

Everybody's Thinking

and planning for the "ROSE FESTIVAL" to be held the 24th and 25th of this month. Everybody is quite right in thinking about it, and everybody will surely do all they can to help the Ladies' Auxiliary make a great success of this carnival, for everybody realizes that the ladies are working day and night to make Grants Pass the "City Beautiful," and so let everybody push and stop only a moment to note the fact that "Sabin, the druggist," expects to move about June 1 into the building next door west of his present location. A new front will be put in, greatly improving the appearance of this place, and the interior will be entirely renovated and repaired in order to make this the place you will wish to trade.

Great Millinery Sale—Big reduction on all Trimmings for 2 days only—May 16 and 17. Our hats are of the best style, quality and general neat, natty appearance in the city. A great snap for those who need hats, at Mrs. M. P. Anderson, 708 E street. 5-13-1t

Money-back Lawn Mowers at the Rogue River Hdwe. Co.'s.

The real estate office of H. B. Hendricks & Son was this week removed from the ground floor on Sixth street, near front, to rooms 8 and 9 upstairs in the same building. The change was made necessary on account of the new bank to be installed in that building soon.

As there is to be no Fourth of July celebration this year, the rose carnival is designed to furnish the amusements commencing at such a time. The parade Tuesday is to be a very prominent feature. Merchants and lodges are invited to enter floats. All desiring to do so are asked to notify Mrs. E. V. Ingels.

The opening game of baseball of the teams composed of the men and boys from the different Sunday schools of this city will take place this Friday evening, beginning at 6 o'clock sharp on East D street, opposite the James Tufts' residence. Without a doubt this will be one of the most interesting games of baseball of the season and should be witnessed by a large crowd. Alabastine at Rogue River Hdwe.

Newt McGrew evidently struck a good section of California. On Thursday Geo. S. Calhoun received from Mr. McGrew at Burke, Cal., a stand of oats measuring about eight feet. This is on exhibition in front of the clothing store and bears a card stating where it was grown, and the further information that the same thing can be done here with irrigation and care. We do not take a back seat for any other section of the United States.

Miss Alice Smith received the sad intelligence on Monday that a very dear friend, Miss Hattie Smith, had been drowned on Sunday evening at Winchester, near Roseburg. Miss Smith in company with another young lady, Miss Blakely, and two young men were out rowing, when Miss Smith stood up in the boat to arrange the seat, which had been broken, thereby overturning the boat. The men swam to shore, but both ladies were drowned. Miss Hattie Smith visited in this city several months ago and will be remembered by many friends who met her at that time. Miss Alice Smith went to Winchester Tuesday morning.

Ladies: We have a very neat and compact FIRELESS COOKER that we sell for only $7.50. Let us show it to you. Rogue River Hdwe. Co. (Additional locals on page 3.)

T. W. Williams is having a new open air sleeping porch built onto his home on Seventh street.

C. C. Lefferson, of Kerby, has just purchased the residence of Martin Conger on East Seventh street, near the east school. Mr. Lefferson does not expect to occupy the place, but considers it a good investment.

The large traction engine belonging to Wm. Spaulding which has been laid up for repairs for the past several weeks is again on the road between this city and Swede Basin, hauling lumber. The first load was brought to town Saturday night.

Mrs. O. D. McAllister and sister-in-law, Miss Iva McAllister, arrived here Monday afternoon from Roseburg to visit for a few days with Mrs. McAllister's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Martin. Tuesday morning the ladies went to Medford, returning on the motor car in the afternoon to this city.

Robert N. McLean was expected to arrive in Grants Pass tomorrow, but delayed his return a week and will arrive probably May 21. Mr. McLean graduated May 6 from the Auburn Theological seminary, and after two weeks' visit with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Robert McLean, will go to Portland, where he will be installed as pastor of the Annabelle Presbyterian church, the church which he served a year ago last summer as supply.

Dr. H. C. Dixon has sold his residence property, 701 North Fifth street, to Dr. E. C. Macy, who purchased the Dixon Bros. dental business. Mr. Mason has been in the profession at Cottage Grove for the past ten years and will come to Grants Pass to take charge of the business about the 20th. Drs. E. P. and H. C. Dixon will leave about June 1 for Newberg, where E. P. has an extensive walnut orchard and fruit ranch. Dr. H. C. will open a dental office.

The reports of the fruit crop failure in the middle states do not improve, and letters received confirm the failure reports. J. D. Wartsbaugh this week received a letter from Iowa in which a friend states that the fruit was entirely destroyed and starting May 1 they had seven days of constant rain. A photograph taken in Ohio on April 15 was received by the Courier publisher which shows a street scene in Norwalk in which mammoth shade trees were broken down by the weight of the snow and the streets were lined with broken branches.

Mrs. W. A. Paddock has received news of the sudden death of her father, Dr. J. P. McIntosh, at his home at Worthington, Ind., on Saturday, April 30. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh had been on a western tour, spending some months at Los Angeles, and later visited Grants Pass. A few days after his return home he took to his bed and died the following day, his death being due to senility. Probably the long journey was too severe for his feeble health. Mr. McIntosh was a prominent man of Indiana, having served in both branches of the legislature. He was a physician, farmer and merchant until the infirmities of age forced him to retire from active life. We have an excellent quality of cotton, rubber lined hose this year, that will give you good satisfaction. Rogue River Hdwe. Co.

Ben Herriott left Saturday for Portland, where he will enter the employ of the Oliver Typewriter Co. Mr. Herriott has been clerking for the Geo. S. Calhoun Clothing Co. for nearly two years past and as he is a young man of good morals and habits, he has many friends.

Dr. D. S. Holton of Merlia was in the city Tuesday evening having some dental work done. The Doctor can tell interesting tales of the early history of southern Oregon for he has been identified with this section for many years. He practiced dentistry in connection with surgery over fifty years ago when the turnkey was the usual method of teeth extraction. He lost his instruments by fire and theft at Ellensburg, a little city at the mouth of the Rogue river which was burned by the Indians in the early days. He was a member of the last territorial legislature and was identified with the history of Oregon. The doctor is now 84 1/2 years old and the census enumerator who took his name states that he is the oldest man on his list.
