PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNeill of Oakland, Cal., are here for a ten day's visit to their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Stutenroth.

H. G. Wright of Galice has received a new Ford Commercial Roadster through the agency of Joseph Moss.

R. H. Gillfillan has gone to Myrtle Point, in Coos county, where he will spend the summer doing cement work.

Judge Wurtsbaugh will leave Monday for Oakland, Cal., on a combined business and pleasure trip. He will be absent a week.

Rev. J. L. Green and little son returned Thursday morning from Woodburn, where Mr. Green has been attending the annual camp meeting of the Church of God.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Norton returned Wednesday from a two-day's camping trip at McVeys, near Holland, in the Illinois valley. They traveled in the new Ford auto, and the trip was made without mishap.

E. L. Miller and son, A. W. Miller, who, with their families have recently come here from the state of Washington to locate, and have taken up homesteads and mining claims about fifteen miles out, were transacting business in this city Wednesday.

A. E. Glossop left Thursday for the Coos Bay country, which district he will look over with a view of locating if it suits him. Mrs. Glossop has gone to Wilderville, where she will remain till they are permanently located elsewhere.

Marriage Licenses were granted Wednesday by the county clerk to Enoch Jasper Garrison and Anna Driscoll, both of Kerby, and to Frank E. Dutter and Olive A. Bailey, of Grants Pass.

Grants Pass Man in Hotel Fire—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barrie have received a letter from their son, Frank, who is in Portland, telling of his narrow escape from death in the recent burning of the Templeton lodging house. He was asleep on an upper floor when the fire broke out, and when he awoke the flames were coming through the floor into his room. He was nearly overcome with smoke, but was rescued by a fireman, though slightly burned.

Former Station Agent Visits—R. K. Montgomery, the Southern Pacific agent at Sheridan, Ore., arrived Wednesday evening and has been visiting old time friends. It will be remembered that he was the railroad agent in this city previous to the coming of Mr. Isham and had been in charge of affairs here two or three years. He has twice been employed by the company in this city, the first time some 15 or 16 years ago. He has many friends in Grants Pass, who are always glad to receive a visit from him.

County Prisoners Work on Roads—The three men who have been residing at the county jail are now helping improve Josephine county roads. Messrs. Hogue and Akers, who were serving out sentences imposed by Judge Holman for the illegal sale of liquor, are employed on road work in the vicinity of Kerby, and Maxfield, convicted on a like charge, is at work on the Hays hill grade. County prisoners who elect to do road work rather than lay out time in jail, are allowed one dollar per day in addition to their board.

Douglas Pioneers Locate

C. P. Totten and family, pioneer residents of Douglas county, have moved here from Glendale to become permanent residents of Grants Pass. They are residing at 602 West C. street. Mr. and Mrs. Totten are parents of Mrs. R. H. Creager of this city.

Grants Pass Day at Ashland

In the official program issued for the Chautauqua session at Ashland, Grants Pass day and W. C. T. U. days are transposed, the proper date for Grants Pass day being Wednesday, July 10th, on which date the people of this city will furnish the musical program.

Circuit Court July 5th

Judge F. M. Calkins, who is now in Portland assisting the circuit judges of that city in clearing up their dockets, will be in Grants Pass to convene an adjourned term of the circuit court for Josephine county on Friday, July 5. No jury will be summoned and only equity cases, motions and other matters will be heard.

Coming to Grants Pass

Frank Bailey, who a few days ago sold his store at Provolt to L. A. Moore, of Baker county, was in Grants Pass today arranging to move his family to this city while he is looking over several business propositions for an investment. He rented Ed. Blinn's house on C street, near Second, and will take possession of it the last of this week.

Judge Jewell Inspects Road

Judge Stephen Jewell of the county court went by stage to Love Station Wednesday to inspect the work being done on Hays hill, near that point. This work is in charge of Con Fenner, and the judge states that it is progressing finely, and would greatly improve the highway to the Kerby district. It will be completed within a few days.

DEATH ENTERS THE VOORHIES HOME

MRS. HANNAH M. VOORHIES, MOTHER OF A. E. VOORHIES, PASSES AWAY AT HER HOME IN PORTLAND.

A dispatch from Portland, received in this city Sunday evening at 6:30, announced the death of Mrs. Hannah M. Voorhies, the mother of A. E. Voorhies, proprietor of The Courier. Mrs. Voorhies had been in failing health for some months, but a letter was received by the morning mail Sunday announcing that she was better and her relatives here felt encouraged over the good news, but later the telegraph brought the sad announcement of her death. A. E. Voorhies took train No. 16 Sunday evening and reached the parental home in Portland on Monday morning. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. J. Staub officiating. Interment was made in the beautiful Mt. Scott cemetery.

Deceased was well and favorably known in Grants Pass as she and her husband were accustomed to make long visits with their son in this city. Mrs. Voorhies was a member of the Sunnyside Congregational church of Portland. She leaves a husband and two sons, Chester R., residing in Portland, and Amos E. in Grants Pass. There are yet living six of her brothers and sisters of a family of eleven children. This lady was an exemplary character—a true mother in Israel, who had kept the faith and lived for those whom she loved and who loved her.

Hannah M. Earle was born February 5, 1841 at Leicester, Mass. While very young her father died and her mother went to Oakland county, Mich., with a large family. She went to live with an uncle, and at the close of the war was married to J. N. Voorhies on his return from the front. They went to live on a farm six miles from Greenville, Mich., then a pioneer country. After 10 years on the farm they removed to Stanton, in the same county, where Mr. Voorhies went into business and there they made their home for another 10 years. In 1891, Mrs. Voorhies came west to Portland to join her husband who had preceded her, and lived there until her death with the exception of the time spent in Grants Pass.

The deceased was a woman in delicate health for 40 years but always active and she always spent her moments of rest with her needle sewing for others, and many friends cherish articles of fine needlework done by her own hands even though crippled by rheumatism.

The last few months of her life she was unable to walk and during the last weeks did not again take up her needle which had been her constant companion for so many years. She leaves many friends both here and in Portland, who will mourn her death.

MANY JERSEY CATTLE ON THE OPEN RANGE

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bigelow, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Topping and her daughter, Miss Hazel, were in Grants Pass today, the ladies shopping and Mr. Bigelow attending to some business matters.

Until last year Mr. Bigelow was one of the largest stock raisers in Rogue River valley, having from 400 to 600 cattle which he pastured on the Gray-back mountain range, and a saddle horse was his ever-present mode of travel. Now he rides in a fine auto and his clanking spurs, saddle, horse and dogs, as also his cattle on a thousand hills are of the past for he has gone into the dairy and creamery business. He has 48 head of cows, all high grade Jerseys selected from the most noted herds in the Willamette valley, that are each averaging above a pound of butter per day. These cows he keeps in the broad alfalfa pastures on his fine 400-acre farm in Williams valley. He is one of the heavy stockholders and president of the Applegate-Williams creamery at Provolt.

INDICT PORTLAND MEN.

PORTLAND, June 27.—Mayor Rueshlight, Chief of Police Slover and Captain of Detectives Baty were indicted today by the county grand jury in connection with the charges made by Deputy District Attorney Collier that the city detectives, acting under orders, had attempted to bribe him. The exact charge is not known.

Clifford Maddux and Frank O. Reed, former police chiefs, also were indicted. All the defendants are charged with attempting to bribe Deputy District Attorney Collier. It is charged that $400 was offered Collier to obtain the dismissal of a true bill charging Reed and Maddux with extortion. It is asserted that the alleged offering of money to Collier was part of a plot to "get the goods on" Collier, as a grafter and arrest him. Chief of Police Slover and Mayor Rueshlight admitted knowledge of the plot, saying it was legitimate to use such methods as they believed Collier dishonest and thought they could thus expose him.

Collier directed the grand jury a few weeks ago when that body brought in a report severely criticizing the police department for unclosing disorderly houses and other places operating in defiance of law.

MOVES AGAINST REBELS.

CHIHUAHUA, June 27.—With federal General Huerta sending his full force of 6,000 troops against the rebel strongholds at Bachinaba, 46 miles from here, and confidently asserting that he will be in Chihuahua within five days, the crisis in the Mexican revolution is believed to be at hand today.

The rebels, well entrenched, and strongly fortified, are awaiting the attack with a force equal to that of the federals.

General Huerta has moved his artillery up to within seven miles of the rebels. With this he will attack them from the center, while he has sent out two flanking columns to attack from either side.

Consternation reigns here among the foreign residents, many of whom have raised the flag of their own nations over their dwellings. It is thought that in case of defeat the rebels will flee into Chihuahua, which is now under their control, burning bridges behind them. In this event a disorganized fight is looked for, ending with rioting and looting within the city.
