

WM. MACK PAROLED FOR SECOND TIME

PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—William Mack, serving a life sentence for murder in the Oregon penitentiary has been paroled a second time and will soon leave for Tacoma, where his family resides, according to word received here today from Salem.

Mack is the convict who was allowed to leave the prison by Governor West early in 1910 and work to pay off a mortgage on his aged father's home at Spokane. He gave his word that he would return at the end of seven months and resume stripes for life. True to his promise, Mack lifted the mortgage, earned a few dollars for his wife and baby and arrived at the prison doors Dec. 31, one day ahead of time.

"You are breaking rules by coming back so soon," said the warden. "I'm going to put you to work."

Then he handed Mack a gun and mounted him on the wall, where the convict stood guard for the next 12 hours. A few hours later Mack's hair had been shorn and his name was again lost and a number substituted.

Content that his parents and wife were in fair circumstances he went willingly to work with a prospect of years of straining labor ahead. Meanwhile, Mack's wife removed to Tacoma, on Governor West's suggestion, it is said. Soon afterward the drab colors of Mack's existence was lighted by the unexpected news that he had been granted a second parole.

Mack killed Miles Carter at Grants Pass, Oregon, in December 1908, during a saloon brawl and was sentenced for life the following month.

FREIGHT CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES PAID HERE

The Southern Pacific company freight claim department has inaugurated a decided improvement in their method of handling loss and damage claims. At certain points on the railroad they have concluded to place in the hands of designated agents authority to make spot settlements. On amounts of fifty dollars or less, and for larger amounts, up to a hundred dollars, claims will be adjusted as soon as they are sent to the claim department where authority will be given for settlement without the usual delays. John M. Isham, the Grants Pass agent, yesterday received authority to settle claims arising in his jurisdiction.

HELPFUL HINTS ON HAIR HEALTH.

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else. No matter how cleanly the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hat-band is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is devised to banish dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, which nourishes the hair roots, causing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that we think that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store. Clemens sells drugs.

NIGHT PROWLER SOUGHT BUT NO TRACE FOUND.

Who was the monster man who attempted to crawl into the second story window of the Crawford rooming house on Fifth street Monday evening, disturbing the peaceful slumbers of Will Crawford and Elmer Harmon, rooming together in a rear room of the house? Will Crawford first saw the man as he was vainly endeavoring to wiggle through the window, which, however, was too small for his enormous body, which Will declares was simply immense. The boy says he was first awakened by hearing stealthy footsteps on the ladder just outside the window and as he sat up in bed, rubbing his eyes, he distinctly saw the huge shoulders of the man and his eyes were blinded by the flash of the dark lantern he carried.

Young Harmon was a sound sleeper and it needed considerable nudging and pinching from his companion to awaken him. Once awake, however, Elmer immediately became the hero of the hour (or several hours) as he armed himself with a 20-30 revolver and at once started in pursuit of the big man, who by this time had disappeared, first thoughtfully replacing the ladder again the side of the woodshed where it was wont to repose and erasing all footprints from the rungs of the ladder and the yard. Night Marshal F. J. Rogers was notified and made a careful search of the premises, but failed to make any startling discoveries.

WHY WOMEN SUFFER Many Grants Pass Women Are Learning the Cure

Women often suffer, not knowing the cause. Backache, headache, dizziness, nervousness, irregular urinary passages, weakness, indigestion.

Each a seeming torture of itself. Together tell of weakened kidneys. Strike at the root—get to the cause.

Quickly give the help the kidneys need.

No remedy endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here's convincing proof from this locality. Mrs. Mary Winterhalter, near W. Jackson street, Medford, Ore., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills with beneficial results when suffering from kidney trouble, and I know of other persons who have taken them with success. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills about a year ago, I have not had the least trouble from my kidneys. This remedy deserves my hearty endorsement."

ASHAMED OF HER FACE

"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Rickard of North Carolina. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema I can say that now there is no sign of that Eczema and that was three years ago." This is but one of thousands of cases in which D. D. D. has simply washed away the skin trouble. D. D. D. cleanses the skin of the germs of Eczema, Psoriasis and other serious skin diseases; stops the itch instantly, and when used with D. D. D. soap the cures seem to be permanent. Nothing like D. D. D. for the complexion. Trial bottle 25 cents, enough to prove the merit of this wonderful remedy.

We can also give you a full size bottle for $1.00 on our absolute guarantee that if this very first bottle fails to give you relief it will cost you nothing. Clemens sells drugs.

SUFFRAGETTES OPEN CAMPAIGN IN GRANTS PASS.

(For The Courier by T. F. Hanley.) A little group of Grants Pass women, under the inspiration of Mrs. A. W. Bartlette and Mrs. Arthur Conklin did themselves proud, when, on last Saturday night on less than 24 hours' notice, they filled the entire lower floor of the opera house with an intelligent, progressive audience of ladies and gentlemen, representing some of the best advanced culture in the community, to hear Mrs. Helen Hoy Greeley, the famous New York lawyer-suffragette, and Miss C. A. Whitney, of California, one of the leaders in the recent California battle of the ballots in which equal suffrage for the fair sex triumphed in the Golden state, lecture on equal political rights for women.

Mrs. Greeley, who was introduced by Judge Durham in one of those felicitous, eloquent and unstilted speeches in the making of which his superior is difficult to find, proved to be one of the most logical, convincing, eloquent platform speakers Grants Pass has listened to; and her perfect enunciation was a delight, and very few American actresses since Ada Rehan's heyday can so enthrall with the human voice. In fact to find her equal as a public speaker, one must go back in the records of noted orators visiting Grants Pass.

Miss Whitney spoke briefly, but eloquently, and described stereotypical scenes from the California suffragette campaign as they were thrown on the canvas by Operator Fiske.

Mrs. Greeley, who had retired to an orchestra seat, did the same for the scenes depicting interesting incidents from the suffragette movement in New York City.

There were some interesting and amusing sidelights. Mrs. Bartlette stated that 25 prominent business men had promised they would occupy seats on the stage. Many of these did not appear. Six beautiful young lady ushers tried vainly to button-hole prominent men in an effort to have them take seats on the stage. Those unaccompanied by their better halves usually acquiesced. One pretty matron, in stern tones, forbade her liege lord and master to do such a terrible thing, and he subsided like a jack-knife, crushed and crestfallen.

The suffragette movement is bounded only by the Anglo-Saxon race, and is, in addition to its political and economic justice, a humanitarian movement that is, we believe, certain of early success.

Mayor Robert Glenn Smith attended the meeting, but was called away during its progress by the sudden illness of his wife, and before his striking, sparkling, polished eloquence could be heard.

E. L. CHURCHILL BUYS HANDSOME BUNGALOW.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fryer have sold their bungalow home on Lawndale avenue to E. L. Churchill who will move his family into their new home in a short time. This house is one of the handsomest bungalows in the city and was built by Mr. Fryer two years ago. The inside is finished with selected wood of the most beautiful grain, while a cobblestone fireplace is among the handsome appointments of the house. Mr. and Mrs. Fryer have not yet fully decided on their future place of residence but think they may go to Los Angeles in the spring. If they remain in Grants Pass they will immediately build another home here.

"RUBE" HERE FROM EAST

A peculiar type of man arrived in Grants Pass yesterday. He wore white spats with cerise buttons, huge gold-rimmed spectacles, a red and green waistcoat and a flashy ebony walking stick set with an immense turquoise. The man's name is Frederick Stuyvesant Werthelmer, and he hails from the effete east—New York, to be explicit, and his role in life is that of advance agent for the Graustark company, which plays Grants Pass at an early date.

Werthelmer came here via Portland, and while waiting for Mr. Hanley, the local theatrical manager to be at liberty, was shown the town by Ira Binns. He asked Mr. Binns to show him some live Indians and buffaloes, begged for a chance to drag the Rogue for gold dust, and was disconsolate when he found no arrow heads for souvenirs.

Werthelmer, for all his insularity, is a charming fellow, and on taking his train to San Francisco, admitted that he was a "boob," to really think Indians in warpaint could be found in so modern a community. It is his first trip to the Pacific coast.

CHANCE FOR BOYS AND GIRLS TO WIN FAME

Before the first March winds blow the greatest series of tryouts ever held in the schools of Oregon will be under way. The boys and the girls of the state are going to determine "who is who" in gardening, farming, carpentry, cooking, sewing and in raising chickens, ducks and pigs. Enthusiasm for this state-wide series of industrial contests is waxing warmer than it has ever been for contests along athletic lines.

The plan is for every county superintendent to enlist the support of his teachers in explaining the plan to the children and interesting them in the work, and to secure the cooperation of commercial clubs, bankers, and business men in obtaining prizes for their local or county fairs. These county or local premium lists may be made out independently of the state list, but in order that children competing at a local or county fair may also be in line for state prizes the local or county list should include the articles on the state list, which are field corn, pop corn, sweet corn, watermelons, muskmelons, pumpkins, squashes, potatoes, cabbage, grain selections, bird houses, piece of furniture, mechanical toy, labor-saving device for home, bread, canned fruit, jelly, mending, darning, aprons, dresses, asters, sweet peas, chickens, ducks and pigs.

A bulletin of information and instruction, including the state prize list, will soon be sent out to the school children, one for every home. All the boys and the girls now need to do is to go to work. If they want to compete in gardening they should at once secure a plot of ground, which they may have plowed. If boys expect to win prizes in woodwork they should begin practicing with their tools. If girls wish to carry off laurels in cooking, and sewing they must begin early either at school or at home. If it is the poultry contest that lures most settings of eggs should be secured from breeders of pure strains of chickens or ducks. Or if hog raising seems most attractive, the competitor should secure a thoroughbred pig and start to feeding and caring for it. There is nothing to prevent a boy or girl from competing in all these lines.

"HOW WE ARE GOUGED" FROM SOCIALIST VIEW.

The socialist lyceum course opened Sunday night at the opera house and the large and appreciative audience were treated to an eloquent address by Rev. E. A. Contrell of Los Angeles who was called in to fill the date allotted to Eugene Wood on account of his losing his voice.

The growth of civilization and the different gouges, as he expressed it, were traced through theocracy, when several Gods represented by their federal priests, had to be appeased by gifts and tithes. Later, he said, religion became democratized, then through monarchies, when the nobility gouged the politics, then became democratized and now the few large capitalists are enjoying almost a monopoly in gouging. He stated that this could be overcome by democratizing the industries. He showed through all this growth that each change was opposed by the majority but that later developments proved the change beneficial.

He spoke of the men now engaged in the socialist movement as representing the brain and heart of the world and asserted, boldly naming several leaders, that one cannot be a great preacher, editor or teacher without becoming aware that this movement offers the best opening for their efforts. He announced himself as religious and a believer in prayer.

He sold several copies of his book "Socialism and the World's Intellectuals." This book was so greatly liked that the socialist local bought 118 copies for local distribution.

Next comes the joint discussion between Hon. Robt. G. Smith and N. A. Richardson February 11.

CANADIAN CROP LARGE.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 31.—An enormous increase in the crops of Canada is shown today by the announcement that 76,128,000 bushels of grain were marketed in 1911 against 55,518,000 bushels for the same period in 1910.

A. C. Holcomb, manager of the Peerless Clothing company, left for the north Wednesday, going to Eugene, Salem, Portland and other points to look after business matters.

COWS ARE PROFITABLE

For everybody if a cream separator is used to get the butter fat out of the milk. No matter whether you are a farmer or dairyman, no matter how many cows you have, four or forty, a cream separator will make them more profitable. The advantage of the Dairymaid cream harvester is that it gets all the butter fat out of the milk, saves all the profit for you. If you leave part of the butter fat in the skim-milk you are losing profit that you can save by using a separator. The Dairymaid cream harvester is one of the simplest, lightest running and most practical separators on the market. It skims close and is easy to clean. It saves work in the dairy and puts dollars in your pocket. We will gladly further explain the merits of the Dairymaid cream harvester and show you wherein this separator differs from others and why it is better.
