WAPPENSTEIN CASE
WILL BEGIN TOMORROW

SEATTLE, May 31.—Having completed and sworn in the jury, the opening statement of the prosecution examining one witness, everything was ready for a day of testimony in the C. W. Wappenstein case, but the court granted a holiday. Evidence taken formally will begin tomorrow. Prosecutor Murphy in outlining the things that the state will seek to prove, accused Wappenstein, as police chief, with proposing to build two houses in the restricted district. Wappenstein, Murphy says, telephoned to Secretary of State Nichols that Tupper was all right, and on recommendation, Tupper was granted a lease on the parish house. Murphy says that Clarence Gerald had introduced Wappenstein and Tupper ten days before Wappenstein became police chief. At that time it is alleged Wappenstein told Gerald, "There'll be a chance for all of us to make some money."

OPIMUM SMUGGLER
GETS THREE YEARS

MELBOURNE, May 31.—Opium smuggling into various parts of Australia is a vastly lucrative business, if one is to judge from the facts revealed in a case heard in the courts in Sydney. The crown authorities in making out their case against a young man charged with criminal interest in the business, asserted that he made as much as $850 in the course of a single night. His modus operandi was declared to be as follows: He induced Europeans to bring opium from China to Canada, robbed them there, and then escaped to Queensland in order to dispose of his booty. He was sentenced to three years imprisonment.

A HOPEFUL MESSAGE TO SCALP
SUFFERERS AND MEN WHO'S
HAIR IS THINNING

Dandruff now—bald later. The same is true of scalp diseases. The trouble with the greasy salves and lotions, the so-called dandruff and scalp cures you have tried so far, is that they don't do anything but temporarily relieve the itching and make the dandruff so it doesn't fall until it dries out again. Nothing can cure—really cure such troubles but a real scalp medicine that will kill the germs causing dandruff and scalp disease. Learning from leading fellow druggists throughout America that they had found a whirlwind cure for dandruff, eczema and all diseases of the skin and scalp the C. H. Demaray Drug Store, on proving to the laboratories compounding the treatment that it is the most prominent drug store in this city secured the agency for the remedy. This remedy is ZEMO, the clean, liquid preparation that kills the germ of disease and ZEMO SOAP to wash the scalp or skin clear and clean of the dandruff or scale and by its antiseptic qualities soothe and heal. Sold and guaranteed by druggists everywhere and in Grants Pass by C. H. Demaray.
