HILLSBORO, Cal., July 16.—Several scores of the best detectives in the state, imported especially to protect valuables at the Whitman-Crocker $100,000 wedding, are peeved. Burglars stole $1,000 in jewelry from a nearby mansion under their very noses.

LONG BEACH, Cal., July 16.—Twenty months ago Mrs. Charles Hamilton cut a slot in the top of a five gallon oil can and put it behind the counter in her husband's store for stray pennies. The can was opened last night. It contained 19,879 coppers. Mrs. Hamilton is "going east."

NEW BATTLESHIP STUCK IN THE MUD. WILMINGTON, Del., July 16.—A dozen tugs, after several hours' work, today managed to pull the big new battleship Wyoming into deep water from the mud bank in the Delaware river, where she had rested all night, and she continued her voyage. The fighting machine will be given her speed trial off the main coast tomorrow.

HETTIE GREEN, 78, JOINS EPISCOPAL CHURCH. NEW YORK, July 16.—As a result of long urging on the part of Father Elmendorf, a distant relative, Hettie Green, the richest woman in the world, is a member of the Episcopal church today, following her baptism in her 78th year. HOPKINS WOULD SUCCEED LORIMER IN U. S. SENATE. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 15.—Governor Deneen today called on Attorney General Stead and asked for an opinion as to his power to appoint a successor to Senator Lorimer, ousted from the senate Saturday. Immediately after his conference with the attorney general, the governor said that he expected to dispose of the matter within the next few days. Former Senator Hopkins, the nominee at the primary before the 1909 legislature, has made no direct plea to Deneen that he be named, but he is using all his influence to that end.
