SOCIAL EVENTS
*****

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church will give a necktie social at the Endeavor rooms of the church on Monday evening. Each lady will be required to take a lunch box and wear a necktie or ribbon with a piece of the same in the box whereby the gentleman purchasing the box may determine his partner by matching neckties. The young people are counting on a big time and lots of fun, something doing all the evening, no time to kill, but a rollicking, jolly evening from start to finish.

On Monday evening of this week a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Williams were entertained in a most pleasing manner at the Williams' home on Seventh and B streets. The guests were delightfully entertained at five hundred up to a late hour, when the prizes were awarded to the deserving ones and delicate refreshments were served to the guests. Aside from the principal game of the evening, some very enjoyable musical selections were rendered by different members of the party, and the evening was all that could be desired in the social line. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carner, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stonaker, Mr. and Mrs. James Slover, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. and Mrs. G. W. Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. Offins, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Herman, Mrs. C. H. Demaray, Mrs. A. D. Eckhart, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bobbsien, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sampson and Miss Irene Kendall.

Mrs. A. D. Eckhart, of Redfields, S. D., was the guest of honor at a charming social function given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carner on Thursday evening. The principal form of amusement prepared for the guests was five hundred, and this interesting game was indulged in for several hours with very pleasing results, after which prizes were awarded and dainty refreshments served. The guests then departed for home, having spent an exceptionally pleasant evening in the social reunion afforded by their charming hosts. Those present were Mrs. A. D. Eckhart, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Sabin, Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williams, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Stonaker, Miss Laura Riggs and F. B. Olding.

At her home on A street, Mrs. D. A. Fitzgerald entertained about 20 friends on Saturday evening. Only ladies were present and in compliance with the request of the hostess each one came in character costume. The evening was spent with games, music and guessing contests, and in this delightful manner the evening

Grants Pass-Ashland Motor Car

The above is a picture of the new Motor Car of the Southern Pacific which will run between Grants Pass and Ashland to handle local business.

The car is 55 feet long, built of steel throughout, practically indestructible and capable of acquiring a speed of 60 miles an hour. It is equipped with a battery of six gasoline motors, generating 250 horsepower and weighs 60,000 pounds.

The car has passenger and smoking compartments, and will seat comfortably about 60 people. The windows are air tight, rain proof and dust proof, and by a new method of ventilation fresh, pure air can be circulated through the entire car in four minutes. In cold weather the car is heated by pipes carrying hot water through the entire length of the car.

The new service goes into effect Monday, March 28, and undoubtedly will prove a great convenience to the traveling public in the district served.

The car will be operated on the following schedule between terminals, but will stop at all intermediate points:

Lv. Grants Pass 7:30 am. Ar. Ashland 9:30 a.m.
Lv. Ashland 1:30 p.m. Ar. Grants Pass 3:30 p.m.

Thursday of last week was the 40th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bert Kenyon and a number of her friends tendered her a delightful surprise on that evening in honor of the event. The guests did not come empty handed but each one brought a beautiful birthday remembrance to Mrs. Kenyon which was gratefully received by her and will always be a pleasant reminder of this happy anniversary. The evening was spent with games of various kinds, all of which went to make an evening of pleasure, never to be forgotten by those present. The surprisers had also come well prepared with refreshments and these were served during the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Steiger, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Longwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ellison, Mrs. Guild, Mrs. Hammill, Mrs. Houck, Mrs. Francis and Mrs. Thrasher.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Vandyke entertained at a small bridal dinner party on Monday evening in honor of Miss Marjorie Kinney and William McCormick. The dinner was a gem in the culinary art, and this, in connection with the delightful entertainment afforded by the host and hostess, made the event one of the most charming functions in the social line which has been held in the city for some time. Those enjoying the hospitality of the Vandyke home on this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kinney and Miss Marjorie Kinney, Mrs. Mary Dodge, Miss Jessie Hale; Messrs. William McCormick, Edward Vandyke and Paul Kinney.
