FOREST SERVICE IS

A CIVILIZING AGENT.

Uncle Samuel with his forestry service has destroyed much of the romance that has always attached to the "silent places." A trip to the mountain fastnesses has about lost that air of mystery that formerly enshrouded it, for now everywhere in the "wilds" one sees the evidences of an encroaching civilization. No longer can the hiker return with tales of the great number of miles covered, miles measured in his mind and tallied in blisters on his toes, for uncle has marked each mile along the trail, and the number covered by our hero between suns has diminished accordingly. And then too the hiker in the hills can report to the folks at home each evening, for the network of wires now carries the telephone to the farthest mountain top.

The portion of the Siskiyou forest reserve in Josephine county will be the playground of the people for generations to come, and it is becoming at once accessible and convenient. Supervisor Macduff has recently returned from a trip into the reserve where the government has completed miles of telephone line and made plans for many other miles. One line now connects through to the coast at Gold Beach, situated at the mouth of the Rogue. A line was already built as far as The Rand, a placer mine that is operated by the Alameda Consolidated Mines Co., below Galice, and the government wire continues from there on to Blahie, at the Big Bend of the Rogue, forty miles below, where it ties on to a line that follows up the Rogue from Gold Beach, completing the wire to the sea. The service will a little later build a line from Blahie to Agnes, at the mouth of the Illinois river.

A second line will be strung up Mule creek to Eden Valley, a distance of eleven miles, where it will be connected with the wire of the Cooks Bay Fire Patrol association, and the extensive system operated by that company. From Eden Valley the forest service wire will be run to West Fork, on the Southern Pacific railway.

These miles of wire are not hung for the mere accommodation of sportsmen and outers, however, but are part of the complex system through which the government is now conserving its natural resources. On all the highest mountain peaks telephone stations are erected, and at each a forest ranger is kept during the season when danger of forest fires is greatest. Each morning at earliest daybreak this ranger must call up the head ranger to show that he is "on the job." At nightfall he again reports, and at any hour of the day he must be within hearing of the bell. His duty is to man all parts of the forest that can be seen from his elevated position, and the first appearance of an incipient blaze is to be reported to the head ranger, who will dispatch men within an hour to fight it and save the endangered timber.

At each station a telephone box of the "police" model is installed. This telephone is both fire, water and bullet proof, but can be opened at any time by the traveler and the operator at central called. The wires are hung with sufficient slack that falling trees will not break them.

Work upon the Rogue river trail is to commence within a few days by the forestry service. For the improvement of this old highway into the mountainous country, the county of Josephine recently appropriated $600, and the forestry service will add $1,200 more, making a total of $1,800, which will go a long way toward building a trail that will turn the trade of the lower Rogue to this district. Among the more important improvements contemplated is the cutting out of the switchboard at Bunker creek, the bridging of Kelsey creek, and the taking of the trail off bed rock. In addition to this the service is putting up metal signs at all places where trails diverge, distances being given to points in each direction. Each mile is likewise marked by a metal number, the distances having been accurately determined by means of a bicycle wheel with cyclometer attachment.

The Siskiyou reserve contains some of the grandest hunting grounds of the west; the streams are filled with trout, and the lower Rogue has scenery that rivals America's best. The improvements which the forestry service is making in the interests of conservation have a value equally as great in that they make available to a greater number of attractions that have heretofore been open to the few only.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH LAYING MORE CABLES.

Workmen have been busy for a week or more digging a trench across the railroad ground along Sixth street and on Saturday they laid a cable from the Postal telegraph office on Sixth street to connect with the company's through lines on the poles on F street. A new switch board is also being placed in the office and when all work is finished the Grants Pass office of the Postal company will be connected with all the Postal wires and will have a long distance telephone service installed, and it is claimed, with tolls much less than now effective with the other company.

It will require about two weeks for the completion of the work.

22ND ANNIVERSARY WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

The Modern Woodman hall was the scene of a merry gathering Monday evening, November 18, when the Logan Woman's Relief Corps entertained in honor of the organization's 22nd birthday. The color scheme of "Old Glory" was carried out in the decorations with patriotic effect, and vases of roses and chrysanthemums were arranged artistically in hall and dining room. At 6 o'clock a chicken pie supper was served to the nearly 200 guests present.

The evening was terminated with several moving pictures shown on the screen by Mr. Rowell, a piano solo by Mrs. Rowell accompanied by Garver Lacy on the violin, and a history of Gen. Logan corps by Mrs. Harriett Patrick. Gen. Logan corps No. 25 was organized in the afternoon of November 18, 1890, in the old Odd Fellows hall by Department President Mary H. Ellis of J. B. Mathews corps No. 11 of Forest Grove. The officers elected were: President, Alice Kramer; senior vice, Alice Carson; junior vice, Louise Crockett; treasurer, Amelia Pool; chaplain, Harriet Patrick; conductor, Phoebe Axtell; guard, Nellie Mott; assistant conductor, Anna Colby; assistant guard, Elizabeth Griffith; secretary, Tilly Powell. The newly elected officers were installed that evening with the comrades as invited guests. A jolly social time and a banquet closed the memorable day.

Mrs. Patrick said that because their name was "Relief Corps," they thought they must relieve everybody and if the committee did not report enough needy ones at each meeting, the charitable and kind hearted members would canvass the town, fearing some needy one had been neglected or overlooked. For funds to carry on this work, "pound socials," "10 cent socials," dinners on election day, Fourth of July and excursion days, chicken pie suppers, rummage sales and the "Old Maids' Convention," given twice in the opera house, netted $125. Also the collections on Memorial Day amounted to a large sum, for which the corps is ever grateful. In patriotic work $142.15 has been spent for flags, banners and bunting, and have helped purchase school flags scattered along the line from Astoria to Ashland. Besides several hundreds of dollars used in local relief work and turned over to the post in the past 22 years, money has been sent outside to help the Kansas flood, the Galveston flood and the San Francisco earthquake sufferers. Money has been sent to the Anderson prison fund, to the Lincoln Association fund and to the National Soldiers' home. This corps give liberally toward the building and furnishing the cottages at the soldiers' home at Roseburg and helped pay for the monument in Portland, erected to the memory of the Oregon volunteers; also $5 to the monument fund for Loyal Women and every year money is sent to the Southern Memorial and Red Cross funds. We have cared for the veterans, the widow and orphan, have nursed the sick and buried the dead and helped scatter flowers on their graves Decoration Day.

Rev. Robert McLean was called on for the closing address. He said he was in doubt just how to address the newly enfranchised woman and related some amusing incidents relative to the newer order of equality, and frankly admitted he would not like to be told by his equal comrade he must stay at home and tend the baby at night, while she went on picket duty. Mr. McLean paid a glowing tribute to the grand work that has been done in the past and was being done by the Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic. On their charter hanging in the lodge room are Mesdames Lucy McLean, Roxana Green, Harriet Patrick, Elizabeth Griffith, Amelia Pool, Alice Brown, Phoebe Axtell, Nellie Mott, Anna Colby and Mary Chausse. Misses Alice Carson, Tilly Powell, Carrie Farr, Alice Smith and Lou Crockett. Only two of the above charter members are identified with Gen. Logan corps today, Mrs. Harriet Patrick and Roxana Green. Since that faraway day, 249 more names have been added. Gen. Logan, with its hundred members, is one of the strongest and most active corps in the Oregon department. Its keynote has ever been onward, while faithfully performing its obligations of fraternity, charity and loyalty.

TWO YOUNG MEN TRY FOR EASY MONEY.

A couple of young fellows have been working a game in the Applegate district which seems to have the appearance of a skin game. They are traveling on foot stating that they were unable to secure a rig in Grants Pass as the teams were all hired out. They claim to be selling stoves, and produce a box of envelopes, a number of which are to contain prize numbers, and the person drawing a prize number gets the stove for $5, which amount they are to pay in advance and the stove will be shipped immediately.

Strange to say, a number of Applegate residents have drawn "prize" envelopes and advanced the required $5.

LEADER FOR ARREST OF GENERAL OROZCO.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—Deputy United States Marshal Irvin Dingle stated today that his office had received no word, official or unofficial, regarding a report made for the arrest of Pascual Orozco, Mexican revolutionary leader, and that he has no information that would lead him to believe that Orozco is in Los Angeles.

Dingle's statement was made after a thorough investigation of reports that Orozco was visiting his wife here and would be arrested on a federal warrant charging violation of the neutrality laws.

LUCILLE CAMERON RELEASED.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Lucille Cameron of Minneapolis, the 19-year-old white girl, held in jail as a witness against Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, was released today by United States Judge Carpenter. The girl's release was secured by her mother, Mrs. E. Cameron-Falconet, who signed a bond which insures the appearance in court of her daughter at any time called.

ANOTHER NEWS-PAPER FOR SEATTLE.

SEATTLE, Nov. 25.—E. H. Wells, former editor of the Seattle Star, is completing plans today to start another evening paper in this city. Wells and John P. Hartman, well known attorneys, have organized the Sun Publishing company and announce that the first copy of it will be issued in February.

CORVALLIS WOMEN BALLOT.

CORVALLIS, Nov. 25.—Returns from the bridge bond election show that 311 women of this city constituting over half of those voting, cast their ballots. The total vote was less than 600 and practically all of the women voted affirmatively.

TWELVE RELATIVES KILLED IN MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

KAMLOOPS, B. C., Nov. 25.—Twelve relatives murdered in Mexico, including father, mother, three brothers and three sisters, is the horrifying intelligence conveyed in a telegram this morning to Miss Gertrude Bock, a millionaire of this city. The massacre was perpetrated by Mexican rebels and occurred October 15 on the ranch occupied by Mr. Bock at Pleasant Valley, a short distance from Mexico City. He was an American citizen and the authorities have been trying to locate the daughter for a month. The young woman is prostrated at the terrible news.

IDAHO SUGAR FACTORY BEING MOVED TO UTAH.

NAMPA, Idaho, Nov. 25.—Workmen are busy today preparing for the demolition of the million dollar sugar factory of E. P. Dyer & Company, said to be the largest in the state. The plant is being moved to Spanish Fork, Utah, where the machinery and structural work from the Idaho factory will be shipped. The Idaho factory was built in the summer of 1906 and has been closed for the past three years.

YACHT RACE FOR 1915.

SEATTLE, Nov. 25.—All comers are challenged by the members of the Seattle Yacht club, to meet its entry in a race to be held in the exposition regatta in 1915, the course to extend from San Francisco around the Farallone Islands and back, for sail boats under 50 feet. Representatives of the club now at San Francisco have been authorized to arrange the rules for the race with the regatta committee.

O. A. C. BAND WILL VISIT TEN CITIES.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Ore., Nov. 25.—A schedule of a dozen concerts, besides the approaching home concert, has been announced by the director of the school military band of the Oregon Agricultural College.

Capt. Harry Beard has arranged for the boys to visit ten cities of western Oregon during the Christmas vacation. Leaving the campus on Christmas eve, they will first go to Cottage Grove, where they will play both afternoon and evening on Christmas day in the moving picture theatre. The next day they go to Grants Pass, where they will give a concert under the auspices of the high school. There, as in Medford and other cities, they hope to assist the high school boys in organizing their own bands.

On Friday, Dec. 27, they will play in Medford, and after playing in Ashland under the auspices of the National Guard Saturday night, they will return to Medford for a sacred concert Sunday afternoon. The next week's programme begins with a concert at Roseburg Monday night under the auspices of the national guard. On Tuesday the same organization will have charge of the concert at Albany. Then the boys will cross the river to the west side for a series of four concerts at Dallas, McMinnville, Hillsboro, and Newberg.

The band will include thirty pieces and all of the men are players of experience. As they have furnished all the music for the Saturday matinee dances, at the college, to which their programs have given the name "Band Informals," and have played at several convocations also, as well as for military drills, they have had much practice together, and expect to offer their audiences excellent music.

They are to give their first concert of the year in the Corvallis opera house December 13, and are planning for their college audiences some "classy college stunts."

GENERAL SALAZAR MARCHES TOWARD CASAS GRANDES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—That the Mexican rebel leader, General Salazar, is marching toward Casas Grandes, is stated in a dispatch received today from General E. Z. Steever, commanding the United States troops on the border.

Steever states that Salazar has boasted that he will occupy the city within five days.

PRESIDENT SAMUEL GOMPERS THREATENED PNEUMONIA.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor is seriously ill here today, threatened with vanced age. Gompers' friends are vanced age. Gompers' friends are greatly worried over his condition.

The convention of the Building Trades department of the federation opened today. The general convention ended Saturday night with the re-election of Gompers and other old officers of the federation.

You will be surprised at the quick results of a classified want ad.

WIRE BRIEFS.

PORTLAND, Nov. 25.—Frank Hillman got up in a car to give his seat to a woman passenger. Just then the car gave a lurch, throwing Hillman to the floor. Dislocated shoulder and minor bruises.

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 25.—Oakland harbors a burglar who does not go by halves. He drove a four horse team to the home of Mrs. Danziger and was gathering everything from a hot stove to the jewelry when the owner appeared. The police have the team but not the burglar.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—Following a trail of 45 calibre cartridges and black powder, police expected to find another dynamite bug. Six boys age 7 were in an alley coal box. They were playing hare and hounds. The powder was their trail.

PORTLAND, Nov. 26.—Clement Clemenson, who announced himself as a "Switzerland Swiss," was gathered in for buffeting the booze in various buffets. He yodeled so long and loud in his cell that the authorities were forced to turn him loose.

PORTLAND, Nov. 25.—Jimmy Dunn, aged six, was gathered in while towing a big double barreled shotgun down Washington street. "What you doing with the gun, kid?" the officer asked. "Gonna blowy—blowey big boo-dog," was Jimmy's coherent response.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—"He threw a can of chloride of lime at me," said Mrs. Van Heekeren, who wants a divorce. The court is deliberating.

Mrs. Ada Cleaver went to Jacksonville this afternoon to visit her brother, Lawrence Brown.

ECHOES FROM ASHLAND.

Ashland Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Ashland resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

H. Powell, 263 Oak St., Ashland, Ore., says: "I suffered a great deal from kidney trouble and backache and sometimes I could hardly get around. On arising in the morning, I was stiff and lame and the kidney secretions annoyed me by their irregularity in passage. As soon as I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills, I improved and I am now in good health. I still use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally, but more as a preventive than anything else. I always insist upon Doan's Kidney Pills for no other substitute could be as effective as they."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Former Resident Seriously Ill—

Mrs. Jos. Moss was called to Portland Monday on account of the serious illness of her father, Dr. Will Jackson, one of the pioneers of Grants Pass, leaving this city 14 years ago, and for 10 years past practicing dentistry in Portland. He has been ill for a year or more.
