer, Redfield, S. D. The young ladies above named are old time friends of the Misses Lillian and Laura Riggs, of this city. Order your hop tickets from the Courier now.

LOCAL ITEMS

Miss Pearl Lewis visited friends at Selma this week, returning to her home at this city Wednesday.

Closing out Refrigerators at 20 per cent discount at Hair-Riddle Hardware Co's.

Miss Jennie Hugerth left Thursday for Weed, Cal., to spend a few weeks visiting friends.

Mrs. Dick Graham went to Hill, Cal., Thursday to visit her husband who is employed in the box factory at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McConnoha left Wednesday for a trip to Crescent City, after which they will go to Humboldt, Cal.

Mrs. Kenneth Root and four children arrived here Thursday from Roseburg to visit with relatives and friends.

Misses Cora and Mabel Smith visited over Thursday with friends at Merlin. Miss Cora will teach the Merlin school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lewis, of Galice, arrived in this city Wednesday and left the same evening for Seattle to attend the fair.

Ralph Dean left Sunday evening for Seattle to visit the fair. He will also visit at Portland and other northern points before returning home.

Mrs. A. C. Cleaver, who has spent the past month visiting her mother, Mrs. Brown, of this city, left Thursday evening for her home at Baker City.

C. B. Fowler is again at his old stand in the Geo. S. Calhoun clothing store, after a 10-days' vacation which he spent with his wife at Three Pines and at the head of Jump-Off-Joe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bergen, of Livermore, Ia., who visited for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Demaray, of this city, left Thursday for their return home.

J. G. Riggs, who has been on an extended visit to South Dakota, Chicago and several other points in Illinois, is expected to return to his home in this city in a few days.

Mrs. F. W. Jordan and little daughter, who have been visiting with friends in this city for a few days this week, left Thursday for their home at Sisson. The Jordans were former residents of this city.

Mrs. H. L. Marsters arrived in Grants Pass Thursday where she remained until Friday, when her husband joined her in his automobile and together they resumed their journey to Medford, where they visit relatives.

Mrs. M. Burkhardt came down Thursday from Woodville accompanied by her little daughter to seek medical aid for the little girl, who has been ill for the past week with malaria. They returned on the afternoon train to Woodville.

Rev. S. D. Bartle, wife and son, of Grand Island, Neb., arrived in this city on last Friday, on a visit to the family of Mrs. Bartle's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stardevant. They remained over until Wednesday evening. On Sunday evening Mr. Bartle filled the pulpit of the M. E. church most acceptably. They will stop at Seattle on their return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Merryweather, who have spent the past week in this city guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mitchell and Eli Mitchell, left going south Thursday and their next stop will be at Shasta Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Merryweather are making a tour of the west and are very much pleased with this country. Mrs. Merryweather is a sister of Alex and Eli Mitchell, of this city. Their home is in Ellsworth, Kan.

A. H. Carson, state horticultural commissioner of this district, was in the city a few hours Thursday, leaving on the afternoon train for Woodville, where he was summoned to settle an appeal wherein the owner of the orchard was not satisfied with a decision of the county inspector. Mr. Carson has been in the fruit business for 35 years and his decision in these matters is accepted as proof positive.

Additional locals on page six.

Wouldn't It Jar You

if you hooked a big one and he got away because of poor tackle

We carry high grade FISHING TACKLE direct from the factory

Split Bamboo Rods $1 and up

Cramer Bros. ESTABLISHED 1893

BUSINESS POINTERS

Dr. Flanagan, Physician and Surgeon.

J.E. Peterson, Pioneer Insurance Man. M. Clemens, Prescription Druggist. See our windows for Straw Hat prices. Calhoun's.

Curtiss & Co., jewelers, are still in business at the same old stand. Rannie, the plumber.

Let Munding save you money on plumbing. Phone 1093. 8-6-31

Alfred Letcher, Registered Optometrist and Jeweler in Dixon's old stand, Front St. Eyes tested free.

The Hugo Mercantile Co. carries the finest line of groceries, dry goods, hardware, miners' supplies and general merchandise to be found anywhere. Give us a call. 7-23-11

Mrs. M. L. Opdycke, at 716 D street, will open a shorthand class the 1st of September, and any applicants desiring to enter the class will please apply prior to that time.

The I. X. L. marble and granite works of north Central Point, Oregon are agents for The Stewart Iron Works Co.'s cemetery and lawn iron fences, vases, etc. Write us and our salesman will call with designs. 20 Per cent discount on Refrigerators at Hair-Riddle Hardware Co's.

COMING EVENTS.

August 21, Saturday—Dance at Savage Creek hall. Tickets, including supper and horse feed, $1.50, by W. P. Bally.

MEN WANTED

50 The Makers to manufacture White Cedar Pole Ties, hewn 2 face. 5 years work for good men. Plenty of work for all. A. E. Estabrook Co. Bandon, Coos County, Oregon

20 Per cent discount on Refrigerators at Hair-Riddle Hardware Co's.

REAL ESTATE AND BROKERAGE

Goldsley & Cramer

LOANS NEGOTIATED INSURANCE

611 1/2 G St. Grants Pass

The Rosebud Parlors

Having purchased the Confectionery, Ice Cream and Soda Fountain Establishment, known as the ROSEBUD, we will be pleased to meet all our old patrons in the new place. In addition to the regular business we will serve lunches at all hours, daily. We aim to give satisfaction in all lines.

E. E. CARGILL