

SCENIC OREGON

In these days, when the beauties of the landscape all over the country are being searched out and counted in the value of a land purchase, it calls to our attention that, go where you will, the scenic attractions of our fair Oregon can hardly be equalled. While we talk of our fruits and flowers, the mines and timber, and our balmy climate, let's not forget our country picturesque. We have recently been fortunate in securing a quantity of writing tablets on each sheet of which is a picture of some well known Oregon scene. These tablets are of good paper and the price is only 10c each. What could be more acceptable in writing your eastern friends? For Sale by

Sabin, the Druggist

Dr. Baumer, of Independence, Kan., spent several days in our city this week, leaving for his home Thursday. While here he purchased through the Elmer Shank real estate firm 1 1/2 acres of the Dimick orchard, west of town. The doctor was the guest of J. W. Lucas while in the city and he was so well pleased with this part of the west that he expects to return here with his family this fall to make this place his home.

W. S. Kaiter, an architect of Portland, spent a few days in the city visiting A. N. Parsons and sister, Dr. Parenteau. Mr. Kaiter was from Chicago and is an old friend of the Parsons family. He returned to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Cramer left Monday evening for a two weeks' stay at Portland with Mrs. Cramer's sister, Mrs. Chas. Hays. They were accompanied by Miss Grace Hays, who has spent the past two months in Grants Pass.

Miss Nora MacIntosh arrived Wednesday evening from Worthington, Ind., to spend a month or more with her cousin, Mrs. D. J. Manuel. Miss MacIntosh has been a teacher in the public schools of Vincennes, Ind., for the past 12 years and is now taking a much needed rest.

Robert N. McLean returned Wednesday from Portland, where he occupied the pulpit of the Third Presbyterian church during the month's absence of the regular pastor. He was accompanied by Rev. Mr. Cromley, an Auburn seminary friend who has a pastorate at Springwater, Ore., and who will spend a few days visiting.

There was a severe electrical storm at Thrall, Cal., Tuesday morning which did considerable damage to the town. Among other damage done was the burning of the Southern Pacific depot. This, however, was probably not so much of a damage as a benefit to the town, as the building was a rough affair and it will be an improvement to have a new one in the city.

Mrs. W. J. Wimer, of Waldo, has developed into a carpenter, for during the past year she has constructed a number of pieces of furniture for their country home, among them being a couch, reading table and secretary. Her last piece is a dresser. All the articles show the work of genius, and are much admired. Miss Marie Wimer has not yet developed into a carpenter, but she can raise blackberries as is evidenced by the crop which Miss Marie has in charge of at the Wimer mine.

She will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Nipper, here for a few days.

Grants Pass has at last a much needed cafe where the public is able to secure a meal or a lunch at any hour. The Merchants' Cafe, just opened at the corner of Front and Fifth streets by F. J. Stanfield and associates, is such a place. It is newly furnished and finished and everything is cooked and served in a proper manner. They serve a merchants lunch from 11 a. m. till 2 p. m. at 40 cents which would be hard to duplicate in any other city for a much greater sum. They will serve special dinner parties on notice.
