A new real estate firm has been established in this city under the firm name of Nipper & McDaniels. Mr. Nipper has been in the real estate business in Grants Pass for a number of years and is well known as one of the oldest established dealers in the city. The new partner, L. E. Daniels, is also an experienced realty man and his business ability is well known here. The new firm will handle lumber, mines and farm property in addition to specializing in city property, rentals and insurance. The office will be in the old location formerly occupied by W. R. Nipper, opposite the post office.

G. H. Carner, Ed Allen and Arthur Fryer have purchased the old Pine Needle factory in the east end of town and are putting in a sash and door factory. The machinery for this new enterprise has already arrived in the city and is being set up. These gentlemen are well known here. Mr. Fryer was formerly manager of the sash and building department of the Williams Bros. Door and Lumber company, resigning this position to go into business for himself. Mr. Allen was in charge of the lumber department of the same company. M. T. Utley has taken Mr. Fryer's place in the Williams Bros. factory. Mr. Carner is one of our most enterprising citizens who never hesitates to invest money where it will do good to Grants Pass.
