

BENSON'S BODY TAKEN THROUGH GRANTS PASS

The body of former Governor Benson and late secretary of state of Oregon passed through Grants Pass yesterday afternoon on board No. 16, bound for Salem. Captain George B. Spencer, of B company, Fourth Infantry, Oregon National Guard, joined the funeral party at Ashland. Captain Spencer was instructed by Adjutant General Finzer to act as one of the escort and to be garbed in full dress uniform.

A request of Governor Benson, made a short time before his death, was that there be no military escort at the funeral. This will be respected by his family and official and intimate friends.

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 18.—The remains of the late Secretary of State Benson were received here late last night from Redlands. Mrs. Benson, Dr. Steiner, Judge H. L. Benson and wife, George E. Houck, of the ordinance department of the Oregon National Guard, and Captain George T. Spencer, of company B, Fourth regiment, of Ashland, accompanied the body. They were met at the depot by a committee selected by the various lodges of which Mr. Benson was a member.

Elks to Officiate

The body was taken to the Elks' Temple, where it lay in state under guard of a squad of local militiamen, commanded by Captain Fred Stewart, of company D, Oregon National Guard, of this city. The funeral was at the Elks' Temple, at 10 o'clock today. The obsequies were in charge of the Roseburg Lodge of Elks, while the services at the grave were conducted by the Oddfellows. District Attorney George Brown delivered the eulogy on behalf of the Elks, and Judge Drian, of Oregon City, as master of ceremonies for the Oddfellows.

All Roseburg Mourns

A proclamation was issued by Mayor Haynes, of Roseburg, ordering every industry in the city to be still during the funeral hour. Flags on all public buildings were at half-mast and the public schools closed that the pupils could attend the funeral.

SALES OF LAND BRING IN DELINQUENT TAXES

Of a total of $224,000 in taxes due Josephine county, including the city of Grants Pass, the sum of $65,000 remains unpaid.

At the sheriff's office it was stated today that of the $65,000, the Southern Pacific Railroad company owes $15,000 for congressional land tax. The company's tax on this land originally amounted to $30,000, but $15,000 of this has been paid.

The recent activity in Josephine county land, as a result of which quite a number of transfers have been made, has caused payments on back taxes to be made in such volume that not a large sum will be carried over as delinquent. New purchasers have seen that taxes were satisfied, either by the original owner or by themselves, and the total foots up a generous sum on the rolls.

It is estimated that when the books are closed October 1 that Josephine county will have collected up its taxes closer than for some years past.

TWO LELAND MEN PUMMEL EACH OTHER

William Light and W. G. Miller, both residents of the Leland country, engaged in a rough and tumble fight this afternoon on Sixth street opposite the Red Front blacksmith shop.

Light and Miller, previous to the encounter, were in a place up town imbibing near beer. They became engaged in a controversy regarding some minor happening in their neighborhood, and warm words grew warmer. The proprietor of the resort invited them to settle their trouble elsewhere, and both left, taking separate paths. Later they met on Sixth street and the wordy war resumed, ending in a physical combat. When a policeman arrived at the scene of battle Light was on top of Miller pouncing the prostrate man in the face. Considerable blood and dirt ornamented both combatants.

Light plead guilty and was fined $10. Miller asked for a trial and was put under bonds of $50.

THREE PINES

The recent cold weather has not been so damaging on the fruit as was feared. Much of the very early has been killed. The prunes that were in blossom during the heavy snow seem to have received but little damage so far as can be known at present. It is reported that the Peterson peach orchard has suffered very much. Also the famous Ahern cherry orchard. It is probable, however, that the first reports will not be entirely verified.

The work of rebuilding the Three Pines Lumber company flume is progressing favorably and another week will see it near completion.

Work on the Corliss hotel building is at a standstill, as all available help is being used on the flume. The family of Mr. Dean has arrived and are now residents of this place. Mr. Dean is going ahead with the construction of his dwelling house.

The last meeting of the glee club was held at the home of Geo. Baer. A very enjoyable evening was spent by the large company present. Some very entertaining numbers were given. The Misses Corliss and Vanderbilt rendered a vocal selection. Mr. Baer and Mr. Croxton convulsed the house with a comedy act that would do credit to many who do not till the soil for a livelihood, as do these sons of soil.

Mrs. Baer, who has been in very poor health much of the winter, has recovered.

R. E. Daniel, store keeper and time keeper for the lumber company at the sawmill, had, the misfortune to cut his left thumb while splitting wood Sunday afternoon. Dr. Loughridge, the physician for the National Hospital association, sent a carriage out and brought him to the South Pacific hospital. The thumb will be saved. Mrs. Daniel accompanied her husband to the hospital.

On a very recent visit to Grants Pass the writer was much impressed with the improvements now going on there. The new hard-surface streets have added greatly to the general appearance and indicate more than any other improvement the change from a country town to one with city conveniences and comforts. The many buildings in course of construction are of a class that shows permanency. The town is surely on the upward grade and is a sort of index to the general improvement in all the country tributary.

BOYATT ON PAROLE FOR ONE YEAR

E. Boyatt, charged with shooting Ed Cardwell near Leland November 27 last, was today allowed to plead to simple assault before Judge Calkins in the circuit court and was sentenced to one year in the county jail.

The court allowed Boyatt his liberty on parole, with the stipulation that he report once a month to Sheriff Smith.

The trouble originated when Cardwell refused to give Boyatt a job at road work.

Charges against Merle Brace, in which a woman now in the asylum was also involved, were dismissed on motion of District Attorney Mulkey.

CROUP CONQUERED

Every Mother Should Read and Remember This

In any home where a child has a tendency to croup, a bottle of HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) should be kept constantly on hand.

A sudden attack of croup with difficult breathing and extreme distress is apt to come on at any time.

Editor Rogue River Courier: In view of the fact that a certain individual, who gives his name as W. M. VanDyke, and who is now stopping in the old McGuire cabin on the Illinois trail, about 13 miles below Selma, has recently been posing as a government official, and in this assumed capacity creating the impression that a great amount of work is to be very shortly undertaken in that locality by the forest service and other branches of the national and state governments, I desire to announce that Mr. Van Dyke is an impostor, and that there is no foundation whatever for his statements, promises of work, etc.

All persons are hereby informed that the forest service will be in no way responsible for any favors which may have been shown to, or promises made by W. M. VanDyke.
