Shipping Hops—
The 100-bale shipment of hops sold by Flanagan and Cornell to Joe Harris of Salem, was loaded on the cars Saturday and are billed direct to New York.

Oregon Pioneer Association—
The 40th annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer association will meet in Portland on Thursday, June 20, at the Masonic temple. The business meeting of the association is held the night previous. Reduced rates are allowed on all railroads.

Buys River Heights Property—
H. P. Harmon, building contractor, has purchased a five acre tract in River Heights addition of Miss Horton, and has commenced improving it as a home place. He has already built a temporary summer home and will later in the season build a modern bungalow.

Child Breaks Arm—
Ralph Scovill, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Scovill, fell from the elevated floor of a tent house Friday afternoon and broke one of the bones in his left arm. The lad was brought in by automobile from the Edgerton mill on Pickett creek and Dr. Loughridge reduced the fracture.

To Etna Mills by Auto—
J. M. Tetherow and Lester Coburn left Monday by automobile for Etna Mills, Cal. Mrs. Tetherow and niece, Miss Dora Frietag, who has been visiting her for a short time, and Mrs. Coburn left by train Tuesday morning, and will meet the gentlemen after crossing the Siskiyou mountains. They will spend a week or more with Mrs. Tetherow's sister at Etna Mills.

Lost Three Fingers—
Jack Thomason lost three fingers of his left hand Friday while blasting open logs with dynamite. Thomason carelessly held two caps in his hand while he held the end of the fuse in order to apply the match. Some sparks from the sputtering fuse lodged in the caps and an explosion followed. Thomason still has a thumb and fore finger on his left hand.

To Patent Mining Property—
George W. Lent of Portland, president of the Hidden Treasure Mining company, was in the city Saturday on business connected with securing government patent to the property, which is located on Mount Baldy. The company has three claims on which they have done assessment work for 10 years past, and have three tunnels, two of which are in the mountain 100 feet or more. There have been two men working on the property for some months past. Mr. Lent stated that there was no decision yet as to what development of the property there would be or how it would be equipped.

Fake Beggar Arrested—
The only arrest of circus day in this city was that of Warren Marthan, who said he hailed from Redding, Cal. Marthan was soliciting funds for the alleged purpose of assisting a sister, who, he said, was totally blind, and to buy for her an "Oregon farm." The story would not stand investigation in the police court, and Marthan was given ten days in the city bastille.

More California Chicks Arrive—
Messrs. Stinebaugh and Hare received Friday evening another shipment of baby chicks from Santa Rosa, California, this shipment consisting of 4,200, and making a total of over 16,000 received and distributed among the Grants Pass poultrymen so far this season. This present shipment was for the Stinebaugh ranch, and was 800 short of the number expected.

Mensch Appointed U. S. Surveyor—
Fred Mensch has recently been appointed a United States surveyor, a permanent appointment under the civil service rules. For some years he has been a deputy surveyor on contract work. Mr. Mensch returned Saturday from the lower Illinois river, where he made a survey of the Big Bend placer property and also a resurvey of the Barr mining property on Briggs creek.

After Bootleggers and Gamblers—
P. J. Maxfield was brought in from Merlin Wednesday to serve out a fine of $100 and costs assessed against him by Justice Charles Crow this morning. Maxfield was arrested for selling liquor in Merlin Saturday evening, the evidence showing that he had driven over from Grants Pass with the contraband goods, and was retelling it at a social dance being held in the neighboring town. Maxfield had recently been employed in a blacksmith shop at Merlin. Another case in Justice Crow's court this morning was that of Billy Morrison, proprietor of a Merlin billiard hall, on a charge of allowing gambling in his place of business. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25, which he paid.

Former Resident Married—
Wm. D. McIntosh, formerly of this city, but now of Golden, Ore., and Miss Hazel Perkins of Golden, were married yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, by Rev. I. H. Teel, of the Christian church. The happy couple left on the evening train for Golden, where they will make their future home.

It would surprise you to know of the great good that is being done by Chamberlain's Tablets. Darius Downey, of Newberg Junction, N. Bancroft, residing on 11th street, between A and B, spends the winter season lecturing and the summer season on his little 3-acre tract among the fruit and flowers, resting and gaining strength for the next season's tour. Mr. Bancroft's place is a bower of beauty and at the present time he has 102 varieties of roses, and 18 distinct varieties of fruit in bearing. Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft take great pleasure with their flowers.

AUTOMOBILE IN DITCH.

Dr. J. C. Smith's auto went into the ditch this morning when the doctor was driving on the Murphy road in company with Messrs. Goss and Hall. Salt Lake City mining men, who are here investigating mining properties. The doctor lost control of the steering apparatus of the machine, when it headed for the timber by the roadside, but was unable to successfully negotiate the ditch. Mr. Goss was thrown headlong from the machine and his back severely sprained. The other gentlemen escaped injury, but the front axle and one wheel of the machine was badly twisted.

Snows at Preston Peak—
C. E. Phillips returned Tuesday from a trip into the Preston Peak country looking after some copper mining property owned by Medford people. Mr. Phillips was accompanied by his son, and they had 12 days of rain and snow, and as they were unable to take a pack horse in they had to carry everything they used, and were obliged to sleep out in the snow and rain. On the north hill slopes the snow is yet four to eight feet deep.

Thanks for Liberal Collection—
General Logan Woman's Relief Corps wish to thank the congregation for the generous collection so liberally given at the Memorial services Sunday morning held in the Presbyterian church. The money will be carefully and wisely expended in the charitable and beneficial work of the order.

Every drain pipe in the home—sink, toilet, bathtub—should be flushed once a week with hot water and Babbitt's Lye. This little attention means cleanliness, purity of atmosphere; often saves plumbing bills and prevents sickness. A mere disinfectant destroys only the odor while the dirt and grease remain.

Babbitt's Lye
dissolves the filth and removes the cause of bad odors and disease germs.

The Babbitt Fry-off-top Can keeps the Lye good until used.
