SELMA ITEMS.

The weather is all one can ask for and the farmers are all hard at work plowing to get in the spring crops. Gardening will be the next thing in order.

A jolly crowd met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Sauer, the occasion being a surprise and birthday party for Mr. Sauer, who was more than surprised. Over 60 guests attended from far and near. Games and dancing were indulged in. At midnight a bounteous repast was enjoyed. All departed for their homes wishing the host and hostess the best in life for years to come.

Frank Sargent and family have had as their guests the last week Mr. Sargent's mother and sister from Williams. They returned to their home Sunday.

The orchestra practice dances at the Deer Creek Grange hall have been well attended and the music is something extra. There will be another at the hall Wednesday and after grange Saturday night, February 10.

Several from Deer creek attended the club dance and masquerade at Kerby Saturday night and all enjoyed themselves.

Ralph Tuttle and Will Mastin went to Grants Pass Monday to bring in the piano that the grange has purchased for the hall.

Mrs. R. L. Tolin, who has been sick with the la grippe, has recovered.

Marion Crooks, Miss Dama Crooks and Miss Marie Buskirk attended the dance at Enterprise hotel Saturday night.

J. R. Tucker and family and Ed Perkins went to Kerby Friday. Mr. Perkins going to consult a doctor concerning his baby.

Mr. White made a business trip to Kerby Monday.

Mr. Kricher returned from Portland Saturday.

John Eggars and son, Earl, came from Taklima Saturday, returning Monday.

Several men of this community spent Monday evening with A. V. Smitt, enjoying the evening with cards.

Mrs. Bert Hogue received word last Friday of the severe illness of her mother, who lives in southeastern Oregon. She left on the first train south to be with her.

We are glad to state that Levi Phillips is able to be out again. Mrs. Phillips and grandson returned to their home last week.

Mr. Fox, who has been on upper Deer creek for the last two months, left Tuesday to be with his daughter, Miss Ellen, who is in the hospital at Ashland. Miss Fox taught the Selma school two years ago.

MURPHY.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Carson attended the theater at Grants Pass Wednesday, witnessing "The Rosary." James Lindsay and Harry Orr were calling on friends at Murphy last Sunday.

O. H. Perry of Grants Pass was out looking at his farm one day last week and also calling on friends in this community.

M. M. Ainsworth and family are enjoying a visit from their friend, Mrs. Bardale of Oklahoma.

Mrs. Potet, after an absence of several months in California, has again taken up her residence at Murphy.

Mrs. J. Darnelle returned home from the hospital at Grants Pass last week much improved in health.

Mrs. and Mrs. George H. Tubbs and Adolph Maier of the Michigan mine attended the mining congress at Medford last week, returning home Monday.

Things are beginning to look like business at the Oregon Strong Ledge (Michigan) mine nowadays. They have about 12 men employed and expect to have their machine ready to begin crushing ore next week.

Murphy grange met Friday evening, February 2, with a full attendance, all members and several visitors of other granges being present. After other business a good literary program was rendered which was much enjoyed by all. Lunch was also served which was enjoyed still more. Next meeting will be held the first Friday evening in March.

Ed Smith, one of the miners employed by the Oregon Strong Ledge Mining company, met with a painful and serious accident at the mine a few days ago. He was working in the shaft when a heavy plank that one of the men was lowering with a rope, slipped out of the loop and fell on Mr. Smith, knocking him insensible. His collar bone was badly broken and several cuts were received on the head. Dr. Sweeney was called and attended to the injuries. Mr. Smith is now able to be out, but it will probably be several weeks before he is able to resume his duties at the mine.

A. M. Woodford, Medford postmaster, is in Grants Pass, visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Fred A. Williams.

Mrs. Roy McClellan arrived in Grants Pass Tuesday from Coquille, Oregon, coming on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Cook. Mr. McClellan will join his wife the latter part of the week and they will remain here for several weeks.

Mrs. Mary J. Capp, who has been visiting with her son, Frank Capp, leaves this evening for her home in Denver, Colo.
