

SUGGESTED BY-LAWS

R. R. FRUIT ASSOCIATION

Art. I.—Directors and Officers: Section 1. The board of directors shall consist of fifteen stockholders who shall be elected at the first meeting of stockholders, and at each annual meeting thereafter, and who shall hold office for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Sec. 2. The officers of the corporation shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and an auditing committee of three members. These officers shall be elected by the board of directors from among their number and shall hold office at the pleasure of and for such time as may be fixed by the board.

Sec. 3. Vacancies in any office, however occurring, shall be filled by a majority vote of the board of directors, and any stockholder elected to fill a vacancy in the board of directors shall hold office for the unexpired term.

Sec. 4. A bank, or banks, may be designated as treasurer or custodian of the funds of this corporation.

Sec. 5. The treasurer shall give bonds in such amounts as the board may require, unless a bank shall be chosen as treasurer, in which event no bonds shall be required.

Sec. 6. No director of this corporation shall be allowed to hold any office or position in the employ of the Rogue River Fruit & Produce Association other than president, vice-president, auditing committee-man, secretary or treasurer; nor shall the manager hold any other office or position with this corporation other than that of manager.

Sec. 7. No officer or director of this corporation shall hold any office or position in the employ of any other fruit growers' association or other similar organization engaged in the same line of business as this corporation, provided, that this section shall not apply to the officers of any such organization now existing in the Rogue River valley.

Sec. 8. No person shall be eligible to hold office as an officer or director of this corporation who shall be directly or indirectly engaged in, or a representative of any fruit or produce commission business, and any officer or director engaging in such business, or accepting such position, shall thereby become disqualified as such officer or director qualified as such officer or director thereupon declare his office vacant.

Art. II.—Salaries: Section 1. The directors of this corporation shall be paid a compensation of $2.50 for every day or part of a day that each is in attendance at a meeting of the board of directors, and they shall each be paid a further remuneration of 6 cents per mile for the distance one way by the usual and most direct route of travel from their respective places of residence to the place of meeting of the board of directors.

Sec. 2. No officer or director shall share in any profits or commissions earned by this corporation, other than regular dividends which may be declared for the benefit of all stockholders.

Art. III.—Duties of Officers: Sec. 1. The board of directors shall have full and exclusive control of all business transactions of the Rogue River Fruit & Produce association, not otherwise specified in these by-laws, and they shall also have full power to fix the duties of all other officers and employes of this corporation.

Sec. 2. The auditing committee shall have all books and accounts of the Rogue River Fruit & Produce association audited once each three months, employing expert accountants to do the work if they see fit or are so ordered by the board of directors.

Art. IV.—Penalties: Sec. 1. Any director who is absent from two successive regular meetings of the board of directors shall be considered to have resigned and to have forfeited his office unless at the next regular meeting of the board of directors he shall present an excuse for such absence satisfactory to the board. The secretary shall state in the minutes of the meeting the action of the board and the secretary shall also keep a roll of attendance at each regular and special meeting, noting the directors present and those absent. He shall, when he notes the absence of a director from two successive regular meetings of the board, report the same to the board of directors, and the board at their next regular meeting shall take action, the secretary notifying such delinquent director of the proposed action.

Art. V.—Meetings: Sec. 1. The annual meeting of the stockholders of this corporation shall be held on the second Tuesday in February of each year, and special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the president, vice-president or by a majority of the directors or by stockholders holding at least one-third of the subscribed capital stock of the corporation.

Sec. 2. Notice of the annual meeting, and of all special meetings, shall be given by the president or secretary of the corporation at least 30 days prior to the date of such meeting, and shall be published in three newspapers in Rogue River valley, one in Ashland, one in Medford and one in Grants Pass, once each week for four successive weeks prior to such meeting.

Sec. 3. At all meetings of stockholders a majority of the subscribed capital stock shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting, and every decision of the majority of the stock represented at such meeting, either by stockholders in person or by written proxy, shall be valid as an act of such meeting, with the exception of the amendments of these by-laws.

Sec. 4. At the annual meeting of the stockholders the following order of business shall be enforced:

1. Reading the annual report of the manager and action on same.
2. Action upon proposed amendments of the by-laws.
3. Election of directors.
4. Any other lawful business.

And all proceedings at all stockholders' meetings shall be governed by Cushing's Manual, unless otherwise provided by these by-laws.

Sec. 5. Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held on the second Tuesday in each month, and special meetings may be called at any time by the president or vice-president upon two days' notice, either verbal or written, being given to each director by the secretary. Five directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business at all meetings of the board.

Art. VI.—Grades of Fruit: Sec. 1. Three grades of apples are established as the standards for this association, namely, "Extra Fancy," "Fancy" and "Choice." Apples in boxes marked "Extra Fancy" should be sound, smooth, practically free from bruises, worms, worm stings or disease, and have proper shape for the variety, fully matured. Red varieties shall be 95 per cent, or higher, red. The "Fancy" grade shall consist of apples sound, smooth, practically free from bruises, worms, worm stings or disease and have reasonably proper shape for the variety, fully matured. All red varieties in this grade shall be at least 50 per cent red, except Spitzenberg, Winesap, Jonathan and Arkansas Black, which shall be at least 70 per cent red. The "Choice" grade shall consist of apples sound, free from any breaks in the skin or black bruises, also free from worms or any disease which injures the quality of the apple.

Sec. 2. The first board of directors, in conjunction with the manager, are hereby authorized and empowered to establish permanent grades on fruit and produce other than apples as above provided, such grades, when so established, to be permanent unless changed by a majority vote of the stockholders at any regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

Sec. 3. The manager of the association shall be ex-officio inspector of fruit, with power to enforce conformity to the established grades, and he shall have power to appoint deputies to assist in such work. Any appeal from his decision shall be taken to the board of directors in such manner as the board shall prescribe.

Art. VII.—Marketing Products: The members of this association shall be permitted to market their produce by sale or consignment, either direct or through the association, provided, that if any portion of the products of a member be marketed through the association the association shall be entitled to collect from said member a commission upon the proceeds of all of the produce of such member of the same kind or class as that marketed through the association, however the remaining portion of such product be marketed. In applying this by-law, each season's products shall be considered separately.

Art. VIII.—Amendments: These by-laws may be amended at any annual meeting of the stockholders, or at any special meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose, by the affirmative vote of the majority of the subscribed capital stock, but no amendment shall be made at any special meeting unless the article and section to be amended, or the proposed amendment be set forth in the notice of such meeting.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
