The National Drug store is installing a new soda fountain, which is complete with modern improvements and handsome fixtures. The fountain works automatically and is an iceless electric carbonator, which greatly facilitates the making of sodas, and is installed on the north side of the store, making a handsome addition to the National.

Dr. M. B. Taylor and wife, of Grass Valley have been spending the past few days with relatives and former Grass Valley friends in this city. The doctor, who is a brother-in-law of Lester Heath and F. M. Nichols of this city, is the leading physician of Sherman county and also owns a drug store in his home town. He is one of the largest property holders in Grass Valley, but is very much pleased with this section of Oregon. Dr. Taylor returned Tuesday evening to his home, but Mrs. Taylor will remain for several weeks with relatives and friends.

Wednesday afternoon as C. F. Wittorf stepped to the street from the Clemens' drug store, Christmas, the dog belonging to Chris Eismann, made a lunge at him and there was a lively mix-up for a few minutes. Mr. Wittorf was not slow, however, in landing a well-aimed kick at the dog's head, which sent him reeling back into the store with a howl of pain. The canine's teeth came in close contact with Mr. Wittorf's left hand, leaving marks sufficient to tell of the encounter, although he was not seriously hurt. "Christmas" recovered from his chasteisement in a remarkably short time and was soon barking about the street, although it is probable he will keep shy of Mr. Wittorf.

S. T. Scott and Fred Moos came up from Glendale Wednesday to visit with Grants Pass friends for a short time.

NEW JERSEY BELLE LOSES IN CARD GAME; ROW ON

MONTECLAIR, N. J., April 20.—Just because one of the belles of Montclair was "shaken down" in a bridge whist game here for $40 and her papa made a "holler" when he found it out, Recorder Henry L. Yost announced today that the all-right state gambling laws of 1898 will hereafter be enforced to the letter. The "blue laws" prohibit poker, bridge, shaking dice, raffles and all other games of chance. "Even if only a cent is bet on 'old maid,' it is gambling," says Recorder Yost.

NEW RESIDENT BUYS CITY HOME AND FARM

W. A. Fern, with his family, who recently arrived from Chicago for the purpose of permanently locating in this section, has purchased the Wining ranch on the Applegate, and Mr. Fern is making extensive improvements, which, when completed, will give him a fine farm. He has also purchased a five-room bungalow from Mrs. Martha Wichman, on L street between Fourth and Pine, where his family will reside pending completion of the ranch improvements.
